

THE TOBACCO REBATE CLAIMS.

The Department Rapidly Complying With the Applications.

THE MT. VERNON LADIES' ASSOCIATION.

List of the Numerous Relics Which Were Placed on Exhibition—The Second Day's Proceedings—Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15.—[Special.]—The announcement of the Fifth Auditor of the Treasury to the effect that it would require several months to adjust the tobacco rebate claims which was proclaimed through The Times upon the authority of the Auditor himself, has stirred up a very hornet's nest. Protests against delay have come in by the hundreds, and as a result the department has begun to push the work. Many additional clerks have been detailed on the work and as a result drafts in payment of the rebate claims are now being sent forward at the rate of about three hundred per day.

The total number of claims for rebate filed with the Virginia claims commission, which were valued at $22,000. Of this amount Treasury drafts aggregating $19,514.92 have been sent to claimants. To the Second Virginia district 191 drafts, aggregating $14,000.24, have been forwarded, and to the Sixth district 116 drafts, aggregating in money $4,914.68, have been sent to claimants.

VIRGINIA CLAIMS.
The Virginia claims are now nearly closed up, as they were among the first to come in. The routine is to first send the claims to the Internal Revenue Commissioner and after being scheduled in his office they are forwarded to the Fifth Auditor and then go to the Comptroller. After going through these offices the drafts are made out payable to claimants and are returned to the Commissioner to be forwarded to the parties owning the claim. There now remains only about $3,000 to be paid to Virginia claimants. The total number of claims presented was nearly 600, and of these about 2,000 more are expected to pass through the office of the Internal Revenue Commissioner. It is safe to say that within the next thirty days Virginia will get the remainder of her claims, amounting, as stated, to not more than $3,000.

NOT PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.
Doctor Faville, Inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry for the port of Baltimore, has submitted a very elaborate report in regard to the two steers shipped from Baltimore several months ago that created some consternation in England. The shipment consisted of two from Wytheville, Va., and Frederick, Md. Upon their arrival in England the British inspectors reported that the two steers of the lot were afflicted with pleuro-pneumonia. The matter was referred to Dr. Faville, and after a thorough examination he reports that the steers did not have pleuro-pneumonia, and submits statements from the British inspectors confessing that they had made a mistake, and that the steers were not thus affected. They are all important articles, and were intended to show that pleuro-pneumonia does not exist in that State.

MR. VERNON ASSOCIATION.
The regents and vice-regents of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association have spent another day going over the minutes of the last council as a preliminary to the work that they will map out for this. They assembled this morning at the usual hour, and the council board, with the exception of two hours during which visitors were on the grounds, worked industriously all day. The day was rainy and chilly, and the warmth from the furnace fire gave an inviting welcome and cheer to visitors. A number of relics have already been presented to be bought by the association were placed on exhibition today. They naturally attracted much attention from the ladies, and it is a source of pleasure and pride to them to see these articles back again where they once belonged. They are all important articles, and were intended to show that pleuro-pneumonia does not exist in that State.

LIST OF THE ARTICLES.
One is a mirror, another a punch bowl, another a walking stick, all of which were purchased by the association at the recent sale of Lawrence Washington's effects. Other interesting things are a silver-handled fork used by Washington during his campaign, presented by Mrs. William Henry Browne; a plate belonging to the last India set, which was once used at Mt. Vernon, presented by Mrs. Richardson; the vice-regent for Louisiana; a mantle clock, presented by Mrs. Woodward; the vice-regent of Kentucky; a pair of vases presented by Mrs. Townsend; vice-regent for New York; a pitcher, one of a set of memorial china, which was made at Washington, presented by Mrs. Walker; vice-regent for North Carolina; a dish cover, also the memorial china, once owned by General Tasso, an aide-de-camp of Washington's staff, and a small piece of silk embroidered by Mrs. Lorenzo Lewis, daughter-in-law of George Washington, the latter presented by Miss Markoe.

OTHER PRESENTS.
Mr. Broadwell of Ohio has also presented a photo-stool used by Nellie Custis, and it now stands in the Ohio room near the harpsichord, which in the long ago reverberated in the house.
In commemoration of her twenty-five years' service as vice-regent for Maine Mrs. Sewall has presented to the ladies twenty-five silver spoons, which have on the handles a picture of Mount Vernon. Mr. Galto, the secretary, has presented through the vice-regent of the District, Mrs. Baris, two dozen silver spoons to be used by the ladies while at Mount Vernon. One dozen have a head of Mrs. Washington on the handles, and the other dozen that of Martha Washington.

GARDEN AND GREEN HOUSE.
There is no more fascinating spot about Mount Vernon than the garden. It is kept in the old-fashioned style, and the beauty of its roses are famous the world over.
The new green-house lately erected by Mrs. Mitchell, the vice-regent for Wisconsin, has added better facilities in its management. This green-house was built on the same ground and by the same architect as the one which stood here in Washington's time, and its erection completes the number of buildings, and as far as it is possible to tell restores the surroundings of the mansion to exactly what they were at that period.
Mrs. Washington, West Virginia's vice-regent, is about to have restored the clay bust of Washington which was made after Houdon's life-mask. The Secretary of the Treasury has given permission to Mr. Elliott, the chief modeler in the supervising architect's office, to do this work and also to make a plaster cast of the restoration for fear of any possible danger coming to the original bust to come. The work will be done at Mount Vernon in a studio to be arranged there for the artists.

A MODERN BATTLE-SHIP.
The board of management of the Government exhibits was in session two hours and a half this afternoon. The representative of the Navy Department submitted for formal approval a plan for the construction of a structure resembling a modern battleship, which is designated to be the principal exhibit of the department, and reported that the forms of contract, the specifications and advertisements had been prepared under the supervision of the law officers of the Treasury Department, and he asked formal authority of the board to proceed at once with the work. This matter consumed the greater part of the meeting, resulting in the unanimous adoption of the resolutions authorizing the immediate insertion of the necessary advertisements for the proposals.
The Navy Department will proceed to Chicago the latter part of the week to be accessible to intending bidders and give them information with regard to the working plans. The bids will be opened on the 10th of June and the contracts will be awarded by the board as soon as possible after the consideration of the bids.

CAPITAL NOTES.
Mr. Albert Bierstadt, the celebrated artist, will do his share towards commemorating the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by painting a mammoth historical picture of Watling's Island, which is held by the majority of the geographical authorities to have been the first landing of Columbus. Mr. Bierstadt has just returned from a visit to Watling's Island, where he made numerous sketches for the picture, which will be finished in time to exhibit at Chicago.
In the Supreme Court Justice Brewer granted a writ of error in the case of the Nebraska governorship contest.

A LOTTERY FRAUD.
Attempt of Their Papers to Spread Large Editions Throughout Louisiana.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15.—The inspection division of the Postoffice Department has just been fully advised of the attempt of the lottery papers of New Orleans to spread large editions throughout Louisiana in violation of the sample-copy privilege of the postal regulations, and of the details of the violation of the inspectors in stopping the violation of the law and the saving of the department of almost a thousand dollars in postage. The lottery company, promptly recognizing its advantage in the recent decision of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, proceeded to spread the news broadcast among the voters of the State, to whom a question of rechartering the lottery would be left in the general election of April 8, 1892. They hit on the device of doing this cheaply and effectively by availing themselves of the liberality of the postal regulations concerning sample copies. Simultaneously the lottery organs of New Orleans developed an extraordinary anxiety about the spread of their country circulation. They proposed to make extraordinary efforts to extend it.

On the second of May, loads of sample copies, which contained the full text of the lottery decision, began piling in the postoffice. Inspector Maynard, after consultation with Postmaster Eaton, Assistant Postmaster Indest and Superintendent of Mails Sweeney and upon the advice of the chief of the Postoffice Department in Washington, decided that these papers were not sent out as provided by the postal laws and regulations in good faith "and must therefore be returned up at transmittal newspaper postage. The result was that the increased revenue secured to the New Orleans postoffice amounted to $934, and that the estimated number of copies was 130,152 altogether. Reports received at the department all agree that the efforts of the Louisiana Lottery and its assistants, who, although harshly rebuked by the lottery people, have also been accused by the anti-lottery people of sympathizing with them, as well as Inspector Maynard, deserve much praise for their shrewdness and vigor in the detection of this fraud.

THE TOUR ENDED.
The President Returns to Washington and Makes a Speech of Thanks to All.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15.—The grand tour of the President and his party, which began April 14th last, ended at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon, when the presidential train came to a standstill in the Pennsylvania railroad station here exactly on time. The journey of 10,000 miles had been accomplished without an accident.
Benjamin Harrison McKee was the first person to be greeted by the President, who jumped from the platform of the train and clasped his grandson in his arms. Little Mary McKee was also at the station. Secretary of War Foster, Secretary of the Interior, Secretary of the Navy, and several assistants and a number of Government officials met the party at the train. Only a few people were at the station when the party arrived. The President, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. and Mr. McKee, and Mrs. Dinnick were driven directly to the White House, while Mr. and Mrs. Boyd took the house for Philadelphia.

The last day of the journey was the quietest of the entire tour. Rain fell most of the time, when the party reached Washington it was pouring down steadily. Between Washington and Baltimore the members of the party and the train employees assembled in the observation car, and to them the President made a short speech in which he thanked all those who had accompanied him for their anxiety and attention. He referred to the journey as one that had never been equalled and paid high compliment to Mr. George W. Boyd, the general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania railroad, who had charge of the train, for the great success he had achieved in keeping exactly to the prearranged schedule. The President delivered 140 speeches on the tour. His best record for a single day was yesterday, when he talked to twelve different assemblages. The day before he made eleven speeches.

SCOTCH-IRISH CONGRESS.
Officers and Representatives of Each State Elected for the Coming Year.

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 15.—President Robert Bonner, of New York, called the Scotch-Irish Congress to order at 10:45 this morning, and after prayer by Rev. T. D. Witherspoon, introduced Rev. Thomas Murphy, of Philadelphia, who spoke interestingly of "the course and progress of the Scotch-Irish through the nation."

Officers for the ensuing year were then elected as follows: President, Robert Bonner, New York; Vice-President-General, Rev. J. S. McIntosh, D. D., Philadelphia; First Vice-President at Large, T. T. Wright, Nashville; Second Vice-President at Large, Dr. Bryson; Secretary, A. C. Fletcher, Columbia; Treasurer, Lucius Frierson, Columbia, Tenn.

Among the vice-presidents elected for States were: Virginia, Hon. William Wirt Henry, Richmond; North Carolina, Hon. S. B. Alexander, Charlotte; Mississippi, Right Rev. Hugh Miller, Memphis; Tennessee, Hon. Will Preston Johnston, New Orleans; Kentucky, Dr. Harvey McDonald, Cynthiana; West Virginia, James Archer, Steubenville.

Big Railroad Deal.
WINNIPEG, MAN., May 15.—It now seems to be an absolute certainty that the Canadian Pacific has purchased the Northern Pacific lines in Manitoba. It was confidentially asserted this morning that the deal between the roads had been completed and that the Canadian Pacific railroad takes all the Manitoba lines and terminals of the Northern Pacific almost immediately. The official transfer will take place next week, it is said. A meeting of the board of trade has been called for Tuesday next to take into consideration what steps are advisable in view of the rumored withdrawal of the Northern Pacific railroad from the province.

G. B. Raum's Resignation.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15.—The Secretary of the Interior to-day accepted the resignation of G. B. Raum, Jr., assistant chief clerk of the Pension Bureau. It is understood that his resignation was called for and was the direct result of using his influence to secure the appointment of persons to positions in the bureau in return for financial benefits received or promised.
Interior Department officials assert most emphatically that General Raum, Commissioner of Pensions, is in no way responsible for the conduct of his son, and that he was entirely ignorant of the transactions which led to Raum's resignation.

Another Negro Hanged.
TRENTON, N. J., May 15.—Rufus Moore, colored, was hanged here about noon in the presence of 10,000 people. Just before he mounted the scaffold he said to a reporter that God had forgiven his sins and he was ready to die. He was hanged at 12 o'clock on May 15, 1890. Moore and Clay had quarreled about two mulatto women who were notorious characters. Clay threw stones at one of the women, who was Moore's paramour, and Moore told him if he did not stop he would kill him. Clay paid no attention to the threat and was shot twice with a pistol, dying almost instantly.

NO TIDINGS OF OUR CRUISER.

Opinion Prevails that the Charleston Would Get the Worst of the Fight.

THE ESMERALDA AT ACAPULCO.

A Cable Dispatch in Cypher Received at the Navy Department—Supposed to be from Admiral McCann.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 15.—A dispatch received from Acapulco says the Chilean cruiser Esmeralda entered this port yesterday and sailed again to-day. Several of her officers were ashore and used the wires and made various inquiries regarding the United States, showing that they had been informed that the cruiser Charleston had been sent in pursuit of the Itata.

It is believed that the Esmeralda has steamed North to intercept the Itata and protect her should the Charleston attempt to capture her. Nothing was purchased here by any of the officers. The officers who came ashore were very reticent, but from one of the sailors it was learned that they expected to sight the Itata and act as her convoy down the coast.

WILL DOUBLE ON THE CHARLESTON.
The opinion prevails here that should the Charleston attempt the capture of the Itata a naval engagement will take place and the United States cruiser will get the worst of it. The above dispatch was confirmed at the War Department yesterday, but the officers were inclined to be reticent. Minister of War Hoinosa says that the Esmeralda had sailed into the port on Tuesday and had sailed out again yesterday. It was impossible to gain any further information from him.

THE CHARLESTON EXPECTED.
ACAPULCO, MEXICO, May 15.—A number of telegrams addressed to the United States cruiser Charleston have been received here, and from that fact it is presumed that that vessel has been ordered to stop here. The Esmeralda is said to be anchored off shore fifteen miles south of here. She could not obtain coal or munitions here, but was allowed to take water and provisions.

NO TIDINGS YET.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15.—No word from the Charleston has been received at the Navy Department to-day. A dispatch has been received, however, stating that the Esmeralda had returned to Acapulco.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., May 15.—A dispatch from San Diego says the United States steamer Charleston has been sighted off that port bound northward.

MUST BE NEARING ACAPULCO.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15.—Another day has passed and the navy has not heard from the cruiser Charleston or the ship which she is endeavoring to overtake and capture. A cable dispatch in cypher was received at the Navy Department to-day, and three officers have been engaged in translating it. It is thought to be from Admiral McCann, at Chili, but the officials of the department will say nothing concerning it or its contents. The Charleston has been at sea since Saturday last and must now be near Acapulco, where she will probably stop to coal, as she can only carry 800 tons, which must be nearly exhausted if she is making even ordinary headway.

PROBABLY THE ITATA.
CITY OF MEXICO, May 15.—Advices from Acapulco state that the Esmeralda is still off that port waiting to see if it is possible to obtain a supply of coal. There is another strange steamer outside, supposed to be the Itata. No American steamer is in sight.
NO NEWS OF THE ITATA.
CITY OF MEXICO VIA GALVESTON, May 15.—A telegram from Acapulco says no news has been received from the Esmeralda since she left port after being refused fuel. No American ship has been seen at that place. At the War Department officials say they have received no news of the vessels. A prominent Government official says no news of the Itata may be expected off Central America.

Watching the Monitor.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., May 15.—Customs officials have been keeping a strict watch over the steamer Monitor, which left here last evening with a cargo of cereals and provisions for Chili. No arms or contraband goods were shipped, however, and she started on her voyage.

THE SWITCHMEN'S STRIKE.
The Railroad Officials are Rapidly Replacing the Dismissed Employees.

CHICAGO, May 15.—The situation to-day in the Northwestern switchmen's strike was one of activity on the part of the company and waiting on the part of the men. The railroad officials were using all possible efforts to restore their train service as speedily as possible. Reports received at the company's office from along the lines indicate moderate success in replacing the dismissed employees. At 7 o'clock this morning very nearly all the crews at points outside Chicago had been filled by new men and work was progressing without interruption. Reports from other points came from Winona, Milwaukee and other towns. The force in the city yards is as yet only one-half the usual size, but it is being rapidly enlarged. The company claims it will have the crews filled by night and all freight and passenger trains running on time.
The only trouble reported was from Clinton, Iowa, where an attempt was made to derail a stock train. One car was thrown from the track. The Switchmen's Mutual Aid Association will hold a meeting to-day to consider the situation and to prepare for the presentation of its case to the Supreme Council of the Federation to-morrow.

TO DISCUSS THE DISPUTE.
Grand-Master Sweeney and Vice-Grand-Master Downey of the Switchmen's Mutual Aid Association, called upon General-Manager Winant to-day to inquire why the switchmen of the Northwestern Company had been discharged and what it meant. Mr. Winant replied by handing Mr. Sweeney a copy of the charge notice and a copy of the official statement giving the reasons for the action. Winant to-day to inquire why the switchmen of the Northwestern Company had been discharged and what it meant. Mr. Winant replied by handing Mr. Sweeney a copy of the charge notice and a copy of the official statement giving the reasons for the action. Mr. Sweeney wished to discuss the matter and was told by Winant that he would be willing to receive any communication that Mr. Sweeney might wish to make, provided the same was presented in writing, so that no possible misunderstanding as to what was said could occur. Grand-Master Sweeney said he was engaged in preparing a manifesto to place before the people explaining their side of the case and setting forth their many complaints against the management of the Northwestern Company. This statement will not be ready for publication till to-morrow.

A MEMBER OF THE MAFIA.
A Released Italian Convict Wanted in Italy for Murder.

BALTIMORE, MD., May 15.—Dominick Marchione, an Italian just released from the Maryland penitentiary, where he had served five years for the killing of a fellow-workman in this State, was to-day rearrested on the demand for extradition as a convicted and escaped murderer made by the consul of Italy at Philadelphia. The story of the alleged crime makes it appear that Marchione is a member of the murderous Mafia gang. Michael Repuccio was believed to know more than was considered safe about a murder in which Marchione (then known as Malchionda) and another were concerned. Marchione and the third man were heard to say the Repuccio must be put away. In November, 3, 1883, Repuccio's body was found, and in due course the murderers were convicted and sentenced to the gallows. It has not transpired how Marchione escaped to this country, but it appears that he was in the hands of the Mafia. He was arrested after he reached America, and his sentence to the Maryland penitentiary for murder was the result.

BROWN NOMINATED.

He is Chosen by the Democratic Convention as Its Candidate for Governor.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 15.—The promised row over the report on credentials did not materialize in the State Democratic Convention. Clay's managers were becoming desperate over the drift of affairs, and the Brown men fearing that the rising wrath would be visited upon the candidate, made concessions that acted as oil upon troubled waters.
After the row over the silver clause in the resolutions had been disposed of, the convention took one ballot for Governor, which resulted: Brown, 272½; Clay, 264½; Clardy, 190½; Hardin, 189½.
This morning at the end of the eighth ballot it stood: Brown, 284; Clay, 250; Hardin, 202; Clardy, 180.
Clardy will be dropped on the eleventh ballot, and it is expected will rally to the Clay standard and make Clay the nominee.
The Democratic State Convention nominated Brown on the thirteenth ballot for Governor.

At to-night's session of the Democratic State Convention Hon. Mitchell Alfred, of Middleboro, was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor by acclamation and W. J. Handricks, of Fleming county, for Attorney-General on the fourth ballot. At 1 o'clock A. M. the convention is still in session.

The Coke Region Strike.
SCOTTDALE, Pa., May 15.—W. J. Rainey, the Wiley operator, who is worth millions now, seems to be with the strikers body and soul. He is engaged in a fight with Frick and other operators, and will use the strikers as the weapon to gain his point. To-day he gave Master Workman Wise permission to send labor agents among his employees to obtain funds and sustain the Frick and McClure strikers. An official of the Frick Company claimed to-night that they have 4,000 men now at work, while labor leaders asserted that not more than half that number are at work, and that 15,000 strikers are still firm.

Five Boys Injured.
BIRMINGHAM, ALA., May 15.—Five boys were injured while about to enter the old Henley school building this morning by the falling of a new school building adjoining. They are James Owen, seriously injured about the head and body; Edward Marks, skull fractured; Albert Mayer, head seriously injured; Fletcher Summers and George Hamley, slightly hurt. Up to this evening none of the children were dead, but the condition of Marks and Owen was reported to be critical.

Business Failures.
NEW YORK, May 15.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number for the United States 212 and for Canada 25, or a total of 237, as compared with 242 last week and 185 for the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 232, representing 191 failures in the United States and 21 in the Dominion of Canada.

Mr. Blaine's Condition.
NEW YORK, May 15.—Secretary Blaine's physician reported his patient as very comfortable this evening.

THE LAND BILL.
The House of Commons Adjourns Until the 25th Before Passing It.

(By Cable to the Times.)
LONDON, May 15.—With the prospect of a prolonged holiday the Government induced members who were inclined to obstruct to carry all the land bills through to-night, when everything was favorable. The passing of the bill through the committee, Mr. Balfour stated that the debate would be resumed on the new clause relating to the advance of tenants. A squabble arose between Mr. Goschen and the Government, the latter insisting that a clause submitted by him had an equal right of consideration with the Balfour proposition. Goschen was obstinate and stuck to the letter of Mr. Smith's proposition that the House would adjourn till the 23rd. All clauses were disposed of except Mr. Balfour's.

Reacting on the Christians.
(By Cable to the Times.)
LONDON, May 15.—The persecution of the Jews in Moscow and other places is reacting on the Christian population. The Jews have always been considered good in a financial sense, and their debts certain of payment. The Eastern or commercial section of the country was at hand when the expulsion began, and the multitude of Jews driven out of Moscow left behind them so many unpaid debts that there is general demoralization of trade. The rich Jews are, for the first time, preparing to leave the country, and this is a blow to the expulsion of the poorer Hebrews.

The Czarowitz's Injuries.
(By Cable to the Times.)
LONDON, May 15.—A St. Petersburg dispatch to the Chronicle says that the Czarowitz is more seriously hurt than at first admitted, and that his assailant is an escaped nihilist from Saghallen who joined the Japanese police.

Subscription for Corfu Jews.
(By Cable to the Times.)
VENICE, May 15.—Subscribers are being raised in Italy for the persecuted Hebrews of Corfu. It is alleged that Russia is fomenting the movement against the Jews.

Portugal's Political Crisis.
(By Cable to the Times.)
LISBON, May 15.—The Portuguese Cabinet has resigned. The situation is critical.

A Soft Answer.
A merchant in Alexandria had a dispute with a fellow, a peasant is called, about the settlement of an account. The merchant was determined to bring the question to the court, to which the fellow called. Desiring to make a last effort, the fellow called at the merchant's office one morning and asked the servant if the master was in. In the merchant's hearing the inquiry and, knowing what he was called about from his office.
"Tell thatascal that I am not in."
The fellow, looking up towards him, calmly said:
"Well, sahib, God put thee in a better mind."

The merchant was struck with the meekness of this reply, and having looked more carefully into the matter, he became convinced that the fellow was right and he in the wrong. He sent for the fellow, and after acknowledging his error he said:
"I want to ask you one question. How were you able to bear my abuse with such patience?"
"Sahib," replied the fellow, "I will tell thee. I was naturally as hot and violent as thou art. I knew that to indulge this temper was sinful, and I found that it was unprofitable. I observed that men in a passion often speak loud, and I thought that if I could control my voice I should repress my passion. I have, therefore, made it a rule never to suffer my voice to rise above a certain key, and by carefully observing this rule I have entirely mastered my natural temper."

When Lovely Woman Swoops to Folly.
(Danville Register.)

The fact is that "when lovely woman swoops to folly" there is no limit to the depth of depravity to which she is capable of sinking. Her virtue is the immediate jewel of her soul, and when that goes character, honor and truth generally go with it. In the case of the lady who has been followed by disgraceful exposure, our observation is that her statements are unreliable, and in many instances fabrications and inventions of the most marvelous kind. There is no kind of observation during a connection of several years with the public press that we would hesitate a long time before we would pass judgment upon a man of previous good character who had been accused by a dissolute woman.

TENNY WINS THE GREAT RACE.

The Little Sway-Back Carries Off the Honors of the Brooklyn Handicap.

AN IMMENSE CROWD IN ATTENDANCE.

Every Class of People Represented and Money Flows Freely—The Contestants.

GRAVESEND, May 15.—The great Brooklyn handicap race, which has been the all-absorbing topic for the past week, has been run. Tenny, who has been the favorite for the last few days, won the race easily enough, though in the first part of the race he looked to be out of it.

Fully 30,000 persons were present, including all the officials of New York and Brooklyn, while millionaire merchants and business men rubbed their elbows with their clerks and other employees. The fair sex was plentifully represented, and their bright, sparkling faces and brilliant costumes relieved in a great measure the general gloominess of the day. The weather was perverse, of course, and very tantalizing. It would rain a few minutes then stop. It finally settled in a steady drizzle.

MONEY FLOWED FREELY.
In the betting ring all was pandemonium. Men struggled and trod over each other in their desperate endeavors to get the good odds before the bookmakers changed them. Great bundles of money were fairly hurled at the bookmakers and money floated about in a way that would drive a miser crazy. There were in all 118 bookmakers doing business—the largest number ever seen on a race track in this country.

The races resulted:
First race, six furlongs—Kingston first, Kingsbridge second, Charlie Post third. Time, 1:16.
Second race, eight and a half furlongs—Longstreet first, Leighton second, Madstone third. Time, 1:49½.

Let us now expect stakes for two-year-olds, four furlongs—Oscar first, Yorkville Belle second, Coxswain third. Time, 1:25½.
A few minutes past 4 o'clock the handicap horses were all on the track and paraded past the stand to the post. Jockeys and horses seemed to be fully alive to the importance of the race, and the latter showed little reluctance in sending them off at the third break, with Burlington in the lead, setting a lively pace, with Russell second. At the half Russell had gone to the front, with Nelly B. second and Burlington third. Tenny, Tea Tray and Prince Royal were well in front at the three-quarter pole, with Loantaka at his throat, while Once Again had spurred into third position.

TENNY TO THE FRONT.
At the mile to the surprise of everybody Russell and Loantaka were still running neck and neck, but Tenny had improved his position and was running third two lengths away. As they turned into the stretch Judge Morrow came with a great burst of speed from the bunch and took the lead, half a length ahead of Tenny. A shout went up from 30,000 throats "Judge Morrow wins!" but the race was too hot for him, and he was soon joined by Tenny, Tea Tray and Prince Royal. Pike Barnes, on Tenny, realizing that the critical moment had come, began urging the great little "sway-back" with whip and spur. The horse responded nobly, coming down the stretch with a great burst of speed, and at the stand there was daylight between him and Prince Royal.

THE RACE EASILY WON.
Pike's face broadened into a grin as he glanced over his shoulder and saw that the race was won. Tenny finished two lengths ahead of Prince Royal, who beat Tea Tray a head for the place. He came in with a great burst of speed, and the crowd was wild. Judge Morrow and Nelly B. finished back in the bunch. The time was 2 minutes and 19 seconds.
Fifth race, four furlongs—Laughing Water first, Longfellow second, Mt. Vernon third. Time, 1:48½.
Sixth race, eight and a half furlongs—Benedict first, Masterlode second, Gallifet third. Time, 1:56½.

MARSHAL LAKE INJURED.
NEW YORK, May 15.—United States Marshal Lake was seriously injured while returning from the race track at Gravesend this evening. He was riding on the outer side of a crowded open car and in some way was crowded off. He fell down an embankment and into a cut a distance of 35 feet.
The train was stopped and the marshal was taken to the hospital, where it was found that he had sustained fractures of the right arm, his left forearm, his nose, and besides cutting his scalp in several places he had received severe contusions of right breast and thighs.

LOUISVILLE, KY.
First race, one mile—Royal Garter first, Governor Wheeler second, Odry third. Time, 1:45½.
Second race, five furlongs—Braelot first, Buck Hound second, Strattin third. Time, 1:04.
Third race, one mile—Proctor Knott first, Protection second, Marion third. Time, 1:42½.
Fourth race, eight and one-half furlongs—Bob L. first, Nina Archer second, J. T. third. Time, 1:52½.
Fifth race, one mile and seventy yards—Brandless first, Rudolph second, Dollkens third. Time, 1:47½.

Entries for the Gravesend races to-day are:
First race, one mile—Tammany, Algeron, Asben, Stangurs, Mountain Deer, Mashor Port Chester, Ozon, John Cavanaugh, Vno-grande, Glenchoy, Warpath, Boughrun, 112; Hypatia, 107.
Second race, mile and one-eighth—Tristan, 118; Sir John, 112; Lavina Belle, 109; Admiral, 100; B. B. Million, 85.
