The Injured Firemen.

The firemen were injured by falling walls. They were standing on the fire cape inside of the building. They ad two streams of hose out, and were laying on the fire when suddenly the walls began to topple and in spite of the shouts of warning given, the men ere caught and carried to the ground by the masses of brick and timbers which fell as the wall collapsed. One or two of the firemen jumped, but even they were struck and cut by the fall-ing bricks and timbers. Williams was aken out dead from under a mass of brick and stone. London, June 30, 3 a. m .- The adventures of the hard fighting ailies, under Admiral Seymour, their reaching Anting, 12 miles from Pekin, the decision to retreat, the capture of rice and immense atores of modern arms and ammunition, affording material for a strenuous defense until relievedall this is told in a dispatch from Admiral Seymour, received by the admiralty at midnight, which runs as follows:

"Tien Tsin, June 27, via Che Foo, June 29, 10:05 p. m.—Have returned to Tien Tsin with the forces, having been unable to reach Pekin by rail. On June 13, two attacks on the advanced guard were made by the Boxers, who were repulsed with considerable loss to them, and none on our side. On June 14 the Boxers attacked the train lands. at Lang Yang in large numbers and with great determination. We repulsed them with a loss of about one hundred.

Our loss was five Italians, "The same afternoon the Boxers attacked the British guard left to protect Lofa station. Reinforcements were sent back, and the enemy were driven off, with 100 killed. Two of our seamen were wounded.

"We pushed forward to Anting, and engaged the enemy on June 13 and June 14, inflicting a loss of 175, There were no casualties on our side.

"Extensive destruction of the railroad in our front having made further advance by rail impossible, I decided. on June 16, to return to Yang Tsun. from Lord Roberts: where is was proposed to organize an advance by the river to Pekin. After my departure from Lang Yang two trains left to follow on were attacked, on June 18, by Boxers and imperial troops from Pekin, who lost from four belock, the large structure was in to five hundred killed. Our casualties were six killed and 48 wounded. These trains could not be moved. The force being short of provisions and hampered with wounded, compelled us to withdraw on Tien Tsin, with which we had not been in communication for six days, and our supplies had been cut

"On June 19 the wounded, with nec essaries, started by boat, the forces marching alongside the river. Opposition was experienced during the whole course of the river from nearly every village, the Boxers, when deleated in one village, retiring to the next, and skilfully retarding our advance by occupying well-selected positions from the point of the bayonet, and in the face of a galling fire difficult to lo-

None can foresee the outcome of the quar-rel between foreign powers over the di-vision of China. It is interesting to watch the going to pieces of this ancient but un-progressive race. Many people in America are also going to pieces because of dyspep-sis, constipation, blood, liver and stomach diseases. We are living too fast, but strength, vigor and good health can be re-tained if we keep off and cure the above dis-eases with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Fable of the Small Bird Once upon a time there was a bantam poster with an immense opinion of him-if, and as he stood in the barnyard he rooter with an analysis of the barnyard he said:

"I will make a stir in the world. I will attract attention."

Wherefore he began to erow lustily, although he had nothing much to crow about.

Now it happened that far above the bantam a hawk was wheeling in the circumambient air. The hawk had not seen the bantam, owing to the latter's diminuitive proportions, but when the bantam crowed the hawk heard and in about 43 seconds had his claws full and was contentedly winging his flight homeward, while all was still below.
