AFTER THE VICTORY.

[Special to Times-Democrat.] Washington, Nov. 10 .- The Democratic victory in Ohio is so far-reachng in its results that there is much of national interest in it, aside from the merely local features. There is no doubt that the newly elected Legisla-ture will promptly redistrict the State. If this is done, and there are no material changes in the other States, the Republicans will not have a majority in the Fifty-second Congress. Ohio

It has been demonstrated that an arrangement of counties can be made to produce this result. An interesting feature is that the most distinguished Republican Congressmen in the Buckeye State are in the greatest danger of being placed in Democratic districts, where they could not pull through. By the shifting of four or five wards along the river front in Clucinnati the first district could be made hopelessly Democratic.
Such a redistricting in Cincinnati would retire Major Butterworth, but the effect of the change would be to make the second district more reliably Republican than it now is.

Another distinguished gentleman whose congressional career may be interrupted is Major McKiuley. By the

"That we shall drive Mexico to the wall there cannot be a doubt. We will avail ourselves of the conqueror's right to indemnity for the expenses of the war. She has nothing to pay with but territory. We shall dispossess her of at least a third, perhaps the half of her domain; this will open the question of slavery again and how it is to tion of slavery again and how it is to be settled, God only knows. For my-self, I see no peaceful solution of the question. The north and the south are equally fanatical upon the subject, and the difficulties of adjustment are and the dimenties of adjustment are augmenting every day. You will agree with me that the institution violates the sentiment of the civilized world. But what is to be done with the negro? You cannot make a citizen of gro? You cannot make a citizen of him and clothe him with political power. This would lead rapidly to a war of races; and, of consequence, to the extinction of the negro. He will not labor without compulsion, and very soon the country would be filled with brigands; the penitentiaries would not hold the convicts; and the public security would ultimately demand that they should be sont from the country. To remove such a number, even to the West Indies, would involve an expense beyond the re-

As I remarked, I can see no peaceful solution of this great social evil, but fear it is fraught with fatal consequence to our government."

TWO VIEWS. [N. O. Picayune.]

As the proposed election law that was intended to place congressional elections under Federal supervision was so framed as to put the power of controlling these elections in the hands of the President, thereby enabling him to secure to his administration as large a legislative majority as he desired, it is evident that one of the most important results of the recent Democratic successes will be the permanent shelving of all such schemes. The people have unmistakeably pronounced by their votes on Tuesday their lack of sympathy with the course of the administration. It will clearly be impossible since those elections to secure the sible since those elections to secure the 1000 subscribed by memlub. Jackson out-fought

[N. Y. Tribune]
The defects this year are medicinal. The Republican party ought to make the best pessible use of them. If they teach lenders that it is not sensible to disregard public opinion, if they help the Administration to realize where its the Administration to realize where its true friends are, if they warn voters that indifference and laziness put in peril the interests which they profess to hold dearest, if they show managers where the party organization is deficient, they will do more good than harm. But they surely teach one lesson, which Republican members of Congress cannot afford to overlook—that a National measure for guarding the purity of the registration and the suffrage has become a necessity.

DESTRUCTIVE STORM.

Dayton, Nov. 7.—Unless the snow-storm which has been raging for eight or ten days comes to an end soon next nummer will show a country covered with the dead bodies of animals as thickly as was the old Santa Fe trail in the sixtles.

The depth of snow is now not less than twenty-six inches on a level, and in many places it had drifted seven feet high. When the storm struck this section seven large herds of cattle, numbering from 400 to 2,000, were being held near this place, waiting ship-ment to Eastern markets. The rain of a week ago was followed Thursday morning by blizzards of snow and sleet, which sent the herds in a southerly direction. In vain did the halffrozen cowboys try to check the march

Finding it utterly impossible to head the cattle, the cowboys rode aside and let them pass, and when nearly dead rode the exhausted herses into canyons or partially sheltered places, where they passed many hours without food or fire.

Five cowboys are known to be frozen to death. Henry Miller, Joe Martin, Jas. Kelly and two unknown. Lights,

Two Mexican sheep herders have been found frozen to death.

Total,

Two men coming in this morning report the drifts in some places seven and eight feet high, and in which there are hundreds of head of stock. In one drift thirteen were counted. Some of these were alive, but unable to get out from their prison. Herds of sheep are completely wiped out of existence and the range for thirty miles from town is covered with dead carcasses.

It is estimated that 20,000 sheep have perished in this part of the Territory. Every shelter in town is being used as barns for snow-bound horses. The hay supply is nearly exhausted, and to-day $100 per ton was offered by stockme

At Texline, nine miles below Clayton, two passenger trains have been snowbound for a week. Provisions are running out and the passengers are compelled to venture out in the storm and kill cattle, the quarters of which are taken into the cars and roasted for

It is thought the snow plow will reach the imprisoned trains to-morrow and release them and that the road will be opened in a day or two. The snow is by far the worst ever known in New Mexico, and the exact loss of life and property cannot at present estimated.

FUN AHEAD.

Des Moines, Nov. 11 .- There is evidently going to be lively times in the Legislature this winter. The Repub-lican majority is so small that every effort will be brought to bear for the defeat of Senator Allison and the en-actment of a high license law. Whether either of these can be accom-plished remains to be seen. Already suitable candidate for the U.S. Senate for whom a few Republicans can be induced to vote. Flushed with their victory in the election of a Governor, they naturally turn to their successful candidate as the most available man, but there is a stumbling block in the way in the shape of the probable de-feat of their candidate for Lieutenaut Governor, in which event to take Mr Boles out of the Governor's chair, would be to put a Republican Lieutenant Governor in it. There seems to be little doubt that the liquor law will be changed somewhat, even in the event of the enactment of a high license law. This is not only the desire of the Democratic party, but seams to be the will of the majority of the people as expressed at the polis Tuesday. Already the Republican leaders, like Congressman Henderson and Republican papers, like the Sioux City Journal, have not failed to say that prohibition was the prime cause for the City of Greenville. that prohibition was the prime cause of Republican defeat, and to express a belief that a high license law will be enacted this winter. The Republican party, as a party has never espoused the prohibition cause, but has always stood in the attitude of carrying out the will of the people. Now that it seems to be the feeling of the people that they have had enough of extreme prohibition and are willing to return to high license, it will be an easy mat

It is now confidently stated that trains will be passing over this bridge in 1891, and from one to two years earlier than the mest sanguine friends of the enterprise hoped for.
