

New Regulation.

Subscribers, outside this parish, are notified that, after the 1st day of January, 1878, we will discontinue sending the paper to them at the expiration of the time for which they have paid.

Service will be held in Grace Church every Sunday at 10 1/2 A. M., Rev. A. S. Clark, Minister.

See card of Messrs. Smith & Frist, carriage makers, wood-workers and blacksmiths. They have a splendid assortment of material, and stand first-class in their trade.

Gabe Savannah, (colored, of course,) one of the ring-leaders in the forcible rescue, last Fall, of a prisoner from the hands of an officer of the law, has been drawn on the jury for the next term of court.

Our lady friends who are in search of the real "Bloom of Youth" will find nothing so conducive to a clear, soft and rosy skin, as the light, fantastic garden hoe.

Planters below town complain bitterly of the frequent loss of their cattle. On Saturday last, and again on Sunday, back of the old Downs place, the refuse of a slaughtered cow was found, under circumstances clearly showing that the animal had been killed by thieves.

Several of our citizens, probably twenty, visited New Orleans during the Carnival. They express themselves highly pleased with the display, especially with the exhibitions of Rex.

So far, six steamboats have been sent from St. Louis to the Ouachita, with full cargoes, this season. The seventh boat was to have left on Thursday.

We can say for the St. Louis merchants that they are the poorest advertisers we have ever struck. They ignore printers' ink completely.

One of the Railroad Company was caught last week on the storage charge, when he was daily looking out for his freight. Of course he demurred. Some business men complain at the Wharf-boat charge for elevation. We think this is wrong.

The house Mr. S. Meyer purposes erecting will be built of brick, one story high, of eighteen feet and be covered with slate. Its dimensions will be sixty by one hundred and fifteen feet, with a partition in the center, giving two store houses, each thirty feet wide.

Tom McCormick, a colored employe in the Intelligencer office, had been talking too freely about the daughters of Wesley Billingsly, also colored, and was asked to explain by Wesley.

a bond of $1000 on a charge of manslaughter. Tom was rather a quarrelsome fellow, and a sort of Voodoo disciple.

It is hardly necessary to inflict upon our readers the second inaugural address of President Grant.

There is in the State of Louisiana, and for several years has been, a most remarkable young man—a man of elegant presence and fascinating manners; a man of very great acuteness of intellect, and a man of whom in general it may be said that his intellectual capacity seems to have been developed far above his moral ideas.

The grand and important act of dedication in our Post Office, under the searching investigation of Acting Postmaster and United States Special Agent Joseph C. Hays, and his assistant Maj. Edgar Seydye, are rapidly developing, and no doubt, so energetically is the work being pushed forward, the total dedication will in a short time be known.

The amount thus far ascertained to be unaccounted for and missing is much larger than was at first supposed, it having amounted up to nearly $55,000.

The package containing the Monroe Telegraph for the Vernon post office does not go to Shreveport, as we stated in a previous issue, but to Arcadia, 27 miles beyond its stopping place for a change of route.

We ask the P. M. at Vernon to explain the above paragraph, from the Vernon Standard. The post-master here informs us that our Vernon package is placed in the Vienna sack.
