LOUISVILLE AND SANDUSKY RAILROAD.

Meeting at Eaton.

On a call of the President of the above R. R. Co., a large and very enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of Eaton and vicinity met at the Court House, on the evening of the 15th of Feb. And on motion of T. J. Lareh, Gen. Hendricks was chosen Chairman; and on motion of J. B. Stephens, J. M. Brown was appointed Secretary.

The meeting being called to order, the Chairman stated that the object of the meeting was to further the interest of the said road, and to get an expression of the citizens in regard to the proper heading for the stock books.

J. H. Foss was called on and spoke at length on the prospect of the early completion of the road; he was of the opinion that if the sum of $300,000 in addition to the old stock, (which is estimated to be worth the sum of $250,000) could be raised, that that amount would do the grading and bridging; and thus secure the road beyond a doubt.

The Stock Books are headed on condition, that if the amount of $300,000 is not subscribed, then in that case the subscription is not binding on the subscribers; but should that sum be raised, then said subscription is absolute and collectable. Mr. Foss went on to show the feasibility and superior inducements that should actuate our citizens to subscribe liberally, and put their shoulder to the wheel and help push this great work through to completion. Mr. Foss calling for the feeling of the citizens in regard to heading of the stock books—Mr. Lareh, Judge Haines, Morris, Daugherty, Tizzard, Eidsen, Acton, Stephens, Hendricks, and many other citizens thought that the agreement between the R. R. Co. and subscribers was just right, and that stock books should immediately go into the hands of energetic agents for the purpose of soliciting subscriptions. Judge Haines made an excellent speech and which was well timed and right to the point.

On motion of Judge Haines, G. H. Eidsen and J. M. Daugherty were appointed agents to solicit stock books. At a late hour a motion was made to adjourn, and carried, and all went home feeling certain that the road would be built.

G. D. Hendricks, Chairman.
J. M. Brown, Secy.

A colored preacher of Hannibal, Mo., preached a fine sermon on Sunday, taking for his text a passage from "Paul's First to the Corinthians." It brought tears to the eyes of all hearers.

"No Cards." Why, then, then, don't you get them, then? at the Democrat office, whether they be wedding, business, or visiting cards.

A negro couple in Kentucky have had 23 children in 31 years of married life, and the county remits their taxes in consideration of "distinguished services done to the State."

A young woman in an Illinois town is so pious that she has to get a furlough from the minister to attend a dance. This is the latest branch of ministerial trade and commerce.

It is rumored that Gen. Grant, with a lot of other iron-clads, will soon make a trip to Europe to learn how kings and things act. The country would try and survive his absence—if he stayed long enough.

Letter from R. M. J. Cox, Esq.

We take the liberty of publishing the following very interesting letter on the above subject, which was handed us by Dr. Shields. Mr. Cox has had considerable experience in these matters, and his opinions are worthy of attention.

Brownstown, Jackson Co. Ind.,
February 7, 1870.
J. T. SHIELDS, M. D.,
Seymour, Ind.

DEAR SIR:—I see your name in connection with others of your city advocating the building of a railroad from Brookville, Indiana, to Seymour, which in my opinion is one of the best moves made since I have been in the county, and I do hope to live to see such an enterprise completed. Commencing at Brookville, in Franklin county, Indiana, the road could be located, most of the way, on the Old Indian Boundary Line to very near Seymour, passing through Southern part of Decatur, Northern part of Ripley and Jennings counties, entering Jackson county near the North-east corner of Seymour, and should Evansville be made the true terminus, it would pass through the Southern portion of Washington, and through the central portions of Orange, Dubois and Warrick counties, thence to Evansville through a portion of Vanderburg.

The line is indicated as an air line, and if built changes could be made to suit or accommodate county seats &c.

In looking over the entire system of Indiana railroads, I can see none in my opinion that presents so many advantages for a paying investment. The true policy of a road should be to accommodate the local traffic; in this case the road would be about N. 58° west, which is not very far from the direction the streams of water flow, that drain this country. The surface of country through which it would run is inviting for easy grades and few bridges, the latter being a heavy expense to all roads, the country along the line abounds in timber, stone and rich material, so distributed to make it independent for material to build; also, it would have the advantage of every road it would cross, to reach the Ohio river, or shipments for the interior North &c.

I have hastily written the foregoing to simply encourage so laudable work—having been in my early life connected with the roads first built in Indiana, feel yet an interest, and like giving an expression to some one, and in this case have troubled you with my scribbles, hoping the ball will keep moving in the right direction.

Yours truly,
R. M. J. COX.

A High Estimate.

The following estimate of the qualifications of the President and his Cabinet, is not flattering: "Grant has demonstrated that a very dull and stupid person may be President, and we all know that he and all his Cabinet haven't an aggregate of brains sufficient to set up a third-class local reporter. If Grant could write better grammar than he does in his message, and had moderate command of language, he might get a place on the Enquirer to report races and horse markets; and Hoar, if not too old to learn, might be educated up to the qualifications of a law reporter. As for the others, I see no possible use that could be made of them on a first-class journal."

Give the stock pigs a good warm bed for the winter, and don't forget to keep them clean by frequent changes of straw. A cold, damp bed renders them comfortless, and prevents their growth; it may be, will give them mange and other diseases that hog flesh is heir to. Feed well, house well, and bed well, on these three things depend thrifty pigs for next year's fattening.

The President had a coon and a pair of rabbits presented to him on New Year's day. When a gift enterprise gets to running by coon and rabbit power, isn't it time for a new deal? What office can a man expect to get on a ring-tailed coon, or a short-tailed rabbit?

Various petitions are before Congress, praying an amendment to the constitution, acknowledging the existence of God as the source of all civil authority. We don't believe the present Congress is prepared to entertain any such assumption.

Pay us what you owe us, if you would relieve a Publisher sadly in need of money.

Advice of a Young Lady.

Some months since, we received the following from a sensible young lady, with the request that we publish it, but being crowded with articles of a similar character, it went to our waste basket. Since which we have come to the conclusion to give it to our Eaton boys, and urge that they ponder it carefully. Here is what she says, and all that you need to know:

"Dear gentlemen, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five, listen to a few words of gratuitous remark.—When you make a social call of an evening, on a young lady, go away at a reasonable hour. Say you come at 8 o'clock, an hour and a half is certainly as long as the most fascinating of you in conversation can, or rather ought, to desire to use his charms. Two hours, indeed, can be very pleasantly spent with music, chess, or other games, to lend variety; but, kind sirs, by no means stay longer. Make shorter calls and come oftener. A girl—that is a sensible, true-hearted girl—will enjoy it better, and really value your acquaintance more. Just conceive the agony of a girl who, well knowing the feelings of a father and mother upon the subject, hears the clock strike ten, and yet must sit on the edge of her chair, in mortal terror lest papa should put his oft repeated threat in execution—that of coming down and inviting the gentleman to breakfast. And we girls understand it all by experience, and know what it is to dread the prognostic of displeasure. In such cases a sight of relief generally accompanies the closing of the door behind the gallant, and one don't get over the feeling of trouble till safe in the arms of Morpheus. Even then, sometimes the dreams are troubled with some phantom of an angry father and distressed (for all parties) mother; and all because a young man will make a longer call than he ought to.

Now, young gentlemen friends, I'll tell you what we girls will do. For an hour and a half we will be most irresistibly charming and fascinating; then, beware, monosyllabic responses will be all you need expect. And if, when the limits shall have been passed, a startling query shall be heard coming down stairs: "Isn't it time to close up?" you must consider it a righteous punishment, and, taking your hat, meekly depart—a sadder, and it is to be hoped, a wiser man. Do not get angry; but the next time you come, be careful to keep within bounds. We want to rise early these pleasant mornings, and improve the "shining hours"; but when forced to be up at such unreasonable hours at night, exhausted nature will speak, and, as a natural consequence, with the utmost speed in dressing, we can barely get down to breakfast in time to escape a reprimand from papa, who don't believe in beaux—as though he never was young—and a mild, reproving glance from mamma, who understands a little better poor daughter's feelings, but still must disapprove outwardly, to keep up appearances. And now, young men, think about these things, and don't—for pity's sake, don't—throw down your paper with a "pshaw!" but remember the safe advice of ten."

We never had "nigger-on-the-brain," one way or another. We don't take as much stock in the divine African as his professed admirers do, and we see no reason why we should. But we have got FREE TRADE on the brain. Give us that; divorce the Government from robbers and jobbers, and we shall patiently wait blessed consummation which is certain to follow. Even now, in full assurance of faith, we are looking for this mighty deliverance.
Amen!—Marietta Times.

Sandusky, Seymour & Louisville Railroad—The Prospect.

It has been but a few weeks since our first article appeared urging the importance, practicality, and necessity, of making Seymour the terminus of the Sandusky and Louisville Railroad, instead of running direct to the Ohio river at Louisville, without passing near this point. Since then, the good work has progressed rapidly and most favorably, until to-day, it seems that our ideas meet with universal approbation of all concerned or connected with the old road, and it now only needs the proper efforts on the part of our town and county, to insure the completion of a route, that will place our city at once among the first towns of the State in point of material wealth, and commercial importance.

It has been demonstrated beyond the possibility of successful contradiction, that the proposed change in the route, running it direct from Brookville, in Franklin county, to Seymour, instead of to the river direct, would first of all, make a vast difference in point of cheapness of construction; passing through a section of country where neither high grades nor deep fills would be necessary, and where no wide streams nor dangerous water courses remain to be bridged. Add to this, that the old route would pass through a portion of Southern Indiana unusually difficult throughout, and in places almost impracticable, and the force and importance of this point can be at once seen. It would make a difference of several thousand dollars in every mile. The new route would pass through a rich, undeveloped and populous section of country the local earnings of which, would in a short time contribute largely toward paying the running expenses of the road. But more important, perhaps than any other consideration, is the fact, that it saves the constructing of over 40 miles of road, making a saving thereby of near a million dollars. The Jeffersonville Railroad company have offered the use of their track from Seymour to Louisville, if the company make Seymour their terminus, and have offered other material aid beside.

It is reported in some portions of the country that sharpers are now traveling about the rural districts buying butter, eggs, poultry, &c., at farmers, at high prices, and paying for the same in well executed counterfeit money. Look out for them.

We heard somebody remark on the street the other day, that the Register man's apology in regard to the puff he gave the Saloons, in his issue of the 27th of Jan., "was just about as clear as mud."

A Troy hotelkeeper boarded a clerical looking gentleman two weeks on the strength of a copy of the ten commandments, which he had pasted on his valise, but he went "where the woodbine twined." The next man that comes along has got to pay in advance, even though he carries a whole Methodist Book Concern under his arm.

March will soon be here, but if you wish to buy good clothing, and clothing that will last a whole lifetime, march to M. FILBERT'S, and make your purchases. See new advertisement in another column.

GEORGE W. JULIAN, M. D., from Indiana, is said to have premonitory symptoms of softening of the brain. A common complaint among Radical members.

The "Orphan Girl" Representative is endeavoring to get a very stringent Liquor Law through the Legislature. He would not deliver a Temperance speech before the election, lest he, might lose some votes of whisky boys, but he was pledged to the Temperance folks and is now trying to redeem his pledges. We hope he will succeed—those who were fooled into voting for him ought to suffer!

Carrying a bouquet containing chloroform, is the fashion among rapid women. When a chap with money concealed about him gets spoozy, they let him smell of it, and the result is a lesson spoony never forgets.

HEAVY CONFISCATION!

The Union Saved!

THE DEBT WILL BE PAID!

"Spirits of Just Men Made Miserable!"

We are happy to inform "all the world and the rest of mankind," that a recent event transpired in "our midst," which conclusively satisfies us that "the best government the world ever saw" is sound to the core,—that the National credit will go down to future prosperity in an unimpaired condition, and that the nigger should have a vote! It is generally known that a country editor has a "hard road to travel," and that for his labor he is glad to take anything that will afford either temporal or spiritual sustenance to his soul and body, even unto the prayers of our "free and easy" Christians! It was our good fortune, (no, it must be misfortune) to become in fee simple, owner and possessor of one dozen of "London Royal Nectar Gin," and not feeling ourself "well enough to do" in this world to bask in the joys the article would afford, we concluded to expose it for sale in one of our prominent Drug Stores, and thus convert it into National rags, wherewith we might purchase something substantial for the "inner man," or pay off a paper bill. But, alas! for human hopes! The manufacturer neglected to plaster the bottles over with the "hang dog" countenance of some point can be at once seen. It would make a difference of several thousand dollars in every mile. The new route would pass through a rich, undeveloped and populous section of country the local earnings of which, would in a short time contribute largely toward paying the running expenses of the road. But more important, perhaps than any other consideration, is the fact, that it saves the constructing of over 40 miles of road, making a saving thereby of near a million dollars. The Jeffersonville Railroad company have offered the use of their track from Seymour to Louisville, if the company make Seymour their terminus, and have offered other material aid beside.

Miss "Nancy" who runs the Eaton Register whines awfully about the editor of this paper.—Poor thing, we pity her, exhausted as she is, the fetid resources of her malignant imagination, to undo us. At one time, the Old Devil was supposed to monopolize the largest share of jealousy and impudence of the universe, but of late, it must be acknowledged that the prize of championship for brass, impudence and lack of brains, belongs of right, to Miss "Nancy of the Eaton Register." Even those who have heretofore been her warm supporters, are now ashamed of Miss "Nancy."

A Good Editor.—The Chicago "Republican" says, a good editor must combine the loquacity of a magician with the impudence of the devil. He must know how to time a race horse, gaff a cock, teach a Sunday School, preach a charity sermon, run a saw mill, keep a hotel, and brew whiskey. He must be in sensible to the cruelest snubs, and manifest no sense of anger when he is kicked down stairs. He must throw modesty to the dogs, and let the tiger howl. But above all, he must be an adept in the art of puffing. He must be enthusiastic on the subject of hams, verbose in extolling hardware, and highly imaginative in the matter of dry goods, he must talk learnedly of programmes, with a liberal mixture of growing words, such as "warmth," "foreshortenings," "high limits," "perspective," &c. He must be heavy on a concert, with a capacity to appreciate Miss Squaw's execution of difficult feats in the upper "strata," ecstatic in praise of double headed calves, and eloquent in behalf of fat women, and of living skeletons.

The negroes are making preparations for a general rejoicing over the success of the 15th amendment.

Negro holidays are multiplyng so rapidly that they will soon have little time for anything else than jublating and voting.

It is a long, long while since Congress has given white people cause for rejoicing. Glory hallelujah!
