Baltimore. - For president, Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, For vice-president, Gov. Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana.

This was the ticket completed by the Democratic national convention at 1:56 o'clock in the morning.

The nomination of Gov. Marshall for vice president came as a surprise, for when the night of balloting for

WOODROW WILSON

Democratic Nominee for President. vice-president began, it seemed that the Bryan-Wilson contingent in the convention had definitely settled upon Gov. John E. Burke of North Dakota.

A minute later the convention had turbance. adjourned sine die. The delegates worn and weary, made their way out of the big convention hall singing and happy to be started for home.

The District of Columbia placed William Jennings Bryan's name in nomination amid laughter and cheers. Mr. Bryan took the platform and was given a great cheer.

Mr. Bryan said for 16 years he had been a "fighting man" and now desired to say a word in the nature of a valedictory.

In declining to allow his name to be considered, Mr. Bryan said it was not with any desire of disparaging the office. There was no office so low, he said, that he would not fill it if he felt his country needed him. After Miles had concluded, A. Mitchell Palmer, Wilson manager, asked unanimous consent that the consideration of the vice-presidential nomination be suspended and the report of the committee on resolutions received and acted upon. Unanimous consent was o'mined and Senator Kern, chairman of the resolutions committee, read the platform.

Baltimore.-The Democratic National convention was called to order by Norman E. Mack, chairman of the national committee, at 12:10 p. m. Tuesday. After prayer by Cardinal Gibbons, Chairman Mack announced the selection of Alton B. Parker of New York by the committee as temporary chairman of the convention. William J. Bryan got the floor and made a forty-minute speech demanding recognition for the progressive element in the party, and named John W. Kern of Indiana as their candidate for temporary chairman. Mr. Kern declined the honor in a speech from the stage and said that Mr. Bryan was the logical candidate of the progressives for the position. The role of delegates by states on temporary chairman was called and resulted in a victory for Mr. Parker by 578 to but before he could make his speech, accepting the chairmanship, the convention took a recess to eight o'clock.

Only a scattering attendance appeared in the galleries at eight o'clock, the hour set for convening the night session of the convention. There try's history, this convention sends re hundreds of vacant seats in the delegates' sections. The delegates who were in their seats gathered in little groups and a hum of conversa. tion swept the hall. Scattered handclaps greeted Chairman Parker as he law. Second Day.

There were only a few persons in the armory at 11:30 o'clock and the heat that filled the big building gave promises of a sweltering day.

Floors and galleries decided on neglige raiment and coats were stripped off as soon as the delegates struck the close atmosphere of the hall. Hundreds of palm leaf fans fluttered throughout the building.

The result of the roll call as announced showed that the Wilson-Bryan forces had won the test.

The Wilson delegates began a demonstration. It was short lived, and Chairman Parker, seizing a megaphone, put the question of adopting the amended report. It was adopted by a viva voce vote.

Third Day.

The Thursday session of convention was called to order by Chairman Parker at 12:43.

As soon as the prayer ended the minority report of the credentials committee dealing with the South Dakota contests was submitted. It recommended the seating of the Wilson delegates. Night Session.

Immediately after the night session was called to order, Mr. Bryan arose and sprang a decided surprise by introducing a resolution and asking for its immediate consideration. Mr. Bryan read as follows:

The Resolution.

"Resolved, That in this crisis in our party's career, and in our coungreeting to the people of the United States, and assures them that the party of Jefferson and of Jackson is still the champion of popular government and equality before the people, we hereby declare ourselves opposed to the nomination of any candidate for president who is the representative of, or under any obliga-

Saturday's Session.

The sessions of Saturday and Mon-dates. The monotony was broken Saturday night when Mr. Bryan declared in a speech from the stage that he would not support a candidate who depended on New York's vote for the nomination. This created a sensation and Mr. Clark issued a statement in reply which was read to the convention at Monday's session, and caused much enthusiasm among the Clark delegates. The balloting continued to the forty-third on Tuesday before the final break to Wilson began.

CONVENTION NOTES.

Once more Colonel Martin of Missouri, perpetual sergeant-at-arms for Democratic conventions, is in his glory. Nobody can ever hope to equal the eclat with which Martin held down his job or which is more to the point, with more efficiency. This year

Colonel Martin had his hands full. It was not and the colonel is a pursy Situation Improved, but Further Work person, who perspires freely. In the midst of the session it was observed that the sergeant-at_arms had used four handkerchiefs mopping his fevered brow. The most remarkable thing in connection with the convention was the fact that no one apparently tried to counterfelt the admission tickets. The Chicago convenion visitors were beset with sharpers selling spurious pasteboards and joke "passes." But the Democratic admission cards are the most ornately engraved that have yet been in use at a convention and police have yet to find any imitations.

Only four states, Mississippi, Nevada, Utah and Wyoming, have no beds whatever in special hospitals or wards for consumptives. Eight years ago when the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis was organized there were 26 states in which no hospital or sanitorium provision for consumptives existed, and the entire number of beds in the United States was only 10,000. GOOD NIGHT'S SLEEP and Nerves.

Lying awake nights makes it hard to keep awake and do things in day time. To take "tonics and stimulants" under such circumstances is like setting the house on fire to see if you can put it out.

The right kind of food promotes refreshing sleep at night and a wide awake individual during the day. A lady changed from her old way of eating Grape-Nuts, and says:

"For about three years I had been a great sufferer from indigestion. After trying several kinds of medicine, the doctor would ask me to drop off potatoes, then meat, and so on, but in a few days that craving, gnawing feeling would start up, and I would vomit everything I ate and drank.

"When I started on Grape-Nuts, vomiting stopped, and the bloated feeling which was so distressing disappeared

"My mother was very much bothered with diarrhoes before commencing the Grape-Nuts, because her stomach was so weak she could not digest her food. Since using Grape-Nuts food she is well, and says she don't think she could do without it. "It is a great brain restorer and nerve builder, for I can sleep as sound and undisturbed after a supper of Grape-Nuts as in the old days when I could not realize what they meant by a 'bad stomach.' There is no medicine so beneficial to nerves and brain as a good night's sleep, such as you can enjoy after eating Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co., Battle
