MEMPHIS:
Wednesday Evening, July 12, 1917.

PARTIES spending the summer months from the city should leave their address at our counting-room for the DAILY or WEEKLY LEDGER, which will be promptly mailed to them during their absence. The WEEKLY LEDGER contains all the important city news of the week, under the respective dates. For three months, DAILY, $2; WEEKLY, 75 cents.

WE MUST HAVE ORDER.

The American people proper take no interest in the causes which make the antagonism between the Orange and the Hibernal Societies. These people, we fear, fail to comprehend the spirit of our institutions, or to respect it. This Government was founded on the idea of tolerance. Its Constitution gave it no authority to be intolerant. It is a usurpation to attempt it. We have either a Government guaranteeing the largest liberty, or we have a despotism. Our ancestors ran away from England and Europe to get away from persecution, intolerance and strife, religious and political. They thought people should be free to do as they think proper, provided they commit no offense against society. They thought people had a natural right to embrace and practice any religion, or adopt any politics their consciences or intelligence dictated. They thought they had a right to assemble openly, hold meetings, march in procession, bear arms, and do any act that a freeman may do. And they put this into the organic law. One set of men, voluntarily organized, have no additional privileges on that account. They have no right to determine the character or prohibit to other societies the freedom they claim for themselves. Our law knows only man. It only knows them as citizens entitled to its protection. We do not invite the transfer of old political and religious feuds to our soil. It was dedicated to liberty by our fathers, and though the administration of the Government may fall into hands that will not hesitate to assail it, the people will protect it. They will not permit intolerance to take root and flourish here. A great class of native Americans (not in the South), who, full of the spirit of the men who murdered priests and made a ruin of Paris, wish no spectacle more pleasant than an armed collision between the adherents of societies and sects. We applaud the authorities of the city of New York for the timely preparations made to keep the peace between the exasperated Hibernal and the sullen, resolute Orangemen. We must have order. We are nothing without it.

European News.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, July 12.—Dispatches have been received here stating that the meeting between the Car of Russia and the Representatives of the American Evangelical Alliance, which was to have taken place at Ems yesterday, is expected to take place at Stuttgart today.

FRANCE.

PARIS, July 12.—A large number of members of the International Society are bitterly opposed to the American Minister, Mr. Washburne, in this country. They are protesting against the presence of the Communists, alleging that he greatly assisted the Versailles in their efforts to capture Paris. This action appears to comprise a majority of its members, who are desirous of having a manifesto attacking Mr. Washburne in his position. A strong minority, however, do not coincide with the views held by the majority, and will prevent, if possible, this expression of hostility toward the American Ambassador.

WASHINGTON.

The New Funding Loan—The Darien Expedition.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Assistant Secretary Hartley, acting Secretary of the Treasury, says he has no information of the withdrawal of the new funding loan from the market.

The expenses of the Bowen trial are estimated at over $20,000, most of which falls on the Government.

The friends of Secretary Boutwell and Commissioner Pleasanton feel satisfied that the difficulty pending between the Revenue Department and the Secretary's office is not of that magnitude which would admit of the probable retirement of either of these gentlemen, provided they are not sustained by Grant or the opinion of the Attorney General. General Pleasanton fully understands that on the question, whether he or the Secretary should be sustained, it would be unmistakably the policy, as well as the duty, of the President to sustain Mr. Boutwell; but as the case has not yet assumed that phase, there is no good ground for saying that General Pleasanton will tender his resignation.

Balances to-day—currency $3,445,060, coin $8,378,000, of which $2,072,800 are coin certificates.

The Navy Department yesterday morning received a letter from Commander Selfridge, under date of the 10th inst. of Darien, June 18th, reporting that the work is finished and the results are thoroughly satisfactory, the surveys being most complete. Every preparation is being made to start for home. The general health of the men in the expedition has been good.

The Civil Service Commissioners adjourned yesterday afternoon till October 17th.

On Saturday last eleven citizens of Washington county, Georgia, were arrested and brought to Savannah for trial on the charge of having dragged two colored men from their homes at midnight, taking them into the woods and whipping them. Four of the men were discharged and the balance released on bail.

New York, July 12.—The excitement in this city is now increased tenfold this morning over the proclamation of Governor Hoffman, issued at midnight. It is probable that the parade will take place under the protection of both the military and police, as the Governor's proclamation revokes the order issued yesterday by the city authorities prohibiting the parade. It is asserted by members of the Orange societies that it was not the intention to carry any offensive banners, or play party music, but the whole affair to be peaceful.

The following paper is now in circulation here, and has received thousands of signatures:

In view of the recent and probable future events, the immediate organization of a society, to be known as the Protestant League of America, headquarters in New York city, with auxiliary societies throughout the United States, is recommended for this purpose; and properly to consider the immediate event that gives rise to this suggestion, let public meetings be called at once in this city and elsewhere. The claims of the Roman Catholics are fast becoming incompatible with civil and religious liberty.

A number of breech loading rifles and a large quantity of cartridges and military apparatus were secured by the police at the House of the Good Shepherd Roman Catholic Reformatory last evening.

The police have information of similar quantities in other localities, and will probably attempt a seizure to-day.

Great excitement prevailed at various National Guard armories last night until a late hour. Ammunition was being received in large quantities, and was arranged for distribution early this morning. Each soldier was furnished with forty rounds of ball-cartridges and one day's rations, with knapsack.

Cannon will be planted at different points along the line of procession, guarded by heavy details of troops. The will not be used except in an emergency.

General Shaller has his headquarters at the central police office, on Mulberry street.

One hundred of the Fifth regiment were on duty during the night, guarding the armory on the corner of Mulberry and Spring streets, near police headquarters.

Early this morning an Orangeman was hung in effigy, fully rigged, swinging from a telegraph pole. A large crowd assembled around the place.

The police have received information that two bodies of rioters were stationed down town on Third avenue, numbering several hundred, and one on Ninth avenue of two thousand. Those on Ninth avenue are driving the Swiss and Italian laborers from work. No actual collision is yet reported.

Up town, about Nineteenth street, all is reported quiet. The laborers all left that locality and marched down town.

During the night the police massed and organized fourteen hundred strong. The first intelligence of gathering rioters was received at half-past six a. m., when it was ascertained that the Hibernalians of the Third ward were under arms. They were not interfered with, however.

At seven o'clock alarming intelligence was received that a large body was congregating in the Thirty-first precinct for the purpose of attacking and burning down the mansion of Judge Heiser, on the corner of Ninety-second street and Eighth avenue. The Judge sheltered a number of Orangemen in his garden last year. Gov. Hoffman ordered the Seventy-eighth regiment to the scene.

At 8 a. m. Superintendent Kelso received official information that the Orangemen intended to parade.

It was rumored that Harper Brothers' establishment would be attacked, because of the well-known anti-Catholic sentiments of that paper, and a strong force was sent to protect it.

All the city regiments, including the Sixty-ninth (Irish) were under arms at their armories at an early hour.

The procession will march at 3 p. m. The route is as follows: Down Eighth avenue and Twenty-third street to the ferry, where they will receive the visiting Orangemen from Jersey City; then returning to Eighth avenue they will march through the various streets to Fourth and Broadway, thence to Cooper Institute, where they will be dismissed.

LATER.—The Orangemen will probably not be ready to parade until after three o'clock. Three regiments of national guards and eight hundred police will accompany them. No further disorder is reported. All the squads marching up town suddenly disappeared. This looks ominous; they will undoubtedly congregate.

A. T. Stewart's store, on Broadway and Tenth street, is closed, the rioters being in close proximity. The fight is progressing all around that neighborhood. A number of customers are locked up in the store, with no opportunity to get out.

The Fifth (German) regiment repulsed an attack on the armory by a mob who attempted to get muskets. General Miller locked the doors, and the police are now in charge of the place.

Three companies of the 75th regiment were repulsed by the rioters and driven off.

The 24th regiment was ordered to guard the police headquarters.

A large body of rioters are now marching down Ninth avenue.

Rumors are conflicting.

JERSEY CITY, July 12.—Orangemen are collecting at their rooms to join the New York procession. The military are under arms here and at Newark. Several members of the Emmet Guards, a Fenian organization, were arrested this morning for having arms in their possession. An attempt was made last night to steal arms from the armory, but the robbers were frightened off by the police.

TELEGRAPHIC ITEMS.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 12.—The move to throw the Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette railroad into bankruptcy is being argued in the U. S. Court in this city to-day. A formidable array of counsel is engaged on both sides.

CAMBRIDGE, O., July 12.—A colored jury has been summoned and will be impaneled at eight o'clock to-day in the case of the State of Ohio vs. Robert Wright, colored, for shooting with intent to kill. This is the second colored jury in the United States.

CRESTVIEW, OHIO, July 12.—On last Sunday evening the wife of Jesse Henry, residing at Crestview, five miles distant, while attempting to kindle a fire by pouring coal oil from a can, was severely burned by the explosion that she died that night. Her husband was badly burned in the effort to save her.

The Pittsburgh Post reports old Simon Cameron as saying that Grant is the greatest statesman of the day, and that his re-election is demanded that North-men may go South and steal a little more.

Notice to the Business Men of Memphis.

As there has been some misunderstanding among the patrons of our Memphis Business Directory, we will once more give a synopsis of its contents and uses. It will be a complete Business Directory of the city of Memphis, including in one volume a Business Directory of twenty-five towns, on the three railroads running from the city and the Mississippi Central railroad also. Our circulation we guarantee to be THREE THOUSAND copies, and from this every one can see its value as an advertising medium and book of reference. We take this occasion to tender our thanks to our business men for their extensive patronage of this Memphis enterprise, and would ask them to dispute every rumor in circulation calculated to injure us, as we are having unbounded success, and will publish it as soon as the compilation, etc., can be completed.

SUMMER RESORT.

MAMMOTH CAVE.

THIS WORLD-RENOUNDED WONDER is situated in Edmondson county, Kentucky, seven miles from Glasgow Junction, on the Louisville and Nashville railroad. Stage coaches are in waiting for all trains, from the North or South, to stop on the way to Mammoth Cave, which is but one hour and twenty minutes drive over a nice road, and in view of the most.

Having recently leased the hotel at the Cave for a number of years, I have pleasure in informing the pleasure-seeking public that nothing will be left undone that would contribute to the pleasure and comfort of visitors. The grounds around the Hotel have been laid off for all the popular games of the day:

Croquet, Base Ball, Billiards, Etc.

I have also prepared the service of one of the best bands in Kentucky, which will, at the hotel or Cave, there is fine hunting in the forest around the hotel, an excellent fishing in Green river, which is but one-half mile from the hotel. My bar is supplied with the best of Kentucky brandies, whiskies, foreign and native wines, etc., and there shall be nothing left undone that expense or labor can do to make this, the future, one of the most fashionable resorts on the continent. The scenery in the vicinity of the Cave is picturesque and grand, and is alone worth a visit to this place of pleasure and curiosity.
