Here and There

It is often said that the central girl is the point of "contact" between the telephone user and the public. We don't know so much about that but we are aware that she is often the point of conflict.

George Ada says that you can get motorcycling sensations by tying firecrackers to your legs and then sit over an oil stove.

Buck Kilby, according to a second though writer on the Topeka Capital, says that marriage and death are the only things that have no humorous aspect. We think Buck is wrong because we have heard many say "funny they ever got married, isn't it?"

This coin is for Chief Grady. His policy of "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" is making him a popular official. Chanute certainly ought to be proud to have a man at the head of its police department such as the present chief.

Mrs. Harve Jolly and family returned this morning to Muskogee, Okla., after a visit here with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Evans.

Misses Dorothy and Minnie Lassman of Humboldt are visiting their brother John Lassman and wife for a few days.
