Mr. Alphonse Hirsch left on Thursday to visit relatives in Louisville, Ky., and to attend the Hirsch-Lazarus wedding on September twenty-first.

Great interest was centered this week in the wedding of Wednesday evening of Miss Nettie Ehrlich to Mr. Max Steppach, at Temple Hebrew Union. Bride roses, asparagus ferns and palms were effectively used in the decorations, an especially attractive arrangement being formed of rose and fern garlands, studded with electric lights, under which the bride party stood in a graceful semi-circle. Messrs. M. Hartman, of Arkansas City, L. B. Pepperman, Ernest Leiman and Lennie Cain, of Memphis, were ushers. Messrs. Alphonse Meyer, O. Meyer and H. Meyer, of Natchez, Ferdie Moyses and Abe Waldauer, of New Orleans, groomsmen. Misses Bertha N. Waldauer, Ada Marshall, Ernie Scott and Amelia Rose, of Vicksburg, bridesmaids. Mrs. H. Neil, of Natchez, matron of honor, and Miss Jeanette Hartman, maid of honor. Mr. Sid Leiman, of New Orleans, was best man. The groom entered with his mother, Mrs. B. Lark, of Natchez. Mrs. Ehrlich entered with Mr. Josephus, of Natchez, and the bride was attended by her father, Mr. Jonathan Ehrlich. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rabbi Abram Brill. Before the arrival of the bride party a solo was sweetly sung by Miss Gertie Eckstone, and Miss Mary Walker presided at the organ. The bride's gown was a lovely creation of white crepe de chine and chiffon embroidered with pearls, and her veil of tulle was held in place by a spray of orange blossoms. She carried a white bible with lilacs of the valley and ferns. The bridesmaids, matron of honor and maid of honor were all handsomely gowned in white, the bridesmaids and matron of honor held white roses and ferns and the maid of honor carried an armful of ferns. Mrs. Ehrlich wore black silk with real lace and diamonds, and Mrs. Lark's gown was fashioned of liberty silk and lace. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Ehrlich and is a young woman of unusual charm of manner, and since her debut two years ago she has been a society belle. The groom is a young man of sterling qualities and is popular in both business and social circles. A large reception was held at the Olympia club after the ceremony. Among the guests from out of town were: Dr. Joe Waldauer, of Vicksburg, Mrs. Steppach and Mr. and Mrs. Josephus, of Natchez, Miss Lella Winston, of Shaw, Mr. Jack Mount, of Arkansas City, Dr. Lerick, of Benoit, Mr. Abe Hillar, of New Orleans, Mr. Herbert Block, of Selma, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. Goldman, of Indianola, Mrs. Charles Blum, of Nita Yuma and Mr. and Mrs. Levy, of New Orleans. Mr. and Mrs. Steppach have gone to spend their honeymoon in St. Louis and in visiting in the North, and will later make their home in Natchez.

On Wednesday afternoon, July 31st, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Miss Florence Loretto Wineman, an attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wineman, was married to Mr. Lewellyn Davis, Rev. Father Kostenbrack officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white organdy over silk, and a becoming hat. Miss Annie Wineman, the bride's sister was bridesmaid, and was prettily gowned in white organdy and silk. The groom was attended by Mr. Albert Wineman. Among the guests were: The groom's mother, Mrs. Julia Davis, of Leland, Misses Katie and Georgie Davis and Master Harry Davis, of Leland, and Mr. and Mrs. Cummingee of the Bogue. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Davis left for their plantation home on the Bogue.

IT DOESN'T PAY TO NEGLECT THE EYES. You only increase your trouble by allowing the errors of refraction in your eyes to go uncorrected. The eyes are very delicate in structure, and when abused, either by hard use or by careless treatment they soon fail to do their work and glasses are necessary. I make a specialty of correcting errors of refraction only, and feel fully confident to be able to fit you properly with glasses. DR. P. KORNBLUM
