

The Wichita Eagle.

WICHITA, THURSDAY, DEC. 12, 1872.
TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

The big river is up again past fording with safety.

Snow, about two inches deep, fell here on Tuesday morning.

Don't forget the railroad meeting at Eagle Hall Saturday night.

The district court has been occupying the keno rooms this week.

C. F. Kendall, Topeka's merchant prince, paid our city a visit last week.

Mr. I. W. Camp is authorized to take names and solicit subscribers for the EAGLE in Eagle township.

The keno rooms, as well as all other gambling places, have been closed by order of the city council.

A paper is read before a literary society in Park township called the Blunderbuss. H. C. Randow, editor.

The Eldridge House, at Lawrence, will maintain its supremacy as the best public house in Kansas.

C. M. Garrison is fitting up a room one door north of his harness shop. When completed he will open a stock of groceries in it.

I. W. Camp has employed a practical workman who will commence manufacturing brooms on his farm in Eagle township.

The steam grist mill is now nearly ready to start. The boiler and engine house is up and the boilers and machinery have all been set.

Deiter & Kayser, two of Wichita's straight-forward, industrious boys, are building a neat and substantial cottage, 14x28, on Lawrence avenue.

Col. Vess Nicholas Smith, of Leavenworth, spent the greater part of last week in Wichita. While here he purchased quite a body of land of J. M. Steele.

The proceedings of the last meeting of the city council will be found elsewhere, and will be found interesting to every taxpayer and property holder.

Mrs. Wilcox will continue her lectures at the school house for the month of December on Thursday and Sunday evenings, commencing at 7 o'clock, p. m.

The suit brought by the county attorney of Sedgewick county to compel Harvey county to pay certain taxes has, upon motion, been carried to the supreme court.

Kesterson restaurant has changed hands. Messrs. Vance & Turlough have bought out J. F. Reese and will continue the tables with the best market afford.

See two interesting letters upon the outside of this issue, one of which is from the pen of Rev. J. P. Henson, who has been spending several weeks in New York.

J. T. Watson, at Waco, is our authorized agent for taking names of subscribers for the EAGLE. Mr. Watson is postmaster, and dealer in dry goods at that place.

C. M. Garrison has bought already this fall and winter over four thousand buffalo hides, besides a great number of deer hides, wild cats and furs of different kinds.

Our enterprising land is hard at work night practicing new pieces, and we understand will treat our citizens to some of their best at the concert to-morrow night.

J. F. Reese has gone east. We do not expect to know what for, unless it is to see his relatives and friends, but if anything should happen him we will endeavor to publish it.

Mr. Matthews has secured the services of R. V. Means, an eastern workman. We have seen some of Mr. Means' work and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing him a first-class jeweler.

The M. E. Sunday school are preparing for a concert to be given on the last Sabbath of this month. The officers, teachers and friends of the school are also making preparations for a Christmas tree.

The Old Fellows are preparing to dedicate their new hall on about the holidays. The grand master of the United States and the grand master of the state have both consented to be present and assist in the ceremony.

It is said that the first day of December is an index of the rest of the winter. By this rule we will have a delightful winter, for as yet we have had sunshine in the day and snow in the night except a day or two at a time.

Mr. Frechheimer is becoming to be recognized as one of the steady-going and reliable business men of the place. The talk of hard times in no wise affects him for the springtime cometh, when Wichita will be livelier than ever before.

Our subscription list is increasing more rapidly in the last month than at any time since we began publication. Eighteen names have been added already this week. We hope by the beginning of the year 1873 to swell the list fifteen hundred.

The firm of O'Brien & George has been dissolved. Mr. George remains in business at the old stand. No particular reason being given for the dissolution it is generally supposed that Mr. George intends taking in his son as partner—he weighed 12 pounds.

At an improvised meeting, held Monday night, C. F. Gilbert and the editor of this paper were chosen delegates to attend the state road congress or convention held at Solomon City yesterday. A report of the doings of said convention will, no doubt, appear next week.

Hard times, high prices and little to do are the cries that come up from every portion of the country. A portion of the same clamor, we are compelled to admit, is heard in this city. Great Arkansas valley, especially the high taxes. With but few lands to tax as yet, those who have secured their titles feel it most severely.

W. A. Shuman has opened an auction and commission house and employed Mr. Conklyn as auctioneer, where he can be found ready to sell goods or property of any description either at auction or private sale. Persons from abroad wishing to transact business with Mr. Shuman will find him prompt and reliable. See his advertisement.

As Mrs. McAdams and Mrs. Ream were starting out in a buggy, Monday afternoon, their horse suddenly reared and unceremoniously spilled both ladies out upon the ground, turning the vehicle over them. The accident was seen by several, who caught the frightened horse and prevented any damage. The ladies were not hurt in the least.

That fine span of sorrel, three-year-old colts driven around by Hon. A. A. Moore are from thoroughbred Morgan and Glenora. They are just as good as they are beautiful, and with all their show of life and spirit are as gentle as kittens when Mrs. Moore takes the reins. We had the pleasure of a dash around the city behind those same sorrel nags last Saturday. Mr. Moore is not going to leave Wichita, but will probably launch out in the wholesale trade, in a permanent building, heavier than ever, in the spring.

The Commonwealth, the great state paper, for whose owners we entertain the profoundest respect, appropriated in toto an editorial of this paper last week, headed the "Osage Lands." We heartily commend the wisdom and discretion of the editor of the state organ in publishing so sound and timely an article, but we would suggest that, hereafter, where no credit is given, such articles should be headed, to the end that they may have some weight and not be taken by the ordinary reader as humbug or misallusion.

We reproduce from the columns of the Leavenworth Commonwealth quite an extensive article on Wichita. These articles which we republish from foreign journals generally contain many interesting facts, but they are republished in the Eagle for the general good they may do our town in the way of advertising. It is impossible for a stranger in a short day or two to gather up all the facts touching the history of a town, to learn all the names which may have contributed to its prosperity, and to properly discriminate between the good and bad. These traveling correspondents necessarily overdo some matters, but because of these failures, we think it would be unwise and against the interests of our city not to reprint them in this paper. We want the name of Wichita to be heard in every town and county throughout the United States. We want the great superiority of this valley to be known and recognized everywhere, and newspapers are the most effective medium. We hope those who are in the habit of criticizing us for the publication of some of these articles will at least endorse the motive and be a little lenient. The future dense settlement of this valley is only a question of time, but the sooner it can be settled the better. The sooner the early settlers reap their reward for privations.

The concert and dramatic entertainment to be given to-morrow (Friday) night promises to be the best affair of its kind this season. Aside from the home talent, we are especially attracted at the last concert—Mr. & Mrs. Mead, Mrs. Simmons, Miss Smith, Miss Pittenger and Messrs. Brownell, Hyde, Henry and others, will again take part—they are to be assisted by Mrs. Davis, who is pronounced one of the finest singers in the state. She has come here on purpose to sing at this concert, and we promise her as good and appreciative an audience in Wichita as she has met anywhere. As before, the programme contains an entertaining variety, consisting of instrumental and vocal music, choruses, quartets, duets and solos interspersed with farces, tableaux, etc. Miss Peak, with her inimitable performance on the silver cornet staff, has again been imported at an immense expense. Turn out and give the Presbyterians a rousing benefit.

We wish we could prevail upon all the residents of the city of Wichita to put fences around their homes. Our herd law protects all from night prowling old cows, we know, but, somehow, homes look so bare and uninviting without a fence. It looks as though the occupant was only one of the great herd, out upon the street struggling around minus an anchor. The truth is, we have dozens upon dozens of neat, tasty and comfortable little cottages in Wichita that only need a light paling or other fence in front of them to render them inviting and home-like. A nice fence around a home lends it an air of privacy, refinement and comfort that it cannot otherwise possess. Let us all fence.

One of the fine passenger coaches belonging to the A. T. & S. F. railroad company was discovered to be on fire Saturday about 11 o'clock. The coaches ran out from here are alternated every day, which means two coaches and a mail car always on the side track at this place. It appears that the car cleaner had built up fire in both coaches preparatory to scrubbing out. After being outside a little while he attempted to go back into No. 7, but was met by a burst of flame. We were there in a few moments, and from the way the fire appeared to fill the canopy of the coach from end to end, concluded the fire had originated from the pipe where it passes through the roof. The coaches were immediately pulled away. The loss is something like $5,000.

The M. E. Church is now completed entirely, we believe, and the entire cost provided for. It is cozy and substantial within and without, and is provided with a bell and an organ. The seats and preacher's stand are tasty and comfortable, the floor and platform carpeted. The only thing in which the building committee deserve anything but praise is, the seats are three inches too close together and the aisles rather narrow. Two broad aisles would have been better than three narrow ones. But upon the whole little criticism is called for. The new and comfortable place of worship rolls out large congregations, which must be extremely satisfactory to the Rev. J. P. Nesley, who is an earnest and hard-working Christian.

A railroad meeting will be held at the Eagle Hall, on Saturday night, which meeting will be addressed by Dr. V. M. Stewart, who favors us with a short communication upon the subject in another column. Mr. Stewart has been engaged for some time past in working up the interests of a trans-continental railroad up the great Arkansas valley, whose eastern terminus will be at Mobile. There is to be the track from Hutchinson or Wichita to Little Rock to be built in order to have such a completed line. Our business men will please come out on Saturday night, as we have no doubt Mr. Stewart will have much to offer that will be of interest to them.

The show windows of Mr. Nixon, for some days have been very attractive and have drawn out many exclamations of surprise. The same taste and richness displayed in the windows marks the inside of the establishment. In many lines goods cannot be excelled in beauty and fashion anywhere. In silks, laces, fine woollens and furs he invites competition from all dealers and a critical examination from all purchasers. He finds the demand for first-class goods far exceeding his expectations upon the first arrival in the spring, and is compelled to continually keep orders for fresh supplies.

We received a letter this week from a gentleman east requesting us to send him an Eagle containing an article or articles on the agricultural advantages and resources of our valley, and what is most successfully raised in it. As to what is successfully raised in the valley we should think, after looking at the stalk of corn standing in Steele's land office, that particular stalk had succeeded admirably in raising the ears so high that a six-footer could not even touch the highest ear the tips of its fingers, and this stalk is said to have been an average in the field.

Those bridges across Chisholm? What is to be done? Something must be done, and that immediately. The farmers and others east of town are not only growing nervous, but indignant. Taxes are outrageous, yet every time they come to town their lives and that of their sons are endangered. We hope, we urge, that our county commissioners at their next session will go out and inspect the above bridges.

Frederic Daley is not only a success as a land-lord, but as a house mover, also, which he clearly demonstrated last week by loading a log house on wagons and moving it about two squares and setting it down again with perfect ease. Mr. Daley is prepared to move buildings or raise them on the shortest notice, guaranteeing satisfaction. See his advertisement in another column.

Remember the poor around you. We have but little doubt that there are those in our midst who will really suffer this winter if some aid is not extended. We do not desire to see the city and county taking care of indigent paupers, but we think that some organized effort should be put forth to find out and succor families that may be sinking and who are in this condition.

M. R. Moser, the big, good natured, fat, snoring son of Vulcan, whose shop is at the sign of the big wheel, and who will guarantee anything in his line from shoeing a Texas mule to making a printing press, has a card in this week's Eagle. All successful mechanics and business men will do well to advertise in a paper that is rapidly gaining admission to all the homes in this county.

It is evident that the law organizing and governing cities of the second class is law in very particular. Our representative, Hon. E. B. Allen, having been at the head of this city as mayor for the past year, will be enabled from his experience to suggest valuable amendments to the law this winter.

Literary Society.
The Wichita Literary Society met at the school house last Monday evening, and was called to order at half past 7 o'clock by the president, W. E. Stanley.
The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. J. F. Nesley, followed by the regular reading of the minutes, which were read and approved, as arranged for the last meeting.
The proceedings were interspersed with very fine music, kindly furnished by Miss Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. Warren B. Mead and Judge Atwood.
The essay of Mr. Hyde—subject, "Dared souls"—was a splendid and truthful production, and was highly appreciated by the audience.
Mr. Stanley and Dr. Fisher edited the Wichita Advertiser, Vol. 1, No. 2, and showed them to the society. It was a splendid production, in taking pattern from nearly all of our weekly papers, they indulged in altogether too much personal abuse.
The following programme has been arranged for next Monday evening:—
Lecture, by W. E. Stanley; Wichita Advertiser, Vol. 1, No. 2, edited by Q. A. Smith and Mr. Wilcox; recitation of poems, A. A. Hyde; essay, W. R. Kirkpatrick; report of criticism, J. L. Dyer.

Owing to the fact that important business will be brought before the society, the regular debate will be dispensed with for the evening. The society is steadily and rapidly increasing in numbers and interest, and is extended to all. Come and bring your ladies with you, and having been present at one of the meetings, we have no doubt that your regular attendance will have been secured. Quite a number of ladies were present last week, and we hope, and expect they will continue to favor us with their attendance. Come one, come all, and have a good time.

A new switch of eight or nine hundred feet in length, was put in just south of the depot last week. Notwithstanding there was already over a mile of switches around the engine house, the cattle yard, depot and lumber yards, yet the business of the place demanded still more.

The office of the Wichita Eagle is said to be the "wickedest place" in Kansas. Four persons connected with that establishment are sons of preachers. Our young tyro, Nesley, must be in bad company since he left Olathe—Gladiolus says so.

Yes, he is; the very worst imaginable, yet it is a great improvement upon that with which he was identified in Olathe.

W. A. Thomas & Co., of the Green Front, have just received two car loads of stock.

December 10, at the house of the bride's mother, in Wichita, by the same Rev. John Eaton and Miss Annie L. Herrington.
The happy couple took their departure on the eastern-bound train this morning on a tour. "Her good-spirited comrade is to be directed as from her lord, her governor, her king."

SPECIAL NOTICES.
Something new at Baldwin's gallery! Improvements in photography! Background from original drawing of fine interior in Paris, printed by a new and superior method. Other backgrounds will be added soon. Also, just received, a fine, new instrument, made expressly for outdoor photography, doing such work better than any other kind of lens. There are many buildings and residences in town that would be grandly beautiful in photograph. Views of such distributed among eastern friends would speak volumes of praise for the property and enterprise of Wichita, and would be among the best advertisements for the city ever published. Come and see the instrument and the new background can be seen at Baldwin's gallery, near Douglas avenue, Wichita, Kansas. 36-1f

Why, oh! man, should your wife and daughter go with wet feet when you can get a good pair of leather shoes for one dollar? True, one is cheap, but doctor says, "Come and see the shoes, and you will see something by doing the shoemaker, you will, ere long, fall into the hands of the doctor, and then your savings and peace will get away together.
