MEETING WAS HARMONIOUS.

Independent Order of Foresters End State Convention at Morristown.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

Order has Made Excellent Progress in this State—Delegates Chosen to the Supreme Court—High Chief Ranger Makes Recommendations in his Report.

Morristown, Sept. 25.—Contrary to expectations, there was little or no contest for office at the annual session of the high court, Independent Order of Foresters. Members of the high standing committee were elected without opposition on what was termed by some as a "harmony ticket." The aim was to have various sections of the State represented on this committee, which constitutes the board of officers. Ringing speeches were made by those who placed the candidates in nomination. The following delegates were elected to office: High chief ranger, William J. O'Brien, of Court Fairmount, Jersey City; high vice chief ranger, David T. Howell, of Court Stratford, Newark; high secretary, Francis Mackenzie, of Court George W. Childs, Elizabeth; high treasurer, Fred Storm, Jr., of Court Bloomfield Centre, Bloomfield; high physician, Dr. August J. Mitchell, of Court General Runyon, Newark; high counsellor, Asa F. Randolph, of Court Watchung, Plainfield.

When it came to the business of electing five representatives to the supreme court, many candidates were placed in the field. The following were finally chosen to represent the body when the supreme court meets in Boston, in 1905: James C. Calvert, of Elizabeth; Arthur C. Wenzel, of Newark; Willet T. Bingnam, of Elizabeth; Jacob C. Huff, of Somerville, and George Eden, of Hoboken. The alternates elected are: John T. Lines, of Morristown; Francis J. Weiss, of Jersey City; S. F. Holden, of Paterson, and Richard Bye, of Elizabeth. During the afternoon session, Alderman Burke, of this city, representing the Mayor, entered and extended a welcome to the delegates. High Chief Ranger Henry H. Lowrie responded on behalf of the body. Supreme Physician Dr. Thomas Millman, of Toronto, Canada, delivered a lengthy address about the order and its financial condition. The speaker referred to the surplus of the order, which now amounts to nearly $7,000,000, and is increasing at the rate of about $60,000 per month. Dr. Millman said the order now had about 230,000 members. His address was well received. A letter was then read from Dr. Oronhyatekha, the supreme chief ranger, in which he expressed regret that he could not attend the session.

In his report the high chief ranger recommended that the salary of the high secretary be increased, and the body voted to adopt the recommendation. Dr. Lowrie also expressed his thanks to Deputy Supreme Chief Ranger Bingham, to his colleagues in office, to his deputies and all who had served the organization faithfully during the last two years. He also called attention to the large lapse rate each year, and urged upon all courts the necessity of looking after delinquents to prevent them from becoming suspended. The finance committee reported that $1,773.85 had been expended during the last two years for cash prizes to courts and members.

The sum of $100 was appropriated to one of the past high chief rangers, who is now an invalid. Each of the five delegates to the supreme court was voted $50, to be drawn immediately before the session of that body. High Chief Ranger William J. O'Brien made the following appointments: High orator, Rev. J. T. Kerr, of Court Onster, Elizabeth; high journal secretary, Frank Wagner, of Court Elizabeth, of Elizabeth; high court organist, James Theirs, of Court Camden, of Camden; high senior woodward, James Busch, of Court Progressive, Newark; high junior woodward, George F. Spinning, of Court Monmouth, Red Bank; high marshal, James A. Neubauer, of Elizabeth; high conductor, W. N. Zimmerman, of Court Fairmount, Jersey City; high messenger, A. M. Jamison, of Court Halsey, Newark; high senior beadle, O. C. Illingworth, of Court Raritan, of Raritan; high junior beadle, G. F. Reagan, of Court Columbus, Elizabeth. Several places were nominated as the place of meeting in 1905, but Bloomfield won on the first ballot. It was then voted to hold the next session within two weeks after the supreme court meets in April, 1905. Deputy Supreme Chief Ranger W. T. Bingham installed the officers-elect and the session closed at 7 o'clock at night.
