For County Treasurer.

nouncements in The Oasis, Mr. R. D. George this week informs the electors of Santa Cruz county that he is a candidate for the important post of treasurer of Santa Cruz county, subject to the will of the republican county convention.

Mr. George is widely known as one of the most accomplished accountants in the southwest, and one of the most capable businessmen in Arizona. He is now the secretary of the Nogales Building & Loan Association, having held that post, or acting as secretary, ever since the organization of the the success of the institution has been due the efforts of Mr. George. Last Sunday, with the permission of one of the Mexican Custom guards, Brogden opened a car that had already been passed upon by the customs officials, and placed therein several packages. It is claimed the official had no authority to authorize the opening of the car. He, also, is in the Mexican jail, as well as Conductor Torres, who was present at the opening of the car. Efforts are being made to secure the release of Brogdon on bail.

Eye Taken Out.

Sarah Lopez, the four-year-old daughter of a prominent family in Nogales, Sonora, was the victim of an accident last Sunday that resulted in the loss of one of her eves. The child fell on a small chair on which there was a glass. The glass was broken and a piece of it pierced the eyelid, cutting the eyeball. Dr. Gustetter was called and though every effort was made House.
