To Consumptives.

Consumption, that scourge of humanity, is the great dread of the human family, in all civilized countries.

I feel confident that I am in possession of the only sure, infallible remedy—now known to the profession for the speedy, positive cure of that dread disease, and its unwelcome concomitants, viz: Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nervous Debility, etc., etc. I am old fogy. I believe in medicine. Twenty-eight years experience as a busy practitioner in the best consumption hospitals in the old and new world, has taught me the value of proper medication both local and constitutional in the cure of this great enemy of our race. I have found it. But I am digressing. I started out to say to those suffering with consumption or any of the above maladies, that by addressing me, giving symptoms, they shall be put in possession of this great boon, without charge, and shall have the benefit of my experience in thousands of cases successfully treated. Full particulars, directions for preparation and use, and advice and instructions for successful treatment at your own home, will be received by you by return mail, free of charge, by addressing

VOL. 10. CAIRO, ILLINOIS, SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1878. NO. 46

ASK the recovered dyspeptics, bilious sufferer, victims of fever and ague, the miscurial diseased patient, how they recovered health, cheerful spirits, and good appetit they will tel you by taking Simmon's Liver Regulator.

THE CHEAPEST, AND BEST FAMILY MEDICINE IN THE WORLD.

For DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, Jaudice, bilious attacks, SICK HEADACHE, Colic, Depression of Spirits, SOUR STOMACH, Heart Burn, etc, etc.

This unrivalled Southern Remedy is warranted not to contain a particle of Mercury, or any injurious substance, but is containing those southern roots and herbs which an all wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver Diseases prevail. It will cure all diseases caused by derangement of the liver and bowels.

The symptoms of Liver Complaint are a bitter or bad taste in the mouth; Pain in the back, sides or joints, often mistaken for rheumatism sour stomach, loss of appetite, bowels alternately costive and lax, headache, loss of memory with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done debility, low spirits, a thick yellow appearance of the skin and eyes, a dry cough often mistaken for consumption.

Sometimes many of these symptoms attend the disease, at others very few, but the liver, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of diseases and if not regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensue.

I can recommend as an efficacious remedy for diseases of the Liver, Heartburn and Dyspepsia, Simmons' Liver Regulator. LEWIS WUNDER, 1726 Master street, Assistant Postmaster, Philadelphia.

"We have tested its virtues, personally, and now that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache it is the best medicine the world ever saw. We have tried forty other remedies before Simmons' Liver Regulator, but none of them gave us more than temporary relief; but the Regulator not only relieved but cured us."—ED. TELEGRAPH AND MESSENGER, Macon, Ga.

BAD BREATH

Nothing is so unpleasant, nothing so common as bad breath, and in nearly every case it comes from the Stomach, and can be so easily corrected if you will take Simmons' Liver Regulator, Do not neglect so sure a remedy for this repulsive disorder. It will also improve your Appetite, complexion, and General Health.

SICK HEADACHE

This distressing affliction occurs most frequently. The disturbance of the stomach, arising from imperfectly digested contents, causes a severe pain in the head, accompanied with disagreeable nausea, and this constitutes what is popularly known as Sick Headache. For prompt relief

TAKE SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR, OR MEDICINE,

Contains four medical elements, never found in the same happy proportion in any other preparation, viz: a gentle Cathartic, a powerful tonic, an unexceptionable alterative and a certain Corrective of all impurities of the body. Such signal success has attended its use that it is now regarded as the

PRESS OPINIONS.

Springfield, (Mass.) Republican says: In the white house sits a man of mediocre ability and attainments, one whom I believe to be thouroughly honest and sincere in his purposes, possessing much of sound sense and judgment, with not a little appreciation of the popular necessities of the times, but weak and wavering in action, hesitating and unreliable in pursuing even his avowed ends. Confessedly the compromise candidate of his party, he owes his position not to the vote of his countrymen, but to a fortuitous and unprecedented series of events, to a second compromise of absolute justice with public necessity. Recognizing this fact, appreciating the shadow which darkens his title, President Hayes was bound by every dictate of honor, by every motive of expendiency, to administer his office primarily for the benefit of the whole people, without special regard to party interest. Much seems to have been his desire and such the governing principle of his course, and yet how widely he has failed to come up to the just expectations of his most sincere well-wishers, even to the standard of his own expressed purpose, is only too apparent.

Globe-Democrat: The Globe-Democrat opposed the silver bill while it was under discussion in congress; but, when it became the law of the land, it was entitled to a fair trial on its merits. Mr. Sherman has issued an absurd order that the new coins shall be paid out at par for gold only. This amounts to ordering that they shall be hoarded in the tressury, for nobody is going to pay a premium for gold with which to buy them. We trust congress will take proper action on this subject, and give Mr. Sherman to understand that it is his business to execute laws and not to obstruct them.

The silver bill is the law of the land, and John Sherman ought not to be allowed to stand in the way of its inforcement. A little effort in the direction of impeachment would be a good thing.

Mr. Hayes would show some sort of regard for public opinion by putting John Sherman out of his cabinet. He showed a great disregard for public opinion by putting him into it.

Washington Herald: There is no industry in this country that has suffered more heavily during the protracted dull times than the publishing. Now let the press of the country demand peremptorily that the duty be taken off of type, and also from lead, tin, and antimony—the raw material of type. This business of taxing twenty thousand business men for the benefit of a dozen or two has gone on long enough.

New York Evening Post: Whenever Mr. Blaine gets upon his feet in the senate he seems to imagine that he is standing on the political stump. It is plainly impossible for him to approch any subject as a statesman, an intelligent legislator, or a man of common sense, or as anything but a demagogue and a party-mouther.

St. Joe Gazette: The fact is a little significant that Secretary Sherman, in his weekly treasury statements, now forgets to mention the amount of gold in the treasury for resumption purposes. He knows that a statement of sixty millions of gold in the treasury wherewith to redeem seven hundred millions of currency would be received with ridicule by the American people and prove on its face the fallacy of his resumption scheme.

New York World: The World stands by the elective principle in and out of the city of New York. If we are hurt through it we must be healed through it, and not in violation of it or diffiance of it, lest the remedy prove worse than the disease. A majority of the voters of the west and south have demanded the remonetization of silver, and the law-making power in Washington has decreed it. The secretary of state has officially announced our new silver policy to listening Europe. It is no longer a legislative question; it has become an administrative fact.

Springfield Journal: The Journal is not a particular admirer of Representative Springer, in any sense of the term politically, but it takes occasion to express its opinion that his proposition to make the coinage of silver "free," like that of gold, provided in the original Bland bill, should pass. Give the two metals an equal chance, and then let us see which will come out ahead. It is the reverse of chivalrous to discriminate against silver because it has been kept under the heel of the demonetizers for the last five years.

NATURAL SELECTION.

Investigators of natural science have demonstrated beyond controversy, that throughout the animal kingdom the "survival of the fittest" is the only law that vouchsafes thrift and perpetuity. Does not the same principle govern the commercial prosperity of man? An interior cannot supercede a superior article. By reason of superior merit, Dr. Pierce's Standard Medicines have outrivaled all others. Their sale in the United States alone exceeds one million dollars per annum, while the amount exported foots up to several hundred thousand more. AN OPEN LETTER.

IT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF.

ROCKPORT, Mass., April 2, 1877.

Mr. Editor—Having read in your paper the reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh, I am induced to tell what I know about catarrh, and I fancy the "snuff" and "inhaling tube" makers—mere dollar grabbers—would be glad if they could emblazon a similar cure in the papers. For 26 years I suffered with catarrh. The nasal passages became completely closed. Snuff, dust, ashes, inhaling tubes and "sticks" would not work, though at intervals I would sniff up the so-called catarrh snuff, until I became a valuable tester for such medicines. I gradually grew worse and no one can know how much I suffered or what a miserable being I was. My head ached over my eyes so that I was confined to my bed for many successive days, suffering the most intense pain, which at one time lasted for 168 hours. All sense of taste and smell gone, sight and hearing gone, nervous system shattered and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eights of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my sufferings. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase a package and use it with Dr. Sage's nasal douche, which applies the remedy by hydrostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr. Editor, it did not cure me in three-fourths of a second, nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained so for over 16 months. While using the Catarrh Remedy I used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. A also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose.

Yours, truly, S. D. RENNICK.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Alterative, or Blood-cleansing.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Pectoral.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is a Cholagogue, or Liver Stimulant.

Golden Medical Discovery

Is Tonic.

Golden Medical Discovery

By reason of its alterative properties, cures diseases of the Blood and Skin, as Scrofula, or King's Evil; Tumors; Ulcers, or Old Sores; Blotches; Pimples, and Eruptions. By virtue of its Pectoral properties, it cures Bronchial, Throat and Lung Affections; incipient Consumption; Lingering Coughs; and Chronic Laryngitis. Its Cholagogue properties render it an unequaled remedy for Biliousness; Torpid Liver, or "Liver Complaint;" and its Tonic properties make it equally efficacious in curing Indigestion, Loss of Appetite and Dypepsia.

Where the skin is sallow and covered with blotches and pimples, or where there are scrofulous affections and swellings, a few bottles of Golden Medical Discovery will effect an entire cure. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy.
