

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Watch the X. Subscribers who find an X marked on the margin or wrapper of their paper, will know that they are indebted on subscription, and will please call and square off. We need the money to grease the machine, so that it may run smooth for Greeley and Brown.

Gunckel Nominated.

As we expected and as we predicted long before the Radical Congressional Convention convened at Dayton, Lewis B. Gunckel, of Montgomery county, the favorite of the "Rings," was nominated for Congress. We knew from the effort being made in this county—from the amount of money being shipped here before the primary election to purchase and bribe delegates—that the defeat of Preble counties candidate was a foreordained event, just as certain as the rising and setting of the sun. It is strange, too, that Preble would submit to being trampled and kicked about by Montgomery county, when she presented such a favorable and unobjectionable candidate as Mr. Brooke. It however only proves the power of the "almighty dollar," to humiliate and disgrace men. Every honorable effort on the part of Darke and Greene counties was brought to bear in caucus against the bribed delegates from this county to go over to Mr. Brooke, or any other man from this county, in order to defeat Gunckel, but they were inexorable—even the threat of one of the delegates from Preble that she "COULD not and WOULD not be carried for Gunckel," had no effect, and he was made the nominee in caucus. Mr. Brooke and Allen then withdrew, and notwithstanding the solemn protest of Mr. Craighead that he would not accept if nominated, his name was presented by the disaffected counties of Preble, Greene and Darke, and the result of the first ballot was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name and Votes. Rows include Montgomery, Darke, Greene, Preble, Craighead, and Gunckel.

Seventy two votes were necessary to a choice. And Mr. Gunckel was thus declared the nominee. With really no candidate against him, Gunckel only received a majority of two! That he will be defeated by Judge WINNANS, the Democratic-Republican nominee, we have not the least doubt, because it is morally certain that this county cannot be carried for a man who purchases his nomination.

Probable Fatal Accidents.

Three brothers and one sister of Benj. Huston, Esq., of West Alexandria, arrived here on Monday evening by the 9 1/2 o'clock train, summoned by a telegram to the bedside of their brother who is lying very ill. They engaged a conveyance of Mr. Harsbman to take them to West Alexandria, when opposite the old Black farm the horse took fright at some cattle lying on the pike and threw them out, injuring the elder brother very severely, fracturing the collar bone and breaking two ribs, the fragments of the fractured bones penetrating his lung and causing hemorrhage, that will probably prove fatal. The sister had her collar bone fractured as well as being severely injured. The others were only slightly injured.

Mr. Jesse Hanner, living near Lewisburg, with his family started for the Soldier's Home, Tuesday morning last in a Spring Wagon, when about half mile east of Lewisburg, his horse frightened and backed down a very steep embankment, upsetting the vehicle and throwing out its occupants, bruising them all severely. Mr. Hanner's injuries are thought to be serious.

Dead Body Found.

On last Sunday morning the dead body of a man was discovered in a log out building on the farm of Mr. Joseph Simmons, on the old National road about eight miles north of Eaton. The body was so badly decomposed that recognition or the cause of his death was impossible, and a verdict by the Coroner's jury was rendered in accordance with these facts. He was about 50 years of age, about 5 feet and 7 inches in height and had dark hair and whiskers slightly tinged with grey.

Free Fights.

Our town seems to be blessed (?) with a remarkable amount of pugilistic talent, which if properly trained might give us some reputation abroad. Not a week passes by in which we are not favored with an exhibition of the P. G. Ring. Bloody noses, black eyebrows and bruised heads seem to be the remnants of this amusement. Especially on Saturday nights, is this the result. It is shameful, but then these "sports" must be amused, and probably this is better than many other things they might do.

We have heard several persons claim the credit of silencing the editor of the "Register's" abuse of saloons and saloon-keepers. We believe the "interview" of the editor of the Piqua "Journal," had about as much to do with it as anything else. Nothing of the kind has appeared since Fleming "interviewed" Morris.

Editorial Brevities.

A note on Sunday is void. Ignorance of the law is no excuse. Several marriages on the tapis.—Guess who?

There will be lively times in this county during this campaign. When was a Convention known with only one candidate, and he got only two majority?

You can tell a young lady's politics by the name of the paper she uses in making her "bustle."

Parties making bets on the election are informed that our particular fort is acting as stake-holder.

It is said Bill Allen squandered away $3000 to purchase the Darke county delegates to go for him!

Some of the Republicans say the Democratic party died on the 10th of July, and the echo comes back to them—u-ly.

We had the pleasure one day last week of seeing Budd Doble, driving the black horse "Joe Hooker," around our fair ground track! He made it in about 2:27 1/2.

Abner Dunlap has the finest "turn out" of any man in Preble county.—His double set of gold mounted Harness were manufactured in Eaton by John Ruppel, and cannot be excelled anywhere.

We have the most cheering news from all parts of this State. The people are moving with one accord for Greeley & Brown. Let the ball roll on. "The day of jubilee is coming."

Preble county has been "furnishing Radical majorities for Montgomery county Congressmen for twenty years. And now when she pressed her claims her rights were sacrificed to a Montgomery county local Meeting. Poor Preble!

The return of the delegates from the Radical Congressional Convention on Thursday evening last, was the most solemn affair we ever witnessed. The Brook men were hostile, while the "Ring" was all lovely.

Democrats in this County stand as a unit in support of Greeley and Brown. That the Democratic Republican party will elect their nominees, no sane person can doubt. The people demand it. The tax-payers are determined to have it so.

We would like to know how it comes that all our subscribers at Lewisburg cannot get their paper. Every week some one complains. If the P. M. sends an extra copy, we will send one rather than disappoint our regular subscribers.

We will send the Eaton Democrat to any new subscriber for three dollars—payable when Greeley is elected President of the United States. Now you plucky, sanguine fellows, who laugh at the idea of Grant being beat, hand in your names.

We talk on the streets of Eaton almost daily with many Radicals who admit frankly and honestly that the Republican party "has done all the good it can." Then dear friends, if it is dead, let its epitaph be written as was that of a power of old; weighed in the balance and found wanting.

It takes money to run a newspaper as well as any other business and no paper succeeds financially that carries on a deadhead system. Any mention of the people's affairs they wish to see in print, is worth paying for, and when printed is generally as good as any other investment of the same amount.

The millennium is near. "The lion and the lamb shall lie down together." After the 1st of March next, Horace Greeley will be President of the United States—then we will have peace and low taxes—the poor men and the farmers will rejoice and be happy.

Mr. Gunckel may put down Preble County as O for him on the Congressional vote. The friends of Mr. Brooke say that if he did bribe delegates to go against their own county in Convention, he cannot purchase votes enough to endorse him at the polls.

We hope our neighbor of the "Register" will find it convenient to furnish his readers with Charles Sumner's letter to his colored friends.—You know Charles has always been a great favorite with you, a bright "particular star," and you should help to keep him shining!

The amount sent into this county to bribe the Preble delegates for Gunckel, was $5000. It was given out by his friends that this money was for the purchase of tobacco, but it is now known that it was used to buy Preble county delegates at the Dayton Convention. How it succeeded is before the people of this District.

A great many persons around here are personally acquainted with the Rev. W. S. Bacon. He was Post Master at Lockland under the Grant administration. He writes a very touching "farewell" to his old associations, tendering his resignation as P. M., and comes out for Greeley and Brown.

Our anguish is deep, we almost weep for the frailties of poor human nature when we learn that at the Richmond Radical fundango at least three of the late "smelling committee," three members of the highest standing in the grand old order of G. T.'s, were seen going in, seen inside, and seen coming out of one of these places worse than "houses of ill-fame"—Isaac talk to them, pray for them, and tell them that a "sister's single lapse from virtue," is nothing when compared to the terrible crime of going into a saloon.

Churches and Church Going.

Some seventh day christian, a brother in one of our holy Evangelical temples of worship soured a little over our remarks a week or so ago about Churches, and in an anonymous communication pours out his wounded feelings upon our meek and devoted body, by charging us with being a heathen, opposed to Ministers, Churches and the Sabbath! Rather heavy, we admit. But bless his poor, narrow-minded, bigoted and hypocritical soul, how sadly and blindly he has exhibited his ignorance. We'll bet him a squash against his brainless head, that within the last ten years we have contributed more for the support of the Ministry, Churches and Christianity, than he has during the whole existence of his unattractive life. That we are opposed to the conduct of some Ministers and think there is very little genuine religion in many of our Churches, is very true; and if we don't attend any place of worship it is simply because we feel that we are doing as well by remaining away and studying our own sermons. True religion consists in works and not in a seventh day profession or a sanctimonious regard for forms and ceremonies. Our idea of a christian is one who is charitable and kind—who relieves the distress of his neighbor instead of oppressing them—who visits the sick and the afflicted—who feeds the hungry and clothes the naked—who, if a man is hungry, does not offer him a tract and tell him to trust to the Lord, but will give him a quarter wherewith to get some bread—and who does not spend his time disputing about articles of faith, but carries his heart in his hand, and always has a kind word for the out cast and broken hearted. Such a person will win for himself a crown of glory, no difference whether he attends Church or not, or whether he pins his faith to the creed of any sect.

Churches are very essential in a community and should be supported, but a radical change is needed in their management. Thousands who now stay away from Church would gladly attend if they felt they could meet upon a level with their more wealthy neighbors, and contribute according to their means. If those who wear fine linen and furs sumptuously every day desire to be exclusive, they should remember that they will stand upon a level with the poor and lowly at the judgment day. Pride will have its fall then, if not before. Creeds and articles of faith, or the fact of having worshipped in a gaudy temple will not win entrance into the Kingdom of heaven, where the Savior of the world presides.

The great principles of Christianity, as taught by him who died upon the cross to expiate the sins of the world, are lost sight of by those who wrap the cloak of morality about them, and say unto men, stand aside, "I am holier than thou." The church which imposes heavy burdens upon its adherents too grievous to be borne, and takes from them that which is needed to supply their temporal wants commits a sin in sight of high Heaven, and will be held responsible for it at the great day. The great mass of God's creatures upon this earth are poor and suffering; they are borne down by taxes to support luxurious ease, both in church and state, their only privilege being to bow down to the long-faceted humbugs who talk of christian duties they never practice themselves. It would be well for such canting and sniveling "holier than thou" hypocrites, like the writer of the anonymous trade, to set about a reform of their system before they hurl denunciations at persons who are religiously and morally their equals, if not their superiors.

Our correspondent "WILL. J." of Camden, furnishes us the news of the unexpected death of ISAAC CRAIG, Esq., who for nearly a quarter of a century has successfully followed the Dry Goods business in that place. He died on the 31st. ult., after an illness of but a few days, in the 65th year of his age. He died honored, beloved and respected by all his neighbors and friends. During his funeral all business was suspended.

A Mr. Wm. Orr, living about three miles east of Camden, met with a most singular and painful accident on Monday two weeks ago. With the assistance of a pitchfork, the prongs stuck into the ground, he undertook to climb to the top of a wheat stack, but by the giving away a sheave of the wheat he was precipitated backward and fell upon the handle of the fork, which penetrated some eighteen inches into his posterior.

Dr. Wm. Saylor, of Winchester, and Dr. Corson, of Middletown, tendered the necessary medical aid, and it is thought he will recover.

An exchange regrets the removal of a family whose boy started out a year ago by shooting himself. Two months ago he choked himself with a fish bone. A few days after he built a fire in the barn and called out the steamers. He then swallowed a top, got run over by an ice wagon, fell into the river, was lost for three days, and first and last he has been a fountain of local news whose value cannot be estimated on a slate four feet square.

It is not a year since John A. Logan charged that, at the battle of Pittsburg Landing, Grant "was so blind drunk that he could not lie down decently." Logan now supports Grant for reelection.

Don't be afraid to invest in printer's ink, lest your sands of life be nearly run out.

Democratic Committeemen.

At the meeting in the City Hall on last Saturday to appoint Delegates to the Congressional Convention, among other business preparatory to organizing for a vigorous prosecution of the campaign, following a motion of Judge Gilmore, the following persons were appointed as an Executive and Advisory Committee, residing in Eaton:

J. H. Foss, Esq., Abner Dunlap, William Ackerman, C. P. Thum and Michael Ryan. A motion was then carried to appoint an Executive Committee of ten in each township, to consist of one Liberal Republican and one Democrat, with the following result:

Israel—John M. Ramsey and Charles Pearce. Dixon—Amos Haines, Elijah Wilkinson. Jackson—Dr. G. W. Dickey, Jesse Shear, Jr. Jefferson—D. W. Harshman, Dr. J. L. Brantlett. Washington—W. C. M. Brookins, J. G. McArthur, Esq. Lanier—James Vanaustral, Jos. Brower.

Casper—Hon. Henry Shideler W. H. Campbell. Somers—Wilson Pottinger, John Townsend. Grants—John M. Hendricks, Capt. Thomas Polock. Twin—Johnson McLean, Esq., Joseph B. Shaw. Harrison—Montgomery—Chairman of Executive Committee—J. H. Foss. Secretary—L. G. Gould. Treasurer—W. C. M. Brookins.

The "Register" office furnished the only "enthusiasm" at the Richmond Radical fundango. It is said that when Morris opened his mouth nothing but his ears could be seen.

MARRIAGES.

In Eaton, O., on the 1st. inst. by B. P. Tarkenton, J. P. of the 1st. dist. to Miss Mary J. Cook, all of Preble county, O. In Eaton on the 1st. inst. by B. P. Tarkenton, J. P. of the 1st. dist. to Miss Mary J. Cook, all of Preble county, O.

MARRIED—on the 1st. inst., at the residence of Rev. B. W. Day, in Lewisburg, Preble County, O., by Rev. Bishop Edmunds, Mr. EDWARD DAY, Esq., of Mass. A. DAY, both of said place. Young Mr. Day has really and legally too, married his adopted sister, which did surprise our villagers, and furnished ample material for the village gossip, to proclaim the "glad tidings of great joy," viz: That Ed and Ella are married. The idea of a man marrying his own sister (made so by adoption) appeared so remote, and of such strange occurrence, that it created quite a sensation, "but people will talk you know. We would simply say, as they are no blood relation, and truly loved each other as we are confident they did and longed for the happy day, what on earth should have prevented them. We must say in giving vent to our feelings, and expressing our sentiments, we wish them God speed. May their "Days" be many and prosperous, and as they walk down life's road together, may a halo of glory be cast around them, and their pathway be strewn with the most fragrant flowers. May their fondest hopes be realized, and their most sanguine anticipations be consummated in due time. And he who has wooed and won the young and accomplished "Ella," do justice to the cause and appreciate the laurels he has won. And we feel confident she will do honor to the name and heart that won her, and drive away the dull monotony, and alleviate the sorrows of life.

In Wedlocks fitters you are bound, Both Ella Day and Ed. Your various pleasures you have found, And "Days" perpetuate your mutual joy. XX
