Mr. Abe Johl, of Memphis, has leased the store house recently occupied by Harbison Bros. & Co., on Poplar street, and will open a first-class bakery. The house will be refitted for this use. Mr. Johl informs us that he has employed one of the best bakers in Memphis and is satisfied his baking will please his customers. We not only welcome Mr. Johl to our city but we wish him success.

It seems like a great many of these so called eating houses or nigger restaurants run crap dives in the rear. We realize that it is almost impossible to break up these dives and that no license permits them to run, but there should be frequent raids made on all dives, white and black, by the police that they may pay a just tribute to the city.

Doctors Say;

Bilious and Intermittent Fevers which prevail in miasmatic districts are invariably accompanied by derangements of the Stomach Liver and Bowels.

The Secret of Health.

The liver is the great "driving wheel" in the mechanism of man, and when it is out of order, the whole system becomes deranged and disease is the result.

Tutt's Liver Pills

PROMINENT MAN DIES SUDDENLY.

Mr. E. D. Winter Succumbs to Stroke of Paralysis.

Mr. E. D. Winter, brother of our esteemed townsman Mr. C. A. Winter, whose home was at Winterville, Miss., but who had recently left for Cooper's wells for his health, while on his return home was stricken with paralysis while in a carriage on his way to the depot at Vicksburg and carried to the hospital in that city where he died Tuesday.

Capt. C. A. Winter with Capt. A. Baugh left for Vicksburg Monday and accompanied the remains to the home of Mr. Winter here where the funeral services were held last Wednesday afternoon at 4 p. m., Rev. S. Archer officiating. The interment occurred in Greenville cemetery.

The deceased was a good citizen, a man of honor and high business character and his loss will be felt deeply by the community in which he lived. THE TIMES extends its sympathy to the family and brother in their great sorrow.

Miss Ella Seviars has accepted a position with Sarason's Mississippi Store and will be pleased to have her friends call on her there.

Mr. F. Robinson will have a Grand Opening in his new store when all his goods arrive. The announcement will appear in The Times.

GROCERY STORE BURNED SUNDAY.

Entire Stock of Jordan Wynn Was Destroyed.

Last Sunday morning at about 3 o'clock fire completely gutted the Jordan Wynn Mercantile Co's store near the Y. & M. V. depot, and it was only by hard work on the part of the fire companies that the entire building was not destroyed. The Mercantile Co's loss is $2000, insurance $1500, while the building carried an insurance of $2,000, which amount will put it in good condition again. The building is owned by Messrs Correro and Grego.
