"Has nobody told you, darling-Do they 'Feed His Lambs' like this!" I gathered her to my bosom, And gave her a tender kiss. Away went the cleak for dolly.

And away went dolly, too, As again she cagerly questioned, With eyes so carnest and blue: "Is it like birthdays or Christmas-Or like Thanksgiving Day; Do we just be good like Eunday.

Or run and frolic and play? "I know there's flowers to it. And that is most all I know;

And a bud begins to grow," Then in words most few and simple I told to the gentle child The story whose end is Easter— The Life of the Underfiled.

Told of the manger of Bethlehem, And about the glittering star That guided the feet of the shepherds

Watching their flocks from afar, Told of the lovely Mother, And the Baby who was born

To live on the earth among us Bearing its sorrows and scorn. And then I told of the life He lived Those wonderful thirty years, Sad, weary, troubled, forsaken, In this world of sin and tears, Until I came to the shameful death That the Lord of Glory died, Then the tender little maiden Uplifted her voice and cried.

I came at length to the garden Where they laid His form away, And then in the course of telling I came to the Easter Day-

The day when sorrowing women Came there to the grave to moan, And the lovely shining angels Had rolled away the stone. I think I made her understand As well as childhood can,

About the glorified risen life Of Him who was God and Man. This year the fair Easter lilies Will gleam through a mist of tears,

For I shall not see sweet Bessie In all of the coming years. When the snow lay white and thickest She quietly went away

To learn from the lips of angels The meaning of Easter Day. We put on the little body The garments worn in life, And laid her deep in the frozen earth

Away from all noise and strife. We took all the dainty playthings. And the dollies new and old, And placed them in a sacred spot With a tress of shining gold.

Were it not for the star of Bethlehem. And the dawn of Easter Day, It would be to us most bitter To put our darling away.

But we know that as the hard brown earth lolds lilies regal and white. So the lifeless, empty, useless clay Held once an angel of light. And I hope on the Easter morning

To look from the grave away, hinking not of the child that was, But the child that is to-day, -Emily Baker Smalle, in Pansy.

A TRUE OFFERING.

Dilly's Generous Act in Place of Easter Gifts.

she asked the question.

quite decided," answered Dilly.

so afraid I shan't do well! My uncle outline sketch. says that if I win the prize he will send me to the city to learn to be a real artlowed to go to the academy, she was so roar in the barn. poorly clothed and scantily fed.

whom I am afraid of," continued Chat- by lamp-light. better than I." Her voice trembled.

she had any ambition."

Dilly herself had a great deal of am- his heels in the air. finger-tips now with the excitement of she had anticipated; she had never the contest for the prize that had been drawn any thing so well before. would take almost all her next quar- thoughts. ter's allowance to repay him. Syd- The afternoon before the drawings up." He said money burned a hole in hand, allowance never could be made to last be an artist." how much Margery saved!

placed in the church. It was expected mine?" would amount to enough to buy it. it was not so good as her own; the Roman gold now in vogue, frequently I buy bran for milk cows the year Miss Sylvester, Dilly's Sunday School touch was a little timid; it was not so have small diamonds or other stones round because the larger flow of milk teacher, had said that she hoped her free and spirited as hers. pupils would deny themselves, and There was a pause, in which it seemed A novel pin recently consisted of a is sufficient to give me a good profit. make their Easter offerings as large as to Dilly that her heart's beating was crescent of graduated daisies, embrac- Good clover hay and bran as a staple possible. If Dilly didn't get the prize, choking her.

old Crumple and her new calf, and and ran away.

esque possibilities. eask and went to work at once. Crum- calf. "It might as well be finished, with a diamond. ple was a very obliging model, but the anyway," she said to herself. new calf was frisky and would not keep still. He had a queer, scraggy body, set up on four knobby, stilt-like legs. He had no tail to speak of, and seemed He had no tail to speak of the had no tail the first spring-like day of the year, ten o'clock. She kept her wo draw- novelty to this lind, -Jespelers' Weekly. (10.) Leader. Regulated Strangel and Maril Commen air. The old gobbler spread his wings and took the other in her hand.

clucked scorn at him.

Syd came in, and began to reckon, the probable expense of keeping three Buthim as pets; they were bewitchingly said. "Oh, Syd!"-her voice broke curly-tailed, and Syd wanted them-he almost into tears now-"I couldn't the figures come small enough, and he to her!' renounced the guinea-pigs with a great | "If that isn't the most ridiculous

"Oh, Syd, I can't draw him, he is so ugly!" said Dilly, laying her pencil lown and echoing his sigh.

"He looks somehow as if he didn't all belong together-like dissected ani- are done in this world." mals when you get them mixed up,' said Syd, surveying the calf with an unprejudiced air.

"I believe I can draw horses better, anyway," said Dilly. "I wish Beauty's colt hadn't grown up and been sold. There never was a colt like Aladdin, anyway."

"That 'Laddin of yourn? Well, he was fair to middlin' for looks." They both started at the voice. Josh Haight was coming in at the barn door. He was an awkward, hulking fellow of sixteen, generally considered somewhat "foolish," who lived on "the back road," nearly a mile out of the Creeping brook. village. He went about doing odd jobs, and was on familiar terms with every body:

"But I just wish you could see a colt that we've got to our place a-parsterin' for a city gentleman!" continued Josh. "Oh, is he very pretty?" cried Dilly, eagerly. "And does he look at all like Beauty? Would you let me draw

"I guess there's more'n you that wants to draw 'im," said Josh, shaking his head with an air of great importance. "But you're always kind o' friendly, an' them's uncommon good cherries you've got in your garden." "You shall have ever so many when they're ripe, Josh," said Dilly, "if you'll bring the colt over here two or him standing beside Beauty."

"Just say it in quarts an' pecks," ish, was still a Yankee. "Five, six quarts-a peck," said Dilly,

"I expect it's worth more'n a peck of cherries to draw 'im, but I'm one that likes to do a favor. You mustn't owner wouldn't want him drawed. I he heard as carefully as he saved his Why It Pays to Purchase Them in the Shape ean't bring him reg'lar, but I'll bring pennies. him whenever I can. Them cherries must be blackhearts you know."

He was a prettier colt than Aladdin: "What are you going to draw, Dilly?" Dilly clapped her hands with delightat Chatty Arkwright's little plain face the first sight she had of him; and looked thin and sharp with anxiety as when Josh brought him over, his naturally lively spirits were subdued by "I've been thinking about drawing the strangeness of his surroundings, so Crumple and her new calf, but I haven't that he stood quietly by Beauty's side, and Beauty turned her head with a Chatty's face rounded and bright- motherly look toward him, and they ened. "I think you draw cows very both remained in a delightful position nicely," she said. "I- Oh, Dilly, I'm long enough for Dilly to make a rough

It was a graceful and spirited sketch. "I shall succeed! I shall win the prize!" cried Dilly, whirling staid Marg-It was strange to see Chatty eager ery into a wild waltz, in which the and flushed with hope; she was usually gobbler pursued them, enraged by so pale and dejected. She was lame, Dilly's fluttering red sash, and got himand her uncle, her only relative, was a self into difficulty with Sancho, the pug miserly old man. It was a wonder, puppy, who was also moved to join in every body said, that she had been al- the dance, and there was a general up-

But Dilly sobered down again very "There are only two or three girls soon, and worked on her sketch even

ty. "Sometimes you do a great deal Josh Haight was as good as his word; he was even better; he brought the "How much she carest" Dilly said to pony over four times, because on the herself, watching Chatty as she stumped | third occasion the pony's natural spirits away on her crutch. "I didn't think overcame his discretion, and Dilly found it undesirable to finish him with bition. She was fairly tingling to her | Dilly's success was even greater than offered to her class in the Cherryfield | It had become fashionable among the Academy for the best drawing from na- girls not to show their drawings, nor ture. It was not only the pleasure of to reveal the subjects to each other. excelling that moved Dilly now, al- There was mystery in the air, and it though that was very dear to her heart; added to the excitement. Chatty Arkshe wanted the prize, which was five wright was more worn and pale with dollars in money, for a particular pur- anxiety every day, and as Dilly put the pose. She had overrun her allowance, finishing touches to her picture, and been bankrupt ever since Christ- Chatty's face would rise before her and mas, and had been forced to borrow so chill all her glowing pride. She much of Sydney, her brother, that it couldn't keep Chatty out of her ney was not a pleasant person were to be sent in to the judges, Chatty to borrow of. He was very wise and ran out and called Dilly as she was goprudent himself, and always "saved ing by. She had her dutwing in her Dilly's pocket, and he quoted "Poor "I must show it to you, Dilly. I Richard" maxims, which were very want you to tell me honestly whether wise and good, of course, but seemed you think yours is better or not. You very personal if you had a sweet tooth | can't understand how much difference that would draw you like a magnet to it makes to me. There doesn't seem the candy shop, and if your quarter's to be any chance for me unless I can popular in silver.

more than a month. It was a very Dilly took the drawing into her hand. appear, in readiness for the season of In order to secure a start of this kind small allowance. Dilly thought, but It was a group of horses and a colt-Syd said it was large, considering there the colt! Josh Haight's colt. There were nine children, and bit was more was no mistaking the long delicate lets of silver are becoming popular in your farm is ordinarily rich, and is not than girls needed, anyway, and just see limbs and the graceful, spirited arch both satin and oxidized finish of the neck.

Margery was fifteen and a half, two "Josh Haight let me go over to his openwork or enameled-flower designs, plant food required for that variety of years older than Dilly; she had been pasture and draw them. Isn't the colt have recently appeared as pins. saving all winter, in spite of Christmas a beauty? Josh promised not to let A brisk demand for silver glove pun- adopting a plan of rotation and econand every thing, to give toward the anybody else draw him. Did you draw gents, ornamented with gold applied omical feeding the fertility can be new chancel window that was to be the cow and calf? Is yours better than work or in chased finish, is expected gradually increased. More stock fed that the offerings of the coming Easter | The drawing was very well done, but | The large ball ear-rings, in plain increased accordingly.

she wouldn't have a single cent for an "You mustn't ask me; I'm not one painting.

She went to the barn as soon as she with a little forced laugh, and she and set with pearls or diamonds are bly increased by this combination. I reached home to take another survey of thrust the drawing into Chatty's hands used as pins, pendants and hairpins do not mean to imply that every farmer make up her mind as to their picture. When she reached home she shut A heavy double ring was recently give my experience. Bran in nearly herself into her room, and took out the seen, one shank of which bore an an- all cases increases the value of the

The great barn doors were wide open, [ings on her table, and kept looking at letting in a flood of sunshine, and the them while she was dressing. Little hens and turkeys-regularly let out by Theophilus, the youngest of the nine. Abram, the "hired man," for a watched her, with childish wonder at Wednesday and Saturday half-holiday her unusual silence. When she was -were wandering in and out, clucking ready she laid one of the drawings and scratching, their spirits evidently away in a drawer, shutting her lips as | coating is readily acted upon by water, elated by the feeling of spring in the tightly together as she shut the drawer, forming a poisonous oxide of zinc.

until they scraped the floor, and It was a beautiful April morning. strutted majestically before Dilly, as if The next Sunday would be Easter, and to show her how much more worthy he every thing seemed to know it; but was of being put into a picture than Dilly's face was clouded. When she old Crumple and her calf, and the pert reached the little bridge over Creeping young bantam rooster was so anxious Brook she heard a shouting behind her. to bring himself into notice that he Syd was running after her, waving perched upon the ladder and persisted something in his hand. "You're the in crowing as shrilly as if it were five carelessest girl!" he panted. "If Thoffy o'clock in the morning, although his hadn't seen you take the wrong picture, mother and the other matrons loudly you might not have got it there in | - Lemon Drops: Upon a half pound with a piece of chalk on a barrel-head, not too late now to win the prize. guinea-pigs which had been offered "I took the one I meant to," she place to harden. - Good Housekeeping.

was but a boy, although he had such a bear to win the prize away from Chatty prudent mind-but he couldn't make Arkwright; it makes so much difference thing I ever heard of!" exclaimed Syd, with tremendous emphasis. "Hasn't she had a fair chance? Is it your fault | News. if she can't draw as well as you can? I can tell you that isn't the way things

It was of no use to argue against Syd's worldly wisdom. She wished she had told Margery. Margery "saved up," but she would have understood. "I have a right to do as I please, and you have no right to interfere," said

Dilly, drawing herself up. Syd look ed thoroughly surprised; it was a new thing for Dilly to be kelfasserting; and although his face was like a thunder-cloud, he did not try to hinder Dilly, as, after one last look at her pretty drawing, she tore it-lest her resolution should fail-into little bits, and threw the bits over the railing into Syd, turning on his heel.

Creeping brook was not creeping today. It felt spring in every one of its drops, and it swirled the precious pieces | but as this treatment would ruin raised around, and tossed them gayly along work, like ribbon embroidery, arrasene toward the mill-pond, where the great | work, etc., a better way is to lay a wet | straight from the shoulder, flaw the wheel would suck them down.

the great sob in her throat, did not and tack tightly to the floor, taking once think that she had made an Easter | care to draw it tight enough to remove offering, but I am sure the Recording | all wrinkles; let it dry in this position. Angel did. Fathers and mothers, sisters and brothers, even uncles, aunts and cousins, flocked to the Academy hall the next Saturday morning to see the drawing and hear the prize awarded. It was given to "Miss Charlotte Arkthree afternoons. I want to sketch wright for a drawing of horses and a tempts to rise and throws his whole colt." Two or three other drawings received "honorable mention." But said Josh, who, although he was fool- not even that was accorded to the ket keeps his feet from spreading apart. sketch of Crumple and her calf. and her mother looked disappointed him up. and Margery sympathetic. Syd scowled fiercely, but Syd would never tell. He say nothing about it, 'cause mebbe his saved up his opinions and all the news

Dilly caught a glimpse of Chatty

said to herself. school the next day. The superintendent read the names of those whose | mercial fertilizers in order to increase down to Thoffy, had given some thing, | manure and rotation. Syd had made an Easter offering. feeling as if every body were looking so that more stock can be kept, send any other girl a card. I don't understand it. Dilly didn't know what that eard meant. Could Miss Sylvester know? Dilly met Josh Haight one day, and asked him if he had ever told anybody that she drew the colt.

"No. never, sure as you're born, said Josh, stoutly, "except, mebbe, I She was a-ridin' by, and, says she: "Is that the colt that Chatty Arkwright drawed?' And says I: 'She drawed him, but tw'n't nothin' to the way that the doctor's daughter drawed him; right out o' the pasteboard.' Dilly?' says she; 'I suspected. But she didn't say what she suspected. She kind o' pect she felt bad, 'cause she didn't get nobody else, sure's I hope them cherries | profit. to get ripe quick. Blackhearts, you Young People.

JEWELRY NOVELTIES.

ne of the Charming Articles to Be Worn the Coming Season Silver-handled riding whips begin to vield of the crops again.

outdoor recreation.

this season.

imbedded in them.

combined.

He had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary, that he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary, that he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary, that he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary, that he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary, that he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary, that he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary, that he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary, that he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary had he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary had he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary had he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary had he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary had he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary had he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary had he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary had he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary had he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary had he had no tail to speak of, and seemed there was a holdary had he had no tail to speak of the had no tail to spe

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD.

water should not be used. The zine be hung flat against the walls. -Galvanized iron pails for drinking

-Use great care when pickling or reserving in a brass kettle. Scourthe kettle just before using, and never et food stand in it after it is cooked. -To Cure Chilblains: Take ten pounds of oak bark, put it in a kettle and pour

Detroit Tribune. -Dilly's heart bent quickly. It was snough lemon juices to dissolve it, and boil it until it is like a thin syrup. Drop this on plates and put it in a warm

> -Brown Bread: One and one-half pints of milk, two cups of Indian meal, two cups of rye meat, one cup of graham meal, one large teaspoonful of aleratus, one-half cip of molasses. Sour milk will answer by using a little more saleratus, or, if you have neither warm water will answer .- Chicage

-The Farm Journal publishes the following recipe for mixing a homemade fertilizer? Keep all the good stock that you can make the farm earry profitably; feed well, bed liberally and save earefully all the offal. The more it is mixed with thought, care and study, applied every day, the better and heaper will the fertilizer be.

-For fig pudding take six ounces of fresh grated bread crumbs, six cunces of suct chopped fine, five ounces of mgar, one-half pound of figs chopped fine, one cup of sweet milk, one-half glass of brandy, one-half'a nutmeg, one-half teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of cream tartar and three eggs. Steam three hours and serve "You'll never amount to much," said | with wine sauce. - Boston Budget.

-Ordinary flat embroidery may be ressed with a hot iron on the wrong side, laying the piece on a damp cloth; towel on the table or the carpet; spread Dilly, watching, and choking back over this the piece work, right side up,

-When a horse falls and finds it difficult to rise he may be greatly assisted, thinks Agriculture, by the following plan: "Spread a blanket, coat or robe out in front of the horse, pull his front feet from under him and spread them out on the blanket. Now when he atweight on his front feet, they can not slip from under him, because the blan-You will find this suggestion very con-Dilly's father adjusted his glasses venient if your horse falls on a lonely road and you have no one to help get

BUYING FERTILIZERS.

of Feed for Live-Stock.

Ordinarily the average farmer can Arkwright's radiant face and her heart | not afford to buy feed, nor can be to any great extent afford to purchase manure, "I'm glad I did it; if I could choose If the farm has been allowed to run again I would do the same thing," she | down through continued evopping without manuring or rotating so that the It was somewhat worse at Sunday | field has run down below a profitable margin, it may do to purchase com-Easter offerings had helped to pay for the yield. The principal dependence the chancel window; all their nine, of the farmers must be upon barnyard If by using commercial fertillizers

Dilly sat, downcast and shamefaced, you can increase the yield of the crops at her. She was sure that her teacher, and thereby increase your supply Miss Sylvester, who was also the of farm-made manure, there may be teacher of drawing and painting at the many Western farmers who can make Academy, gare her two or three curious | the investment profitable. So feed. If you have a good supply of corn fodder, "Do you know," said one of the girls | wheat or oat straw, timothy and clover in Dilly's class to another, a few days hay, you can buy bran and oil meal after, "that Miss Sylvester has sent generally and feed with profits. For down, and thought thirty cents a dozen Dilly Dowden a beautiful Easter card this reason, wheat or out straw in them- too much for carnations. that she painted herself? There are selves are not a complete feed. In fact angels' heads on it, and a passion vine, they are of considerable less value of and the text is: Inasmuch as ye did it either of the others. But by taking anto one of the least of these my breth- clover, wheat, or oat straw and bran ren, ye did it unto me.' She didn't or meal, say in a feed of twenty-five the other day in order to secure some peapounds, you can give eleven each of nuts. She was going to make a call upon clover and wheat or out straw and a little friend, and wished to bring some three pounds of bran, and you have a feed equal to or nearly so to twenty-five | she said: "I want five cents' worth of peapounds of good timothy hay-by com- nuts, and," looking appealingly into the bining you make the straw nearly Italian's face, "please give me a lot, for equal in value with hay-because it supplies what the clover and bran lacks and then makes up what is deficient in did kind o' let it out to Miss Sylvester. | the other. This, of course, greatly reduces the cost of feeding and in many cured me." Oct. 19, 1886, he writes: "Concases considerably increases the sup- firm statement; was entirely curid." Price ply. Profitable feeding implies having good stock and then feeding so as to secure the largest gain at the smallest you'd a thought he was goin to prance expense. It does not pay to feed stock ensured my recovery." At Druggists. unless you can secure a steady gain from the start. But at the same time the expenses should be made as light | into a box. looked as if she wanted to cry. I ex- as possible in order to increase the pect she felt bad, 'cause she didn't get profits; under such circumstances feed a chance to draw 'im. No, I won't tell can be purchased and fed out with land, O., who less than one year ago, owing If properly managed seeming a large know." - Sophic Sweet, in Harper's erop should enable us to feed an increased number of stock. Then if fed | giant of Ohiounder good shelter, using all necessary precautions to make and save all the manure possible, we can secure a larger White or colored enamel flowers are amount of manure, and with good management this ought to increase the

you can purchase fertilizers and often Large, hollow-wire curved-link brace- you can purchase feed with profit. If eropped out by following one crop with Large intaglio sards, encircled with | the same year after year until all the | crops is nearly or quite exhausted. By and marketed and your profits will be and the increased value of the manure ing between its horns a fine enamel food is one of the best and cheapest feeds for milk cows I can obtain, and of the judges," she said at length, Large pansies carved out of amethyst the quality of the manure is considerawill find these his cheapest feeds, only She seated herself upon an inverted unfinished sketch of Crumple and her tique crest while its companion was set manure and in a run-down farm can nearly always be used in combination Broad woven-wire, or figure 8 brace- with other foods profitably. And it is

BOXING WITH A HORSE.

-For artistic effects pictures should | How an Oxford Graduate Tamed a Fiery Animal with His Fists. A very vicious and ill-tempered horse was eating his head off in a very luxuriant loose box, because there was no one in the establishment of the gentleman to whom he belonged who had the courage or strength to enter his stable to saddle and bridle him, says Outing. If a groom approached for any other purpose than to give him his corn or hay he would speedily lrive him away by a free use of his hoots and teeth. One day at lunch the owner was lamenting the uselessness of the finest horse in his stud to a party of friends, and wound up by saying that he on it six quarts of water. Let it boil would gladly make a present of the horse down to four quarts. Soak the feet in to any one who could saddle and ride him it and it will effect a certain cure .put of the yard.

A young graduate of Oxford, Hom Bid make the attempt, and, though warned by many a blood-curdling recital of what had been the fate of the grooms and stableboys that had made the like effort, he persisted in his determination to try. After lunch all adjourned to the stable expectation of seeing the young fellow receive a lesson for his temerity. He was known to be an expert in every manly exercise, especially boxing, and was in perfect wind and training. Selecting a saddle and bridle from an adjacent rack, he hpproached the strong bars that opened into the brute's stall, speaking kindly and spothing to him. The horse turned and eyed the stranger, and; catching sight of the hated bit, became furious, lashing out madly with his heels and stamping wildl about the stall, making the straw of his bedding fly in every direction Without a word the graduate rested the kaddle and bridle on the top rail; but the steady, undaunted fire of the eye, the firmly compressed lip, the backward poise of the shapely head, the swelling muscles of his lithe and active frame as he lightly vaulted into the box, told plainly of the iron, indomitable will and pluck within. Scarcely had he landed on his feet than the now thoroughly infuriated beast came rushing headlong at him, with its satin ears flattened closely against its lean head, its eyes aflame and bloodshot, its mouth agape and displaying a set of gleaming teeth, which he gnashed and ground with fury Sudden and savage though the onslaight was the young Oxonian was prepared. Throwing himself naturally and grace fully into boxing attitude, he met the maddened animal with a blow on the temple, just between the ear and eye, swift, straight and inexorable that brought him to his knees. Rearing up and squealing with pain and rage, the brute rushed again upon his foe, who stepped aside, but pale and determined awaiting his coming. Again a levin bolt, clinched fist and down dropped the horse. Slowly he staggered to his feet and, trembling in every limb, while great patches of perspiration stained his flanks and sides, he cowered in a corner of the stall, completely vanquished. The victor soon had the bit in his mouth and, leading him out of the stall, cantered gayly on the prize his bravery and knowledge had

SENSIBLE MISS WEST.

the Young Men in Washington.

According to a Washington letter, a thing that rejoices young men more than the downfall of the theatre hat is the pro gress of a fashion inaugurated three years ago by Miss West, eldest daughter of the British Minister. In a society including accept costly bouquets from their partners in the german. To each man asking her to dance a german with him she frankly said: "I never carry any flowers, so you must not send me a bouquet. I can not ac cept it." For three winters, and now for a fourth, Miss West has gone to balls with out a bouquet. She is one of the most beautiful women here, popular in all society, and a reigning young belle for the whole diplomatic corps, and her popular ity with the young attaches, Lieutenants and ensigns is unbounded. Her two younger sisters carried bouquets the nights of the balls upon which their fathe introduced them to society, but never after their debuts. These three English girls, Miss Mattie Mitchell and a few others, are now conspicuous at all the balls and ger mans by not being cumbered with one of the huge, heavy bouquets that other girls carry. The big bouquets in some eases have been a great drain on the girls pin-money, as they all like to keep up ap pearances and carry a bushel of flowers to outshine the rival with only one modest armful of roses. One ill-tempered young miss, who was holding a heavy bouquet of carnations, called to a rival one night: "Where'd you buy your flowers, Jennie!" Shaking up a bunch of roses as large as a wheat-sheaf, the rival calmly said: "At the same place where you got yours. The man told me how you tried to beat him

A Little Tot's Strong Argument. A little girl of eight summers, so the story is told by the Boston Budget, stepped thing with her to add to the entertain ment. Stepping up to the fruit vender there's nine in the family."

1880 R. T. LEONARD, Hamburg, Pa., Wrote: "Had severe inflammatory rheumatism for weeks, a few applications of St. Jacobs Oil fifty cents. Sold by Druggists. Mark A. Miller, Trav. Agent Erie R. R. writes: "Suffered with pleuro-pne monia; one bottle of Re 1 Star Cough Cure and no wonder, as jurymen always get The Strongest Man in Ohio

MANY men object to sitting in juries, to chronic liver trouble and Bright's dis-ease of the kidneys, weighed less than ninety-five pounds, but by using Dr. Har-ter's Iron Tonic has gained in strength and atil now he is admitted to be the

THE MARKETS.

	New York, March 21, 1887.	A particle is applied into each nortril and leagrees. Price to cents at bruggists, by mail, registered. Circulars free. El.Y BROS., Druggists, Owego
l	CATTLE-Native Steers $ 4 60 65 5 80	Circulars free. El-Y BROS., Druggists, Owego
Ì	FLOUR-Good to Choice 8 65 66 5 10	POPE A PROPAGO
	WHEAT-No. 2 Red., 92 % 93% CORN-No. 2 484 66 484	MENSON.
i	OATS-Western Mixed, 26 % 27	TOENSON'S TO THE
	PORK-Mess (old) 15 50 @ 15 75	@(CAPCINE)@
	ST. LOUIS.	TOTAL STEEL BOOK
	BEEVES-Good to Choice 4 80 @ 5 25	NOKUUS SPLASIF
	HOGS-Common to Select 5 00 @ 5 90	- I UNUUU I LINGIL
	SHEEP-Fair to Choice 3 09 65 5 00 FLOUR-Patents 4 15 66 4 40 "	HIGHEST AWARDS OF MED
	Medium to Streight. 8:5 @ 4 10	IN AMERICA AND EUROPE.
	WHEAT—No. 2 Red Winter 80 (5 80%) CORN—No. 2 Mixed 34% (6 85%)	The neatest, quickest, safest and most powerfu edy known for Rheumalism, Pleuricy, Neuralyia hago, Backache, Weakness, colds in the chest of
	OATS-No. 2 28 6 2814	hago, Backache, Weakness, colds in the chest a
	TOBACCO-Lugs 584 54 7 6 7 00	aches and pains. Endorsed by 5 600 hysicians and gists of the highest repute. Henson's Planters po ly relieve and cure where other plasters and s
	Leaf-Medium 4 00 65 6 00	walves, limitments and lotions, are finalisely to
	HAY—Choice Timothy 11 56 6: 12 00 BUTTER—Choice Dairy 22 6: 25	Beware of imitations under similar sounding r such as "Capsicum," Capsicin," Capsicine, a are utterly worthless and intended to descrive. A
	EGGS-Fresh 134@ 1244	BENNON'S AND TAKE NO OTHERS. All druggists, DRABURY & JOHNSON, Proprietors, New Y
	PORK—Standard Mess (new) 65 79 60 BACON—Clear Rib
	WOOL-Fine to Choice 34 @ 37	W. L. DOUGLA
	CHICAGO,
	CATTLE—Shipping 4 50 63 5 59 HOUS—Good to Choice 5 70 63 6 600	53 SHOE. & settlem
	HOGS-Good to Choice 5 70 65 6 00 SHEEP-Good to Choice 8 40 66 4 90	The best $3 Shoe in the
	FLGUR-Winter 3 75 6: 4 10 Patents 4 25 6: 4 50	perfect fit Congress, Bution
	WHEAT-No. 2 Spring 75466 78	or Lace pall styles toe. Equals any $5 or $6 Shoe. Cours
	CORN—No. 2	nothing coexamine them at your dealer's. I sent 1 5 4 5 5 5
	PORK-New Mess 20 00 @ 20 25	Information free how to obtain these
	KANSAS CITY.	celebrated $1 Shoes
	HOGS—Sales at 500 @ 500	If your dealer does them the state of them them them them them them them them
	WHEAT-No. 2	them BEST TANNER
	DORN-No. 2	The second secon
	NEW ORLEANS, FLOUR_High Grades 8 75 68 5 25	$2.50 Shoe oquals $1 Shoes advertised by
	FLOUR—High Grades 8 75 6 5 25 OGRN—White. 6 50	Brus. Hoys all wear W. D. Pouglas' MS Shoe.
	DATS—Choice Western 15 00 @ 76 50	ware of fraud. Name genuine unless name and are stamped on bottom of such Shoot. W. E. DOUGLAS. Brockston, Mr.
	PORK-New Mess (6 17 50	and the contract of the contract of the
	BACON-Clear Rib	COIND your own B
	LOUISVILLE	Uninu Meshoysters
	DESTRACT No PROS GO SA	GRAHAM Flour and

As a toilet luxury, Hall's Hair Renewer never fails to give satisfaction. Sufferers from Bronchitis will find speedy relief by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Never make a confidant of a hog, for it is their nature to squeal .- Danville Breeze, Send 10 cents to the PRICKLY ASH BIT-TERS Co., St. Louis, Mo., and get a copy of "THE HORSE TRAINER."

A complete system, teaching how to break and train horses in a mild and gentle way, requiring no claborate apparatus, nothing more than can be found in any stable in the country—a rope and a strap. Every one handling horses should have a copy.

No TRUE musician will verbally ask a girl to marry him. He will propose by note .-

AN EXTENDED POPULARITM BROWN'S BEONCHIAL TROCHES have been before the public many years, a for relieving Coughs, and Throat Troubles they are superior to all other articles. Soldania in boxes A PORT begins an effusion: "One of my boyish musings." Of course his verses are wholly amusing.

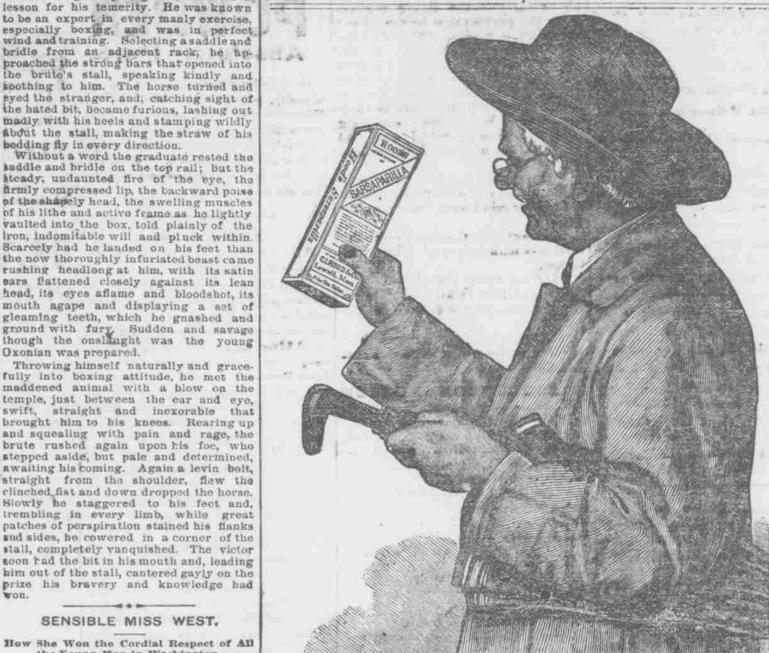

Chronic Coughs and Colds And all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, can be cured by the use of Scott's Emulsion, as it contains the healing virtues of Cod Liver Oii and Hypophosphites in their fullest form. Is a beautiful creamy Emulsion, palatable as milk, casily digested, and can be taken by the most delicate. Please read: "I consider Scott's Emulsion the remedy parexecularies in Theoremieus and remedy par-excellence in Tuberculous and Strumous Affections, to say nothing of ordinary colds and throat troubles."—W. R. S. CONNELL, M. D., Manchester, O.

Tue man who stoops to brush orangepeel from the sidewalk is bent on doing ood .- Picayune.

To THE Rescue with Hale's Honey of Hore hound and Tar for coughs and brovehitis. Pike's Toothache Drops Cure in one minute Eveny thief would like to keep himself unspotted .- Texas Siftings.

Ir afflicted with Sore Eyes use Dr. Isaac Thompson's EyeWater. Druggists sell it. 25c. THE silver question-solid or plated !-Texas Siftings.

BRONCHITIS is cured by frequent small doses of Piso's Cure for Consumption.

very many respects it is so different from any and it gains among all classes. Where it is once use all other medicines that it is with poculiar force often becomes a favorite family medic so many young men of slender means Miss all other medicines that it is with popular force arg secured. These three important points make | Dandellon, and other valuable vegetable re Hood's Sarsaparilla Peculiar in the wonderful cures it accomplishes, wholly unprecedented in the history of medicinal Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar in its wonderful it is made, has increased steadily since its intro-

strictly medicinal sease: Sest, in the combination | cine of its kind in the country. Hood's Sarsapa and it possesses greater Is Peculiar any similar preparation. Hood's Sarsaparilla make-up of other preparations. If you have never tried this peculiar medicine, duction, and for years it has been the leading do so now. It will purify your blood, give you an blood-purifying medicine in the great Spindle City. appetite, tone your whole system. Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. SI: six for E. Prepared by Sold by all druggists. SI: six for El. Prepared by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

100 Doses One Dollar

Do you feel dull, languid, low-spirit fullness or bloating after eating, or of "gene-ness," or emptiness of stomach in the morn-ing, tongue coated, bitter or had taste in mouth, irregular appetite, dizziness, frequent hendsches, blurred eyesight, "floating specias" before the eyes, nervous prostration or ex-haustion, irritability of temper, hot flushes, alternating with chilly sonsations, kharp, biting, transient pains here and there, coa-feet, drowsiness after meals, wakefulness, or disturbed and unrefreshing sleep, constant, lodescribable feeling of dread, or of impend--z calamity?

z calamity?
If you have all, or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from that most common of American maladies— Bilious Dyspepsia, or Torpid Liver, associated with Dyspepsia, or Indigestion. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symp-toms. No matter what stage it has recoded toms. No matter what stage it has reached, Dr. Pierce's Golden Redical Discovery will subdue it, if taken according to direc-tions for a reasonable length of time. If not ared, complications multiply and Consump-on of the Lungs, Skin Discuses, Heart Discuse, heumatism, Kidney Discuse, or other grave aladies are quite Hable to set in and, sooner urities, from whatever cause erising. It is qually efficacious in acting upon the Kid-eys, and other excretory organs, cleansing, congiliening, and healing their discusses. As his wonderful medicine has gained great elebrity in curing Fever and Ague, Chills and fever, Dumb Ague, and kindred disease. Br. Pierce's Golden Medical Dis-

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Dis-

CURES ALL HUMORS.

PRICKLY ASH BARK AND PRICKLY ASH BERRIES SENNA-MANDRAKE-BUCHU It has stood the Test of Years. in Curing all Diseases of the BLOOD, LIVER, STOM-ACH, KIDNEYS, BOW-QRICKLA ASH ELS, &c. It Purifies the lood, Invigorates and Cleanses the System. DYSPEPSIA.CONSTI-III DISEASES DE TH SICKHEADACHE.BIL LIVER IOUS COMPLAINTS. & isappear at once unde KIDNEYS its beneficial influence STOMACH It is purely a Medicine as its cathartic proper-ties forbids its use as a AND BOWELS beverage. It is pleas-ant to the taste, and as FOR SALE leasily taken by shild ren as adults. ALLDRUGGISTS PRICKLY ASH BITTERS CO

PRICE DOLLAR Sole Proprietors, St. Louis and Kansas Crrs CATARRH NOTHING COOD CHILDREN HAY FEVER BY SUPPERING FROM COLD in HEAD SNUFFLES

Price 50 cents at Druggists; by mail, registered, 60 cts Circulars free. ELT BROS., Bruggists, Owego, N. Y.

CATARRH. HAY-FEVER

"FOR THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE." Phoroughly cleanse it by using Dr. Fierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and good ligestion, a fair skin, buoyent spirits, vita CONSUMPTION, which is Scrafula of the Lungs, is arrested and cured by this remedy, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease. From its marvoious power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this how world-famed remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "Consumerron Cunz," but abandoned that name as too restrictive for a usediens which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a remedy for Consumption, but for all Chronic Diseases of the which is Scrofula of the Lungs, is arre Liver, Blood, and Lungs.

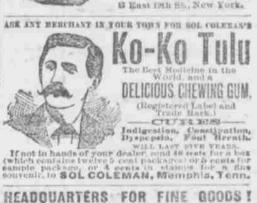

> World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Matu St., HUFFALO, N. Y. Piso's Remedy for Catarrii is the Best, Essiest to Use, and Cheupest. Sold by draggists or sent by mail. 50c. E. T. Hazeltine, Warren, Pa.

(F. Wilsons Parmiller of the Policy and Farm of the Parmiller of the Parmi

OAKLAVUN The Great Hursary of ERGHERON HORSES 200 Imported Brood Mares LARGE NEINERSEERS All Ages, both Sex IN STOCK. 300 to 400 EMPORTED ANNUALLY M. W. DUNHAM, China, Glass and Queensware,

G. B. CORWIN & CO., San Prancisco, Cal. Address E. W. TANSILL & CO., Chicago Br. ONEAL, "INTENTIONE

SPECIALIST. FRANK SCHUMANN. TAUKLE

112 Main St., MEMPHIS, Tenu. CHICKASAW IRON WORKS. Farm and Bill Machinery, House Castings, Cotton Pressure, Atlas Engines and Boilers, Etc. MEMPHIS, - - TENN.

LATE MAKE OF SAW FILERS

mianos i organs

SEND $1, $2 or $3 C. MOONEY, SYS MAIN ST.,

NEEDLES, For all Sex ing Machieles, STANDARD GOODS Only. SHUTTLES, The Traide Stangarded. Security of the Principle of the Pr REPAIRS. De locus est Louis AGENTS WANTED for the new and compute Por Weak Lungs, Spitting of Hood, Shortness of Breath, Chronic Nasal Catarra, Bronchils, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy.

Sold by Druggists, at $1.00, or Six Bottles for $5.00.

137 Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Address,

OR FOR A SET OF TELEPTEE B. HINKON, Deptist, E. BOLGTH, Assertant MENPHIS, TANN STO ES A MAY, Eamples worth $1.50 PREEL Lineangaunder the horse affect. Write BERNSTER SAFETY BEIR BULBER CO., Mally, Mail. & GENTRyon will find last what you want by ad-

A. N. R., F. WHEN WHITTNO TO ADVERTISED PLEASE STATE that that you are the Advertisation to but a