The Bulletin.

CITY NEWS.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 5, 1875.

Hanged.

A rumor was going about the city last week that Jack Owens, a boy by the name of Peasely, and a negro man, were hanged the Thursday previous by a Missouri mob. The offense of the unfortunate men, two of whom are well known in Cairo, was the murder of a widow woman for the paltry sum of eighty dollars.

Make Your Family Happy

By ordering the Paradise White Ash Coal, The best for grates, stoves or for steam. All city dealers can supply you. 123-1-5-3t

Invention.

Mr. Jacob Martin, of this city, has obtained a patent upon a machine for trussing and chiming barrels, which will, if energetically introduced, greatly cheapen and simplify the manufacture of barrels, tierces, etc. By the use of the machine sixty barrels may be trussed, chimed and grooved in one hour.

Found.

A bank check, calling for a small amount. The owner can leave the same by calling on John Tanner, corner of Washington avenue and Eleventh street. 126-1-5-3t

Mr. Davis' Lecture.

The hall of the high school building was well filled last night by persons anxious to listen to Mr. D. L. Davis' lecture. Mr. Davis' subject was calculated to attract attention, and those who were present were well pleased with the manner in which they were entertained, and many were the compliments that were passed upon the speaker. The next lecture will be delivered in the same building two weeks from last night. Who is to lecture we have as yet failed to learn, but will inform our readers in due time.

Stockholders' Meeting.

OFFICE CAIRO & VINCENNES R. R. CO., NEW YORK, January 2, 1875.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Cairo and Vincennes Railroad company will be held at Cairo, Illinois, on Wednesday, January 27, 1875.

Personal.

—Col. John Wood will not be a candidate for mayor at the next municipal election.

—Col. Winston, representative elect to the State legislature from this county, will leave for Springfield to-day.

—Hon. Warren Chase vents his wrath upon Harrell, of The Gazette, and Mr. Oberly, through the columns of the Banner of Light.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, nee Gamble, will leave this city for Shelbyville, Ky., to-day, where they will probably make their future home.

—Deputy Sheriff Wm. Holden, of Unity, and John R. Roberts of Dog Tooth, have secured quarters at the Martin house during the term of the circuit court.

—J. W. Renfro, Andrew Nau and Edward McDonald, of Santa Fe precint, are in the city for this week and a part of next, attending court. They are stopping at William Martin's, on Cross street.

—Prof. Taylor, the gentlemen who delivered a course of lectures to the Free Religious society of this city last summer, goes for Woodward and Oberly in a lively manner through the columns of the Chicago Religio-Philosophical Journal.

—A heathen Chinee, who calls himself Wah Lung, came to this office to have some printing done for a laundry that he proposes to open in Cairo in a short time. Wah Lung don't speak English very distinctly. The only word in the English language that he can speak without stumbling over, is "money." He says that word with remarkable distinctness.

General Items.

—The Ohio river is higher at present, than it has been at any time for the past three months.

—The Rough and Ready Fire company will give a masquerade ball on the 14th day of February.

—The public schools opened yesterday morning, with a large number of pupils in each department.

—The churches were well attended last Sunday. It was the first out of eight consecutive Sundays that no rain fell.

—The Concordia Society will give a party at Kluge's hall to-night. Singing and dancing will be the order of the evening.

—Arter & Stewart, grocers on Commercial avenue, have procured a coffee grinding machine that will grind one hundred pounds of roasted coffee in one hour.

—Prof. Henry will return to Cairo soon and deliver another course of lectures. A fire-eater will accompany the professor this time, who will eat red-hot coals from a furnace.

—The Delta band will give a grand masquerade ball on the 25th day of this month. Extensive preparations for the occasion are being made, and it will be a big affair.

—Miss Hattie McGee, daughter of Judge Hugh McGee, and a niece of Mr. Henry Metcalf, of this city, was married a few days ago to the eldest son of Judge Mid Smith, of Caledonia.

—The Alexander county circuit court did not convene yesterday morning as was expected, owing to the absence of Judge Baker, who will arrive in this city at nine o'clock this morning.

—A prisoner in the county jail named Powers, wanted a change of linen, and wrote the following note to Sheriff Irvin: "Please send me a shirt. I have been three months without a change of linen, and I need not tell you that the misery consequent has made me acquainted with strange bed-fellows.

—The party at the Planters' House last night was a very pleasant affair. Mr. Huefner, the proprietor of the house, made everybody at home. There will be another gathering of the same kind at the same place, next Monday night.

—Each person who buys a ticket to the Delta Band masquerade ball, to be given on the 25th of this month, is entitled to a chance in the lottery for a combination easter and fruit stand, silver, worth twenty-five dollars.

—McBain, a sub-contractor who employed the laborers who have been at work on the State monument in the National Cemetery, at Mound City, is charged by the Messrs. Emory, the real contractors, with having defrauded the laborers out of their wages. The matter is creating considerable comment.

CITY COUNCIL.

CAIRO, ILLS., MONDAY EVENING, January 4, 1875.

The weather to-day has been the coldest of the season, and although the sun shone out clear and bright, the temperature was below freezing point in the warmest part of the day.

The general condition of the market is unchanged. Corn is quiet and dull at 74@75c in sacks. Mixed oats are very plenty and prices steady and unchanged, although receipts are considerably in excess of the demand. Corn meal is firm and scarce at quotations. The same applies to bran.

No poultry has been received for several days, and as the old stock is pretty much disposed of, the market is in a healthier condition. These remarks will also apply to the butter market.

Receipts of grain for the last three days were as follows: 29 cars of oats, 14 cars of corn, 2 cars of wheat.

THE MARKET.

Our friends should bear in mind that the prices here given are usually for sale from first hands in round lots. In filling orders and for broken lots it is necessary to charge an advance over these figures.

FLOUR.

The market rules about the same as last week. Stocks of all grades from XXX up are large and scarcely any demand. Low grades are scarce. Not enough to fill orders come in. We note sales of 500 bbls, $4 00@5 75; 100 bbls, $4 50@6 00; 400 bbls, $4 50@5 50; 350 bbls, $4 50@6 00; 200 bbls, $4 00@5 75; 400 bbls, $4 75@5 75; 300 bbls, $4 50@6 00; 400 bbls, $4 75@6 00.

HAY.

We note some improvement in the hay market, with an increased demand. Prices rule firm at last week's quotations. We note sales of 2 cars choice timothy delivered $21 00; 1 car choice mixed delivered $19 00; 2 cars choice timothy delivered $20 00; 4 cars choice timothy on track $20 75.

CORN.

The market is quiet, dull and weak. Receipts are large and demand limited. Sales were 2 cars bulk No. 2, white, on track 69c; 1 car No. 2, mixed in sacks delivered 75c; 2 cars white in heavy sacks delivered 70c; 2 cars mixed in heavy sacks delivered 70c; 1 car No. 2 white in light sacks delivered 74c.

OATS.

There is a fair demand for the order trade, and prices are steady and firm at 64c in sacks, 58c in bulk. We note sales of 123 sacks delivered 65c; 1 car No. 2 mixed in sacks delivered 64c; 2 cars No. 2 mixed in sacks delivered 64c; 1 car No. 2 black seed oats delivered 67c; 1,275 sacks in lots delivered 65c; 640 sacks in lots delivered 65c; 2 cars mixed No. 2 in sacks delivered 64c; 1 car black mixed in sacks delivered 66c.

MEAL.

The supply offering is small, and the demand moderately active. Prices are steady and unchanged. We note sales of 100 barrels steam dried delivered $3 60; 200 barrels steam dried delivered $3 65; 300 barrels city $3 65@3 75.

BRAN.

The demand continues good and supplies light. Receipts all taken on arrival. Sales of 1 car sacked, delivered, $19 50@20 00; 225 sacks delivered, $19 00; 150 sacks, delivered, $20.

BUTTER.

Receipts have fallen off and the market is assuming a healthier tone. Prices are still unchanged but the tendency is to advance. We note sales of 10 packages choice roll, 25c; 300 lbs choice northern roll, 25c; 500 lbs choice Southern Illinois roll, 24c; 500 lbs choice Southern Illinois roll, 20@22c; 500 lbs packed Southern Illinois, 23c; 1,200 lbs choice northern, 25@28.

EGGS.

Receipts have fallen off, but the stock on hand is still too large for the demand. We note sales of 500 dozen, 20c; 400 dozen, 20; 500 dozen, 20@22c; 600 dozen, 20c.

POULTRY.

No poultry of any kind has been received for several days. There was considerable inquiry to-day for choice hens. We note sales of 3 coops choice hens, $2 50@3 00; 800 lbs dressed turkeys, 10@12c; 20 dressed chickens, $2 00@3 00.

FRUIT.

All kinds are plenty and very dull. A few choice apples sold to-day at $3 25, but this is an outside figure. Stocks of both common and choice are much too large for the demand.

VEGETABLES.

Choice peach blow potatoes are scarce and in good demand at $2 75@3 00 per barrel.

PROVISIONS.

The market is quiet and easy, and prices are unchanged. We quote: dry salt clear sides 10@10½c; dry salt clear rib sides 10@10½c; dry salt shoulders 7@7½c; bacon hams 12@13c; mess pork $19 50.

CENTAUR LINIMENT

The great discovery of the age. There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling which it will not subdue, and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. It is no humbug; the recipe is printed around each bottle. A circular containing certificates of wonderful cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lockjaw, sprains, swellings, scalds, caked breasts, poisonous bites, frozen feet, gout salt rheum, earache, &c., and the recipe of the liniment will be sent gratis to any one. It is the most wonderful healing and pain-relieving agent the world has ever produced. It sells as no article before did sell, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do. One bottle of the Centaur Liniment for animals (yellow wrapper) is worth a hundred dollars for spavined, strained or galled horses and mules, and for screw-worm sheep. No family or stock-owner can afford to be without Centaur Liniment. Price, 50 cents, large bottles $1. J. B. ROSS & CO., 55 Broadway, New York.

CASTORIA is more than a substitute for Castor oil. It is the only safe article in existence which is sure to regulate the bowels, cure windcolic and produce natural sleep. It is pleasant to take. Children need not cry and mothers may sleep. 9-7-81y

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

ILLUSTRATED.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Weekly is the ablest and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorials are scholarly and convincing, and carry much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and free, and are prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 150,000 the Weekly is read at least by half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion is simply tremendous. The Weekly maintains a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Its articles are models of high-toned discussion, and its pictorial illustrations are often corroborative arguments of no small force.—N. Y. Examiner and Chronicle.

Its papers upon existent questions and its inimitable cartoons help to mould the sentiments of the country.—Pittsburg Commercial.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

ILLUSTRATED.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the provident mation by its patterns for the children's clothes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slipper and luxurious dressing gowns. But the leading matter of the bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

ILLUSTRATED.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaption to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
