

FORD RACES ON MAY DAY ARE ANNOUNCED BY PRESCOTT CLUB

Five-Mile Touring Car Event; Australian Pursuit and 20-Mile Final With Eight Stripped Entries Ready for Starter's Gun

(From Wednesday's Daily) Automobile races for May Day on the Northern Arizona Fair association's half mile track here were announced by the Prescott Racing club last night...

A 20-mile main event will feature the meet; there will be an Australian pursuit for the eight strips and a five-mile race for touring cars carrying three passengers each and riding with top and windshield up.

Although announced late in the week, the race will be made to draw a good crowd, or the club will break a pair of suspenders. Once it was decided to hold the contests, the members were charged with the work of making it a financial success...

Eight stripped Fords are ready for the two events. Four touring cars will enter the five-miler. These will be driven by Jim Bianconi, Vernon Eckert, Jim Morrell and Jim Nealson.

The cars entered for the big race will be numbered as they were during the last contest and with drivers and mechanics will be listed as follows:

FRONTIER DAYS LUNCHEON TALK

Aspects of Summer Celebration Will Be Discussed at Next Meeting of Businessmen; Preliminary Work Is Finished

(From Friday's Daily) "Frontier Days" will be featured at the next Luncheon club meeting, scheduled for Tuesday noon, May 3. The Frontier Days executive committee has determined to place the Frontier Days before the guarantors and others interested at the noon luncheon.

Short, snappy talks, pertinent to the subject, will be made by men who have given time, energy and money in making the frontier days the success that it has become.

Workers have completed their various branches of preliminary preparations, the program is ready, advertising scheduled, etc., and it is now up to the community to say the word "go."

E. S. Clark will come from Phoenix to attend the luncheon meeting, and it is believed that Governor Thomas E. Campbell will remain over for the luncheon. The governor served as the first chairman of the Frontier Days celebration in Prescott.

Inquiries received from about the state show that the cowboys are anxiously waiting for word from Prescott. The dates have been set for July 2, 3, 4 and 5.
