G. M. URQUHART & Co. are agents for Armour Star Ham and breakfast Bacon; nothing finer. Ask for them.

Advertising is now a well recognized adjunct to a successful business, and to be able to advertise effectively and to the best advantage is a requisite in a merchant's armory to connect himself with the reading public. Do your advertising in THE TIMES, it reaches the people.

Domestic and Imported Goods. Harbison Bros. & Co.

On account of the visit of Ringling Bros. Circus on Thanksgiving, the special Thanksgiving service at the Temple of the Hebrew will be held on Sunday, Nov. 22nd. A special musical programme has been prepared for the choir, and the occasion will be one of more than ordinary interest. The public are invited.

The people of Greenville and especially the ladies are cordially invited to inspect our magnificent holiday goods Wednesday, Nov. 23rd. We think that quantity before has such a variety of beautiful goods shown in this market.

Lord & Taylor, Druggist.

A gentleman whose calling and position in the community gives him the right to speak with authority on the subject, requests THE TIMES to call the attention of teachers and parents to the growing evil of cigarette smoking in the streets by small boys.

Children not yet in their teens are frequently seen with cigarettes in their mouths on the most crowded streets, in defiance of public sentiment and the laws of health and decency. If it is possible to put a stop to it it should be done, both for the sake of the offenders themselves and the credit of the city.

Nothing finer produced than Armour Star Ham and Breakfast Bacon. Handled by G. M. URQUHART & Co. Sole Agents.

LET NO VISITOR come to Greenville without seeing the beautiful display of Holiday Goods at Lord & Taylor's Drug Store.

The death of Mr. James S. Richardson, which occurred at Benoit on Tuesday evening, was a shock to his numerous friends and acquaintances in Greenville. Mr. Richardson had been in bad health for a short time, suffering with some affection of the heart. He arrived at Benoit on Tuesday, and started on horseback for his Dahomey plantation, about three miles distant. Before he reached the plantation house, Mr. Richardson called for help to dismount from his horse, and was assisted by a negro laborer. Mr. Evans, the plantation manager, was sent for and a physician summoned, but before the latter arrived Mr. Richardson expired. He was the eldest son of the late Edmund Richardson, of the famous firm of Richardson & May, of New Orleans, and the most extensive cotton planter in the world. Mr. J. S. Richardson was 49 years old at the time of his death, and one of the best known men in the South. His death removes a very prominent figure from the social and business life of the lower valley.

The Flower Show.

It is impossible, in a few lines, to do justice to this surprising and beautiful display. The flowers shown would have done credit to any city florists, and were all raised in the open air by amateurs. The numerous prizes were won by Mrs. Bergman, Mrs. Shackelford, Mrs. Bass, Mrs. Meisner, Miss Bettie Archer, Mrs. L. B. Campbell and Mrs. Nelms, for flowers. For floral designs prizes were awarded to the girls of the 9th grade for a magnificent floral flag, and to Misses Aimee Stone, Elsie Bowser, Carrie Wachsmann and Ada Marshall, for other designs. A description of the show will be published next week.

Come Chase My Shadows With Me.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.

Attention is called to the card of Messrs. J. F. Barnes and J. A. Cannon which appears in this issue, asking for offers of eligible lots on which to build an Opera House. The matter is one in which the whole community is interested, and satisfaction will be general when it is known that the Board of Trade has taken the matter in hand and that definite steps are being taken to secure to the city a place of public amusement which will be appropriate to the size and importance of the city and adequate to its needs.

THE TIMES has long agitated the question, and it has been apparent, from recent experience, that it must soon be met and answered. Public demand for a suitable house of entertainment has grown actually clamorous. Greenville has a discerning and intelligent public, which will liberally patronize good theatrical companies. It has an energetic, up-to-date, and capable manager. There is nothing to prevent the town from becoming a regular-class companies on their way between Memphis and New Orleans, except the fatal lack of a stage and auditorium. Until this remedied things must continue to be as they were on the occasion of the Ward and Vokes entertainment and the first night of the Dorothy Company—a suffocating crowd of all sorts and conditions of people packed like sardines into half the space they require, and a stage on which self-respecting companies are most reluctant to appear. The whole community should uphold the hands of the Board of Trade in their worthy effort to obtain for the city a convenience which has become a public necessity.

SOCIETY AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. J. D. Symthe and children are visiting in Memphis.

Miss Bettie Yerger has returned from a visit to Rosedale.

Mrs. Arthur Ganong, of Memphis, is visiting Miss Jennie Yerger.

Mrs. Mildred Humphreys, of Greenwood, is visiting Mrs. Wm. Yerger.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Baker, are now pleasantly located at Mrs. Megget's.

Miss Innis Starling spent a few days last week with Miss Mary Trigg at Benoit.

Mrs. J. J. Richards and Mrs. Magruder, of Hollondale, spent Tuesday in the city.

Mrs. W. H. Buchanan is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Tillotson, of Leland.

Mrs. F. S. Aldridge and Mrs. A. G. Paxton, of Arcola, spent Tuesday in Greenville.

Miss Ruth Primrose spent the week with Miss Fannie Montgomery at Winterville.

Miss Maud Bryan is a welcome visitor this week at the home of Miss Carrie Belle Negus.

Mrs. Ring and children, of Shaw, after a pleasant visit to Mrs. John Sager have returned home.

Miss Mal Scott and her guest, Miss Lora, of Chattanooga, are visiting Miss Jennie Yerger.

Misses Sarah Walker and Helen Finley, are at home again to the delight of their many friends.

Mrs. E. R. Wortham and children have returned from an extended visit to relatives in California.

Mrs. Sam Hirsch and Miss Stella Hirsch, have returned to Memphis after a pleasant visit to our city.

Mrs. P. G. Sterling, of Leland was a welcome visitor this week. While here she was guest of Mrs. Sallie Shields.

Mrs. J. D. Smith and Miss Mabelle Smith went to Indianola Thursday to attend the marriage of their friend, Miss Faison.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Negus left this week for New Jersey to visit their son, Mr. Will Ingle Negus, who is a student at Princeton.

Miss Alice Neilson formerly a resident of our city, now of Texas, arrived this week and will spend some time with her sister, Mrs. N. C. Skinner.

Mrs. LeRoy Percy, Mrs. H. P. Hawkins and Mrs. Alfred Stone, and Mrs. Edward Holland have returned from a short visit to Memphis.

Mr. John Havemeyer and Miss Havemeyer, of New York, spent the week in our city. Miss Havemeyer was entertained by Miss Narcisse Johnson.

Miss Ellie Flowersee, of Vicksburg, who was to have brightened our social circle this week as guest of Miss Susie McCutchen, is quite sick, so her visit is postponed indefinitely.

Mrs. Henry T. Ireys is welcomed home after quite an absence. She returned Saturday and will remain until Capt. Ireys leaves for Columbia, Tenn., where the Regiment is to be mustered out of the United States service.

Mrs. J. S. Borodofsky, of Arcola, made a short visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gensberger, last week and was given a cordial welcome by her many friends upon this, her first visit home since she left it as a bride a few short weeks ago.

Mr. Shepherd, of Woodville, arrived this week for a visit to Mrs. Neilson. Mrs. Kemper, of Vicksburg, known and admired in Greenville as Miss Margaret Shepherd is expected up Sunday on the Belle of the Bonds, and will spend a few hours in the city.

Mrs. Malvina Yerger left Tuesday for Columbus, after a long visit to her son, Mr. William Yerger and sister, Mrs. Valliant. Mrs. Yerger, by her sweet, lovely character, has endeared herself to many persons in Greenville, who are ever ready to give her a warm welcome.

Miss Annie Lewenthal, of Brookhaven, is in the city enroute to her home, after a summer spent to her delight in San Francisco most delightfully in San Francisco with Mrs. Jack Phillips, formerly Miss Lulu Witt. Misses Edna Goldstein and Sadie Witt will remain some time longer, to the regret of many who impatiently await their return.

One of the brilliant affairs of the season was the reception tendered on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. George Wheatley to Mrs. Thomas Howard Hood. The pretty home was most profusely decorated with chrysanthemums. Mrs. Wheatley was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Arthur Ganong, of Memphis. The dainty refreshments were served by a bevy of lovely girls, most becomingly attired in evening dress were Misses Jennie Yerger, Mal Scott Loop, Louise Valliant, Carrie Belle Negus, Kate and Susie Ireys, Susie McCutchen and Sarah Walker.

Prof. E. E. Bass entertained handsomely at an informal reception on Tuesday afternoon, the following guests: Misses Susie McCutchen, Susie Trigg, Lorena Barry, Etta Darling, Carrie Stern, Annie Mozniski, Lottie Bangh, Annie North, Nellie Griffin, Narcisse Johnson and Mrs. James Daney, Messrs. E. L. Grady and A. E. Russell.

The following couples and many stages were in attendance at the Assembly Ball Thursday night.

Miss Susie McCutchen, Mr. C. Luge, Mrs. Mary Loop, Mr. W. W. Fort, Mr. Mal Scott, Mr. F. Wilson, Mrs. Mary Polham Finley, Mr. Guy Hill, Mrs. Nellie Segars, Mr. Abi Yez, Mrs. L. D. Shelton, Mr. J. C. Conly, Mrs. Carrie Belle Segars, Mr. Harry Strickland, Mrs. Kate Irby, Mr. Jim Anderson, Mrs. Susan Irby, Mr. B. D. Reddo, Mrs. Margaret George, Mr. Lucian Lewis, Mrs. Sam George, Mr. Taylor Harrison, Mrs. Edith Vaughn, Mr. Dr. W. C. Brakes, Mrs. Sam Johnson, Mr. Frank Anderson, Mrs. Eucenia Campbell, Mr. Camp Wheeler, Mrs. Havemeyer, Mr. H. G. Watson, Mrs. Maud Irby, Mr. George Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. McCutchen, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wheatley.

Mrs. Alfred H. Stone entertained, in elegant style, the Sans Souci Club on Thursday afternoon. A large number of guests were also present. The handsome prizes were captured by the following ladies: Mrs. Frederic Metcalfe first progressive; second was a tie between Mrs. Newman Winter, Mrs. Bass, Mrs. E. E. Klingman, and Mrs. John A. Metcalfe, the latter being the fortunate one.

Mrs. George Wheatley and Miss Bettie Yerger tied for the lone hand. Mrs. Wheatley won. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the game. Mrs. Stone's card party is now numbered among the handsomest and most enjoyable of the season's entertainments.

One of the largest and most delightful entertainments of the season was the card party given on Tuesday afternoon by Miss Jennie Yerger to the Qui Vive Club and other friends. The handsome home was a perfect picture with its artistic decorations of chrysanthemums. These beautiful flowers were banked in every available place. La France roses were also among the floral decorations. The game was progressive hearts and the handsome prizes were eagerly contested for, and were won by Mrs. S. R. Geise, Mrs. E. E. Klingman, Mrs. J. C. Greenley and the lovely fell to Miss Neppie Scruggs. In the game of life in our social world, a young lady is considered fortunate if she can capture hearts; in cards these things have to be reversed, and she tries not only to lose hers but not to win others.
