THE PRESIDENT ARRANGING THE POINTS FOR HIS MESSAGE.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE NEXT SESSION OF CONGRESS.

THE KEY NOTE OF THE SECOND TERM.

BOUTWELL AND HIS SUCCESSOR.

ETC. ETC. ETC.

(Reported Especially for the Bulletin.)

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The president has recently been arranging the points for his message, but he has not yet commenced writing it. Some of the contents of the document can be inferred only from his recent private utterances, and it is safe to say that it will be liberal in its tone, and especially toward the South, than his former messages.

The recent vote in that section shows indications of a better feeling than has heretofore existed toward the general government, while the press is more moderate in its utterances, not taking into account the popular majority of the entire country.

The recent pardon of Appleton Oakesmith is regarded by Southern gentlemen as showing a more friendly policy and forbearance executive action in relation to some of the Ku-Klux prisoners now serving out sentences in the Albany penitentiary.

SENATOR POMEROY.

St. Louis, Nov. 18.—The Republican Washington special says Senator Pomerooy arrived here today, and will remain until the meeting of congress.

He is in very cheerful spirits and speaks with confidence of his reelection. He says the canvass in his state turned wholly upon the election of senator, and that the war cries of the campaign were, Pomerooy and anti-Pomerooy.

He knows nothing of the committee on privileges and elections, which was at the close of the last session instructed to investigate, during the recess, the charges of corruption in the election of his colleague, Senator Caldwell.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE NEXT SESSION.

Senators and members are arriving in order to seek quarters for winter, or put their houses in order.

HOUSE APPROPRIATION COMMITTEE.

A quorum of house appropriation committee is here and will begin their sessions on appropriation bills on Tuesday.

THE PRESIDENT IS PLEASED.

The president is so well pleased with the reception of his enforcement of the civil-service rules in the appointment of a Philadelphia postmaster, that he has concluded to apply them in the New York custom-house.

CORNELL TO RESIGN.

The resignation of Cornell will be followed with the appointment of James L. Russell in the line of promotion, as his successor.

THE KEY NOTE OF THE SECOND TERM.

Those who sit at the right hand of the president, state that territorial extension will be the key note of the second term of Grant's administration. It is said that the president points to our present territorial acquisitions, especially those of the Southwest, as being so valuable that the people would not part with them at the present time for a thousand times the amount of the original purchase money.

COMMITTEE OF SEVENTY.

New York, Nov. 18.—The committee of seventy will decide to-day whether it will continue in existence or not. Some of the members think it wise to preserve the organization to support the mayor elect, Havemeyer, who being a Democrat, and supported mainly by Republicans, is without political backing.

ARRESTED.

Montgomery, Nov. 17.—Messrs. Morgan, Kimbra and McNeill, Conservatives who have certificates of election as members of the legislature, were arrested by United States deputy marshal to-day. The marshal said he had instructions not to take bail. The offense charged is some violation of the election law. This will make the political complexion of the legislature doubtful on organization, as the carrying of prisoners to Mobile will involve several days delay. The Liberals and Conservatives would have a majority in the house if the arrested parties were allowed to take their seats. The legislature meets to-morrow.

HONOR TO BOUTWELL.

New York, Nov. 18.—The Post to-day, in an editorial on Mr. Boutwell and his successor in the treasury, says: "Should Boutwell be transferred to the senate as the successor of Wilson, he need only desire the same measure of usefulness and success that has awarded his career as a cabinet minister. His faithful collection of the public revenue, and his vigorous appropriation of them to the reduction of the national debt, contributed more than all other influences combined to the re-election of President Grant. After an allusion to the Republican influence on the old world of Boutwell's monthly statements announcing the steady and rapid reduction of the national debt, the Post adds that the credit of reading this lesson in the financial administration to be world is to be divided between the people who furnished the money, the minister who applied it and the president who sustained him in it, and any statesman may justly say that which belongs to Boutwell. The Post says an impression prevails that Edwin D. Morgan will be elected to the treasury, a position afforded him by Lincoln, but which he declined, preferring to remain in the senate, and adds, there are few, if any, of our public men who have had such large and varied political experience, and none who would bring to the administration of national finances, more of those qualities which would inspire confidence in our securities at home and abroad, or who would support the president with more prudent counsel.

SUPERINTENDENT OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Levi E. Dudley has been appointed superintendent of Indian affairs for the territory of New Mexico.

ETC. ETC. ETC.

(Reported Especially for the Bulletin.)

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

New York, Nov. 18.—A terrible tragedy was enacted to-day at 42 Pine street, just outside of Judge Sutherland's office, on the third floor. The facts in the case are as follows: The testimony in a suit for the divorce of Mrs. King from her husband, Jas. C. King, a lawyer of 140 East Seventeenth street, was being taken before Judge Sutherland. Ambrose C. O'Neill, a detective on the Erie railroad, and his wife were witnesses in the case, and it is said that the evidence of both showed very brutal conduct on the part of King toward his wife. After the case had been adjourned, O'Neill left the office on the third floor started down stairs, and King followed him, several steps behind. When O'Neill had reached the second floor landing, King drew a pistol and fired three shots in quick succession. The first struck the victim in the small of his back, and must have caused him to turn around facing his murderer, as the fatal shot entered the right breast below the collar bone, about two inches from the median line. O'Neill walked steadily into the office of Mr. Quick, on the second floor, and sat down in a chair, and in about half an hour breathed his last. It is alleged that King killed a man in the Sandwich Islands several years ago, and attempted the life of a respected citizen of San Francisco at a later date. Groups of men are congregated about the vicinity of where the tragedy took place, excited by discussing the frequency of shooting affairs and assassinations in this city. It is feared that an attempt may be made to drag King from his cell and deal summarily with him. Both the deceased and the prisoner are said to be wealthy.

DISMISSED FOR WANT OF EVIDENCE.

RALEIGH, Nov. 18.—The charge against Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Mann, wife and daughter of Rev. Dr. Brinton Smith, of poisoning him to death, has been dismissed by Judge Wells, there not being the slightest evidence against them.

FOUR MURKERS.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 18.—Thomas McNamara, constable of Lackawanna township, was found dead near the hotel at Lyrtville on the outskirts of this city, on Saturday morning. The face was smashed in fearfully and the hands were cut in several places, the wounds had evidently been received in trying to ward off the knife of the murderer. McNamara leaves a family.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Along the line of the Hudson river, as in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, a terrible disease has broken out among the poultry; chickens are dying by the hundreds, and turkeys, geese and ducks in the market show signs of maledy. Dropsy, the new horse disease, has made its appearance in all the city car stables. Fifty per cent of the horses affected are said to die, and the horses affected are mainly those worked while suffering from epizootic. Stablemen are becoming alarmed, as they thought the disease was disappearing.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 18.—Nearly 1,000 deaths have occurred among horses from the epizootic. The bad weather of the last few days it is thought has increased the fatality of the disease. The streets to-day are almost empty of horses. Steamers and railroads bring in large numbers of ozen daily, they having taken the places of horses. Some railroads have resumed the delivery of freights.
