

SOCIETY NOTES

SANCTUARY.

By Charlotte Becker.

In the clam'rous city street's noise and din,
Where the jostling people meet, lose and win;
Yet, a stone's throw from their gates, sane and good,
Deep and green the quiet waits in the wood, Only broken by the thrush, or the breeze Blowing with a lyric rush through the trees.
There is balm for aught that galls hidden here, Where the forest's healing falls soft on fear.
And with faith are comforted hearts distrest, While the dusk and fragrance shed peace and rest.

Miss Mary Pippin of Leland, spent Friday in the city.

Mrs. Cliff Hood of Magnolia, was a visitor to the city on Friday.

Miss Ether Wetherbee spent yesterday in Leland with Mrs. William Bell.

several days this week at their home on Lake Chicot.

Leland on Friday, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Felus.

spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. W. L. Toward.

afternoon at the Temple at 3 o'clock.

Arcola, are among the visitors to the city this week, the guest of Mrs.
Crawford.

ing several weeks with her son Dr.

congregation will give a Purim Masquerade Ball for the benefit of the 1910, at Olympia Club. All members cordially invited. Mrs. L. Levy, Chairman.

Mr. A. J. Rose has recently purchased the home of Mrs. D. A. Love in Blanton Park, now occupied by Dr.
W. L. Howard. Dr. Howard purchased Mr. Rose's residence in the race track. Both parties will move shortly.

Mrs. Leon Fletcher was the hostess of the Bridge Club on Thursday and entertained eight ladies in a charming manner. The home was especially attractive being decorated with quantities of violets. A silver pen knife went to Mrs. Ehlbert as first prize, and a lovely center piece to Mrs. Moyle as second. Delicious refreshments, in which the violet color motif was introduced admirably, were served to the following: Mesdames, Maurice Fischei, Chas. Loeb, Clarence Witt, Henry Schall, Sam Blum, Fred Moyle, Chas.
Ehlbert.

Miss Beatrice Hirsch was the attractive hostess of a delightful card party on yesterday in honor of the Young Ladies' Bridge Club. After an enthusiastically contested game Miss Maud Rosenthal was found to have the highest score and she was awarded a pair of silk hose as club prize. Miss Bessie Leyser won the consolation, a beautiful perfume bottle, and a lace jabot went to Miss Hart as visitors prize. During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served to the following: Misses Maud Rosenthal, Bessie Leyser, Maud Rosenstock, Pearl Simmons, Irene Moyle, Hyman Hart of Natchez, Edna Kraus of Chicago and Vera Leyser. Miss Maud Rosenthal will be the hostess of the club next week.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Sam Blum was the gracious hostess of one of the most elaborate card parties of the season, given in honor of the members of the bridge club and their husbands. In the reception hall where the games were played, gay tones of red found favor with scarlet japonicas to develop in brilliant wax the pre-railing color. At the conclusion of the game the guests adjourned to the dining room where an elegant course menu was served. The table truly presented a beautiful picture, suspended from the chandelier by tulle was an artistic basket filled with quantities of pink roses. The table had for its center piece a cloudy lake scarf over which were placed a huge bowl of pink roses.

Flowers were scattered over the dusty cover and introduced again in the mysterious folds of tulle that bordered the table. Throughout the faultlessly served luncheon the pink and green color motif was admirably carried out and in graceful design. From the four corners of the table, a soft glow was radiated through pink candle shades. Especially artistic and picturesque were the place cards, being in the shape of butterflies and bearing the following names: Mr. and Mrs. Blum, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Witt, Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Loeb, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ehlbert, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Moyle, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Weinburg, Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Schall. The most successful players were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ehlbert, who were presented a beautiful candle stick of unique design.
Delicious fruit punch was served during the evening.

Mrs. N. L. Riteman entertained on yesterday afternoon with a delightful party in honor of the fifth birthday of her attractive little daughter, Helen Louise. Numbers of children's games were enjoyed during the afternoon, at the conclusion of which the children adjourned to the dining room where delicious ices, cakes and bon-bons were served. The table was lovely decorated with quantities of violets and ferns.
A beautiful souvenir was presented to the following children: Misses Marie Loeb, Adel Schall, Francis Happel, Helen Itzig, Aamer Goldstein, Maurice Rosenstock, Helene Brill, Cora Hebron, Jeanne Bergman, Lee Sharkey, Marion Samuels, Ida Leon Moyle, Masters Herbert Hafter, Leon Fletcher, Clarence Cornish and Charles Weinburg.

NOTICE.

The meeting of the Junior Auxiliary will be held at the Temple Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock promptly.
BESSIE LEYSER, President.

Never can tell when you'll mash a finger or suffer a cut, bruise, burn or scald. Be prepared. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil instantly relieves the pain —quickly cures the wound.

For ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Cor., 6:20.

"You are not living for yourself.
It is impossible for you to do so even if it is your desire to do so. Your life affects every life with which you come in contact, and every life with which you come in contact touches some other life, and the influence goes on and on until the waves which your being create wash the very shores of eternity."—The Issue.

"Now, I want to say to you, young men, who are going to assume the responsibilities of government and citizenship; who are going to marry these beautiful, cultivated girls in this country, and promise to take care of them; I am talking to you now as a doctor, not as a temperance lecturer.
I want to say to you what I know. that all these conditions of alcoholism are hereditary. They are hereditary just as much as any other characteristic.

"Now, ladies and gentlemen, I told you that alcohol is poison. If I didn't, I aimed to tell you. I have told you that alcoholism is a disease. I have told you that those diseased conditions were hereditary, distributed in a thousand shades and degrees of morbid manifestations to the third and fourth, and for all we know to the fifth and sixth generations of posterity. It is not in the glaring, morbid manifestations of alcohol that we see the most of hereditary effects.
It is not limited to insanity—to im-becility, to epilepsy and all these things. It is the thousand and one obliquities, mental and moral eccentricities and irregularities of health and habits and mind and morals that it manifests itself. Distributing like the deeds of the morning to every flower."

The above is taken from the "Masterful Address on Alcoholism," delivered by Dr. B. P. Ward, before the "Law Enforcement League" of Jackson a short time ago and published in the issue last week. All of this address is interesting as well as instructive.

Every mother in town is invited to come to Mrs. Ada DuBerry's Friday afternoon March 19, at 3:30 to be present at the "Mother's Meeting." We will have these meetings at least once a month. They are not just for the members of the W. C. T. U. (though we hope all mothers will become members) but they are for every mother who feels an interest in the training of her children. Our president, Mrs.
Nebelt, has prepared a special program for the occasion. So you may feel sure there is a treat in store for all who attend. Mothers, do we love our boys and girls? Yes, we all do.
Then let us meet together and study and pray. Let us use all means that will better enable us to train our children to the glory of God.

MRS. ORME WILSON

Sister of Colonel John Jacob Astor, who acted as his hostess the other evening at the great Astor mansion, where after years of silence the noise of mirth, music and revelry were heard. Under the romantic arrangement, Colonel Astor's residence includes that of his mother the late Mrs. Astor.
One room alone cost $250,000 to furnish. Since his divorce, or rather since Mrs. Astor divorced Colonel Astor it has devolved on Mrs. Wilson more or less, to arrange his social calendar. She listed the 150 guests present.
