COMMERCIAL.

CAIRO, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, February 8, 1877. No change of importance can be noted in the condition of the market here.

The Mississippi river is open from Cairo to St. Louis, and steamers are now passing up and down. The Ohio river continues to fall at this point, though there is still a good stage of water to New Orleans in the Mississippi.

There is nothing new to report in the condition of the flour market. There is a fairly active demand for low and medium grades, while the supply is limited.

The demand is good though not brisk. There is a good demand for the better grades of hay, while common and inferior is plenty and dull.

There is only a light supply of corn on the market, while the demand is a little more active. There has been no change in prices. Meal is in good supply.

The demand is for city, and prices hold up; while green country is dull and lower, as will be seen by quotations below.

The supply of bran is light, while the demand is active. Choice potatoes are worth $1.10 per bushel, and $3.00 @ 75 per bbl., according to quality.

There are very few on the market. Common apples are in good supply and dull. Choice are scarce and in fair demand.

Hogs are selling from country wagons at 6c, and beef at 4 1/2 @ 4 3/4. Mutton is worth 6c. The supply is limited, though we could not urge shipments until the weather is more favorable.

Chickens and Turkeys are coming in slowly. There is a fair demand for both at former quotations. Dressed poultry is not wanted unless the weather grows colder.

There is an overstock of common and inferior butter on the market, and prices are going down. Medium white roll has been selling as low as 12 @ 13c.

Strictly choice table is in fair demand. Eggs are in large supply, and prices have a downward tendency. There is a fair demand for white beans, onions and dried apples and peaches.

THE MARKET.

Our friends should bear in mind that the prices here given are only for sales from first hands in round lots. In filling orders and for broken lots it is necessary to charge an advance over these figures.
