

Rush For City Force Over

Income to 21st Larger in February Than in January.

The income of the city for the month of Feb. up to the 21st of this month is slightly greater than it was for a corresponding length of time in the month of January. The 21st of January showed that $13,396.82 had been collected and this included the three percent of the gross receipts of the Missouri and Kansas Telephone Company that the city receives each year. For Feb. up to this morning $13,531.91 had been turned into the city treasury, which includes a sale of over seventeen hundred dollars worth of gas pipe by the city.

A comparison of the various amounts paid into the city's funds results as follows:

|                | Jan.      | Feb.      |
|----------------|-----------|-----------|
| Gas            | $8470.82 | $9066.02 |
| Water          | $769.21  | $684.68  |
| Electric light | $1124.21 | $971.86  |
| Cemetery       | $218.00  | $173.00  |
| General        | $1327.22 | $374.50  |
| Pipe sold      |           | $1721.27 |

The totals as given above include besides the funds listed, meter deposits and miscellaneous sources of income.

Rooted in the Human Heart.

There is a smell in our native earth better than all the perfumes in the east. There is something in a mother, though never so angry, that the children will more naturally trust her than the studied civilities of strangers, but them be never so hospitable.—Lord Halifax.

Dickens Most Widely Known.

If it be true to say of any author that everybody has read him, that author is Dickens. He is more of a national institution today than Shakespeare, whose works, praised and perverted, explained and darkened, by an amazing mass of commentators today, are not, in our experience, really known to the average reader.—London Athenaeum.

Sacrifice for Art's Sake.

"You say you have devoted your life to art," said the man who tries to be polite, even when surprised. "Yes," replied Mr. Cumrox. "I have devoted myself to an effort to become rich enough to own a gallery of genuine old masters."—Washington Star.

Changing Nature Indirectly.

You are constantly assured that you cannot change human nature; that you cannot make people over by process of law. But if you cannot reform men by reforming the conditions that make men what they are, how is it that you can so easily debauch and degrade them by reversing the process?—Collier's Weekly.

Stone a Druid Relic.

A large buried stone, concealed for over thirty years near Anwick church, Sleaford, England, in order to be out of the way of the plough, was described, the other day, to the Lincolnshire Naturalists' Union as a Druid relic. The upper part of the stone had been flattened and an irregular shaped basin formed to catch snow or rain used for ritual purposes.

Some.

Some men talk in their sleep because that is the only chance they get.

Peace.

Nothing in the world is worth the loss of thy peace; even the faults which thou hast committed should only humble and not disquiet thee. God is full of joy and peace and happiness. Endeavor then to obtain a continually joyful and peaceful spirit.—J. Tersteegen.

GOOD ROADS

CLAIM ATTENTION

Local Men Interested in Roads in Vicinity--Big Projects Later.

The National Highway association is agitating the question of National Highways at present, and even though they are particularly sanguine in regard to this form of road building they themselves admit that it is necessarily a slow proposition. Local men interested in good roads are of the same opinion, and a number of them who believe that the National Highway proposition is a good one are at present more interested in attending to the roads in their own vicinity and letting the National Highway propositions come afterwards.

There is no doubt that the National Congress is taking more interest in good roads than it did several years ago. Road bills were soon turned down in Congress a few seasons ago but now there are nearly a hundred bills before Congress dealing with road building in one form or another.

This idea of good roads has been gathering force for years and the people are divided into classes in regard to it. Some road associations want State Highways without our National aid. Still others want good roads paid for by the county through which they pass, without any aid. And yet others are advocating that the question be settled not by counties, cities and towns but by the nation.

Newspaper Errors.
Newspaper readers are sometimes astonished by mistakes on the part of reporters. Consider, for instance, the surprise of the readers of a certain staid daily some years ago when they learned that a public man had the night before solemnly announced that "All reforms in this country have been brought about by Prussia." The word the great man had really used was "pressure," not "Prussia." So, too, considerable astonishment was caused when "curates" instead of "pew rates" were reported to be "the greatest enemies of the church."

One of His Stuck-Up City Ways.
"Since Joe Doe's got back here again, after livin' a year in Kansas City, he's too blame' wellheaded for any use!" hypercritically remarked Pip Maudlin of Skeedee. "Why, when he's at work and the fire bell rings he says he's too busy to go, and just lets 'er ring. Something mighty queer about such actions; nobody is ever too busy to go to a fire!"

For a Rubber Plant.
When the leaves turn yellow and fall off the plant is dying. Feed it a tablespoonful of olive oil every two weeks. Also wash the plant once a week with warm soapsuds, letting the warm suds moisten the earth thoroughly. Sprinkle every other day. This same treatment should be used on ferns.

Of a Copper Hew.
Here is an essay composed by a boy of nine on Cromwell: "Cromwell was a wicked man, and killed lots of men. He had a nose of copper hew, under which dwelt a truly religious soul."—Christian Life.

"Logging Engineering."
A chair of "logging engineering" has queer sound, but out in Washington the lumbermen insist that they need it in the state university in their business. There are possibly in some eastern colleges professorships more impressively titled that are not of as much practical value.

Nicaraguan "Capote."
Instead of raincoats, the Nicaraguan wears a "capote," which is a piece of impervious material almost square, with a hole in the center large enough for the wearer to put his head through. It is made by pouring rubber over unbleached muslin.

Child's Narrow Escape.
A little four-year-old San Bernardino (Cal.) girl, Harriet Strang, recently had a remarkable escape from death. She picked up a rattlesnake and carried it some distance to the porch of her home, where she let the reptile bite the house dog. The dog died in agony two hours later. The dog's cries attracted notice and the parents despatched the deadly reptile before it could do further injury.

Good Tip.
"I should like to secure an audience with your wife." "If you will consent to be the audience it ought to be easy enough."—Houston Post.

Attraction of Good Liar.
Some liars are so interesting that we feel sorry we can't believe them.—Dr. Push.

WALLACE RANKIN

First published in the Chanute Times, Feb. 20, 1913.
IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF NEOSHO COUNTY KANSAS.

The Neosho Valley State Bank of Chanute, Kansas, a corporation, Plaintiff vs.

A. J. Briley, Lizzie C. Briley, Defendants and Dott Briley.

Publication Notice.

TO DEFENDANTS, A. J. Briley, Lizzie C. Briley and Dott Briley:
You and each of you are hereby notified that you have been sued in the District Court of Neosho County, Kansas, by The Neosho Valley State Bank of Chanute, Kansas; that the petition of the plaintiff is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court; that the defendant must answer said petition on or before the 5th day of April, 1913, or the allegations therein contained will be taken as true and plaintiff will have judgment rendered against defendants, granting its claim for $144.75 together with interest at 10 percent per annum from Feb. 10, 1913, and for costs of suit; and defendants are further notified that an attachment has been levied on their real property located in the City of Chanute, Kansas, described as follows: to-wit: Lots Ten (10) and Thirteen (13), Block Thirty-five (35), New Chicago; that said property will be sold according to law to satisfy plaintiff's claim; that a Deed of Court will be granted setting aside and cancelling the transfer of said above described real property on the ground of fraud perpetrated on plaintiff, and decreasing said property to be that of defendants, A. J. Briley and Lizzie C. Briley.
SMITH & BROBST,
Attorneys for the Plaintiff.

Attest:
J. F. ERMERY,
Clerk of the Court.

Beans on a Stick.

Little Ethel was only four years old, and her mother was spending the day with a friend who had corn boiled on the cob on the table when dinner was served. Little Ethel had never eaten corn cooked this way before, but was very fond of it, and when she had carefully eaten every grain of corn from the cob, she passed the cob to the waiter and said, "Please mam put some beans on my stick."

Had No Time.

Miss Specs—"Charles, did you ever allow your mind to pierce the secrets of the universe, to reason that this dull, cold world is but the sepulchre of ages past, that man in all his glory is but the soil we tread, which every breeze wafts in an overshifting mass, to be found and lost in an infinity of particles—the dust of centuries, reunited and dissolved as long as time shall endure?" Charles—"No-o, I can't say I have. You see, I've had to earn my own living."—Stray Stories.

Until the Plumber Arrives.

While waiting for the arrival of a plumber, when the water pipes have sprung a leak, the housewife may do a little repairing herself. The water should be turned off and a solder made by mixing some whiting with common yellow soap and just enough water to form a thick paste. Apply this mixture to the leak and in a little while the water may be turned on very slowly. This solder may last a day or longer.

How to Remove Mildew.

To remove mildew from linen take some yellow soap and rub it well into the linen, then scrape some chalk very fine and rub that in also. Lay the linen on the grass and as it dries wet it again and again until the mildew disappears. Another way is to mix soft soap and powdered starch with half the quantity of salt and the juice of a lemon. Apply the mixture with a brush and lay the linen out on the grass for a few frosty nights until the stain disappears.

Strong in Memory.

Rural winter joys increase in an inverse ratio to the square of the distance, or words to that effect. It will be noticed that Whittier did not write "Snow Bound" until after he had become a city-dweller and the memory of frosted nose and ears and tingling hands and feet had become dimmed and vague. A too accurate memory, like acute truthfulness, is a terrible handicap for a real poet, just as it is to an editor.

What is Time?

What is time? The shadow on the dial, the striking of the clock, the running of the sand—day and night, summer and winter—months, years, centuries; these are but arbitrary and outward signs, the measure of Time, not Time itself. Time is the Life of the Soul.—Longfellow.

Bird Sanctuaries.

Bird sanctuaries recently have been established in England and in Australia. An attempt is now being made to protect the herons of Egypt, from which country the birds rapidly are disappearing before the guns of the plume hunters. The bird-protective work is becoming world-wide in its manifestation. All countries finally are becoming to realize the services which the birds render to man.

Practical Ventilating Hint.

The house should be ventilated in winter as well as in summer if the family is to be kept in good health. Bedrooms, especially, should be provided with a free circulation of fresh air. One way to get fresh air in a bedroom without having a draft is to tack strips of cheesecloth across the top and the bottom of the window so that when it is opened in both places the fresh air will enter the room and yet, should there be a strong wind, its force will be broken by the cloth.

Nature Covers Bleak Spots.

The planting of the barren mounds of disused coalpits in the "Black Country" between Birmingham and Wolverhampton, England, is beginning to show successful results. The growth this year of the trees planted on the coal mounds has been very rapid, with the result that many public bodies are taking an interest in the experiment.

Eyeglasses and Steam.

Wearers of eyeglasses are greatly troubled with the steam caused by the heat of the eye. This may be prevented by rubbing the glasses with soap daily. They may be polished bright after application, but an invisible film is retained which will prevent the deposit of moisture.

His Case Exceptional.

"Who's the thin little man with the melancholy expression?" "That's Hummer, the poet, who wrote the beautiful verses with the refrain, 'Life is what you make it—you can make it glad.' He suffers from chronic dyspepsia."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Absent-Minded Statesman.

Lord Lawrence, who was once governor general of India, was so absent minded in matters of external display that when the Koh-i-noor diamond, now among the crown jewels, came into his hands for transmission to Queen Victoria after the annexation of the Punjab in 1849, he kept it for six weeks in his waistcoat pocket, having forgotten all about it and only discovered it there by accident.

Self-Knowledge.

Suffer me to recommend to you one of the most useful lessons of life, the knowledge and study of yourself. There you run the greatest hazard of being deceived. Self-love and partiality cast a mist before the eyes, and there is no knowledge so hard to be acquired, nor of more benefit when once thoroughly understood.—Abigail Adams to Her Son.
