UNDER the new organization, the time for holding the election for city officers is a good many weeks farther off than it would have been if the election last week had ended differently. As a consequence, candidates are calm and collected, and do not press their claims with very much persistence.

CENSUS-TAKER Arnold will commence taking the census this morning and politely asks the public whom he will call on during the next three or four weeks, not to ask him too many questions. Their business is to answer questions—his, to ask them. An observance of these rules would facilitate things immensely.

Mrs. DR. S. F. GLASS, on Eighth street near Bristol & Stillwell's, has a complete library of homeopathic medical books and instruments, and the fullest assortment of homeopathic remedies ever brought to Cairo, all of which she offers for sale at prices much below the original cost. Prescriptions filled at any time at the most reasonable rates.

HENRY HAENJAGER has opened a family grocery store on the north side of Eighth street, between Commercial and Washington avenues, opposite Bristol and Stillwell's. He will keep on hand a selection of new and fresh groceries. Henry has a good many friends in this city, who will no doubt cheerfully patronize and encourage him in his new enterprise. The locality is a central one and he ought to do well.

PROF. TAYLOR was again the recipient of a crowded house last night. A large number of ladies were present, and all seemed to enjoy the entertainment and were delighted with the professor's many puzzling tricks. As a matter of fact, we are truly say that it is hard, even for the most scrutinizing, to comprehend how he deceives them. At the conclusion, as per programme, many presents were distributed.

buted. The drawing of a live pig by a river man created a great deal of merriment, as he carried it from the stage through the hall. Everyone present went away satisfied. To-night, an entire change of programme.

GRAND MASQUERADE BALL at Washington Hall, Wednesday Night, January 23, To be given by the Germania Dancing Association.

The managers of the association understand how to make the occasion a pleasant one for all who may wish to attend, and a good time for all is insured. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. Let there be a full attendance. The price of admission is $1, and tickets can be had at the stores of Paul G. Schuh, Ruder Bros., and J. Burger.

THE city has incurred an expense of $3,542 77 for the care of small-pox patients since the first appearance of the disease, sometime last winter. One hundred and sixty-one patients, sixty of whom died, have been treated at the city's expense. Nearly one hundred of the above number were non-residents and over one hundred were colored persons. In the sum total of expense is included the amount paid to physicians for vaccinating the poor of the city. The average cost of taking care of each patient has been about $20, a not extravagant sum, and one which it would be difficult to reduce much lower.

YESTERDAY, a week ago, a raft containing about two hundred saw logs ran so close to the shore at Cairo that a man named Martina Shane jumped on the raft with the intention of landing it somewhere below and claim salvage. He was not successful until he reached Island No. 9, where he made the raft fast to the shore, and started home. On the way there his feet began to swell, and were four times their natural size when he arrived. The skin pulled off with his boots up to his ankles. While the unfortunate man was floating down the river, lying on the raft, several boats passed him, and the report of his death reached his family before his return, which occasioned some surprise. Shane is now in a very suffering condition.

It is almost impossible to estimate the number of dyspeptics in the United States. The intense business energy of the American people scarcely allowing themselves time to eat their meals, is one great cause of this. More time ought to be spent over the dinner table, for, unless the food is thoroughly masticated, it cannot be properly digested. Still, when one has already got into trouble, the best thing is to find a way out. Buchu has been found exceedingly beneficial in such cases. In Parker's Compound Fluid Extract Buchu you can obtain a preparation containing all the rare virtues of the plant, together with other ingredients tending to increase its value. Try it, and you will not be disappointed. Sold by all druggists, everywhere.

No LONGER a LUXURY.—A few years since a spring bed was regarded as a luxury, and only used by favored members of the family. Jones' bed springs are fast working a revolution in this respect. The firm of Chas. Schoenmeyer & Co., corner of Commercial avenue and Tenth street, received the agency for the sale of Jones' bed springs some six months ago. Since that time this firm has been selling marvelous numbers of them to our citizens at prices which place them within the reach of every family. They have in every instance been pronounced as the cheapest and best bed to be found anywhere. Hotel-keepers and householders would do well to furnish their beds with them, as their cost alone will be saved during the first year. This firm has also on hand a large stock of sofas and lounges which were manufactured by their own workmen with a view to durability, besides a large lot of chairs, bedsteads, wardrobes, bureaus, stand tables, children's chairs, and in fact everything in the line of house-furnishing articles found in any house in the city; all of which they offer to the public at actual cost prices within the next ten days. Give them a call and look for yourselves.

MARKET REPORT.

Thursday Evening, Jan. 17th, 1873. The heavy rains of yesterday and day before prevented any kind of outside business on the levee, but today trade was very active in all departments and transactions in all kinds of grain and hay was large, but in some cases was restricted for want of stocks to fill orders. RIVER NEWS.

ARRIVED. Steamer Crescent City, New Orleans; Nick Longworth, Cincinnati; Grand Tower, Columbus; Jim Fisk, Jr., Paducah; Louisville, Cincinnati.

DEPARTED. Steamer Nick Longworth, New Orleans; Grand Tower, Retirement; Jim Fisk, Jr., Paducah; Louisville, New Orleans; Southwestern, Columbus; City of Chester, Memphis.

CONDITION OF THE RIVERS. The Ohio continues falling at this port and is clear of ice. Heavy ice commenced passing out of the Mississippi river yesterday and had the appearance of gorges at the gorge at that place moved some days ago, but stopped again with prospects of moving at any moment. Boats out of the Ohio reported ice making all day yesterday, and if the cold snap continues for several days more ice may be expected from above.

Special dispatches to THE BULLETIN report the condition of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers at various places.

BUSINESS AND WEATHER. Business continues quite brisk at the landings. Large drives of stock of all kinds are now being daily shipped from this port for the southern markets. The weather was excessively cold and was freezing all day.

MISCELLANEOUS. The Grand Tower withdrew from the Columbus trade yesterday, and the North-western took her place and will remain until the Illinois gets off Island No. 2. The Grand Tower has gone to the bank. The fly wheel of the nigger engine on the towboat Mohawk bursted, yesterday morning, while working the captain. She will have a new one cast here.

The George C. Wolf was towed up to the White warehouse, yesterday, where she has a large quantity of freight for Shreveport and way points, on Red river, and commenced taking it on board and will leave in a few days.

The Nick Longworth and Louisville from Cincinnati, went south with all the freight they could carry, and did not add a package here.

The Crescent City brought up three barges, two of them are loaded with railroad iron for the Cairo and St. Louis railroad.

The Jim Fisk came in with a cabin full of passengers. She ran through sheet ice all the way down, which formed in the river all day yesterday.

The Indiana had on board at dark a good trip, and Capt. Neal said he would leave with all he wanted.

Eight hundred and eighty-nine bales of cotton was discharged at the railroad yesterday by the Emma C. Elliott.

The Commonwealth and Emilie La Barge take trips from New Orleans to Red river.

Capt. Jim. Bibb, tired of drifting about in the lonely channel of bachelorhood, has taken in tow a neat little craft in the person of Miss Amanda M. Haynes, and is now gently sailing over the smooth sea of matrimony. The happy couple were spliced on the 2d inst.

Conductor Lennox does not like rail-roading. The Southwestern took down a drove of mules last night to the John Kyle, now loading at Belmont.

The starboard bull rail of the ferryboat Cairo was knocked down by the Grand Tower night before last.

The City of Chester left last night with a very good trip.
