Polo Grounds, Oct. 14.—Under cloudy skies this afternoon the Giants and Red Sox lined up for what may be the final game of the series. The Red Sox have but one game to win, but judging from the great start made by the Giants in the first inning when five runs were scored, they are not likely to take this one.

Marquard and Meyers appeared as the battery for the Giants, with O'Brien on the mound for the visitors, and Cady behind the bat. The New Yorkers made five runs off O'Brien in the first inning, after two men were out. Six hits, two of them doubles, did the trick.

In the second inning Boston made two runs making the score 5 to 2 in favor of the Giants.

First Inning.
Boston—Hooper singled. Hooper out napping, Marquard to Merkle to Fletcher. Yorkes lined up on an infield hit. Speaker walked, and stole second. Lewis flied to Devore. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Second Inning.
Giants—Devore out, Gardner to Stahl. Doyle beat a slow one to Yorkes and stole second. Snodgrass fanned. Murray made first on an infield hit. Doyle took third. Doyle scored on O'Brien's balk. Murray on second. Merkle doubled to right, scoring Murray. Herzog doubled, scoring Merkle. Meyers singled, Herzog held at third. Meyers stole second. Herzog scored on Cady's throw to Yorkes, to catch Meyers. Meyers scored on Fletcher's single over third. Fletcher caught napping, O'Brien to Stahl. Five runs, six hits, one error, none left.

Third Inning.
Boston—Gardner safe on Marquard's error. Stahl singled over second. Wagner fanned. Cady fouled to Meyers. Engle batted for O'Brien. Engle doubled, scoring Gardner and Stahl. Hooper fouled to Meyers. Two runs, two hits, one error, none left.

Fourth Inning.
Giants—Marquard popped to Stahl. Devore fanned. Doyle flied to Speaker. Collins now pitching for Boston. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Fifth Inning.
Boston—Yorkes singled over second. Speaker flied to Snodgrass. Lewis fouled to Meyers. Gardner flied to Murray. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Sixth Inning.
Giants—Snodgrass flied to Yorkes. Murray singled but was out trying to stretch hit. Hooper to Yorkes. Merkle beat out an infield hit, but was out trying to steal second. Cady to Wagner. No runs, two hits, no errors, none left.

Seventh Inning.
Boston—Stahl singled. Wagner flied to Snodgrass. Cady singled to right. Stahl hit Snodgrass. Cady to a double play, Fletcher to Doyle to Merkle. No runs, two hits, no errors, one left.

Eighth Inning.
Giants—Herzog flied to Speaker. Meyers tripped. Fletcher flied to Speaker. Marquard out, Yorkes to Stahl. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Ninth Inning.
Boston—Hooper bled to Murray. Yorkes flied to Murray. Speaker flied to Herzog. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Tenth Inning.
Giants—Devore singled over second. Doyle popped to Wagner. Snodgrass lined to Hooper, who doubled Devore off first. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Eleventh Inning.
Boston—Gardner fouled to Meyers. Gardner and Stahl fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Twelfth Inning.
Giants—Murray flied to Hooper. Merkle popped to Stahl. Cady muffed Herzog's foul fly. Herzog popped to Yorkes. No runs, no hits, one error, none left.

CITY NOT 'DRY'; REPORT SALOON DOING BUSINESS

Although more than the usual precautions were taken by liquor dealers yesterday it was not impossible to purchase an intoxicating drink in this city yesterday. Announcement by the police last week that the lid would be pressed on tight, carried some weight, but nevertheless it was not an altogether "dry" Sunday for Perth Amboy. The police reported one screen violation which indicated there was Sunday selling and it is evident that there was illegal selling on at least three of the principal streets.

Recorder Henry W. Kehoe stated today it was queer that with saloons in the city closed there should be found more drunken men than usual seen on a Sunday. He gave it as his belief that this was either due to the fact that so many went to Trentonville to satisfy their thirst and remained there until they had about all aboard they could carry, or because men did get to some places in this city where they could procure drink and, taking no chances on not getting enough for the day, kept drinking until they could swallow no more.

Mr. Kehoe says he saw several drunken men.

There were two arrests yesterday afternoon and one early last night for drunkenness. John Mincer and Steve Slinko, of New York City, were taken into custody in this city when found drunk after having run a horse and wagon into an automobile.

Mike Selesky, forty-seven years old, of 414 Smith street, was arrested by Patrolman Calvin about 7 o'clock last night. He was found staggering against pedestrians on Smith street and when arraigned before Recorder Kehoe this morning he was fined $2.

Patrolman Quinlan reported that screens were not properly raised on the Washington street side of the saloon at the southwesterly corner of High and Washington streets yesterday. He saw men go in and out of the place during the afternoon, as to indicate that business was being done, but he was unable to procure convicting evidence. He reported to headquarters, that each time he went to a gate leading to the side of the premises he found it locked and he could not get in.

Chief of Police Burke issued an order today that the saloonkeeper be notified to appear in police court at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning for an examination. He will be charged with violation of that section of the excise laws pertaining to proper exposure of bars in saloons, for not raising or lowering curtains so as to permit a view of the bar from the street.

Patrolmen on other beats about the city reported bar rooms properly exposed and the excise laws duly observed yesterday as far as they could see.

Acting Mayor Garretson states that he received no personal complaints about excise violations yesterday. Up to a late hour this afternoon he had not conferred with Chief of Police Burke on the subject.

Rumors afloat to the effect that the prosecutor had a squad of detectives getting evidence against Sunday sellers here yesterday caused much anxiety among some of the saloon keepers. The reports gained wide circulation last night and by this morning some dealers were running guiltily consciences were running about to seek information on the subject. One even called at police headquarters early this morning to learn if it was true evidence was secured against law breakers yesterday.

The junior organization yesterday wore white caps, gloves and yellow plumes, the colors of the society. All along the line of march the Perth Amboy delegation was given a great ovation. The salute to the bishop and other dignitaries were also commended upon. There were about 12,000 in line. After the parade exercises were held in Calwader park.

John Dietrich, of Bound Brook, made the principal address of the day, and Rt. Reverend James A. McFaul, D. D., gave the benediction.

St. Mary's Society left here in the special train from the Pennsylvania depot at 11:30 o'clock, accompanied by A. B. Nelson's band, and did not return until 9 o'clock last night. On arriving in Trenton the local society was met at the depot by Captain Patrick Cleary and escorted to the police station assigned to them. The committee in charge were Richard Bolger, chairman; James White, Daniel Dwyer, Henry Mitchell, Joseph Williams, James Lynch, John Patten and Patrick White, Jr.

The cost for each person sent to the state hospital was $75. Each physician gets $25 of that amount, $20 is the usual cost charged by the city marshal and C. A. Sexton for automobile hire and $5 or $10 for an assistant and incidentals.

BECKER'S TRIAL LIKELY TO BE LONG DRAWN OUT

COST OF INSANE DRUNKS

Alderman Kicks About Expense to the City.

The cost of numerous commitments of insane persons to this city to the State Hospital for the Insane at Trenton, which has been a much discussed subject at aldermanic committee meetings for the past few months, resolved itself into a hot wordy battle between Alderman F. A. Seaman and City Physician M. S. Meiner at police headquarters this morning. The alderman contended there were altogether too many ordinary drunkards being sent away at a cost of $75 each to the city, who might be attended here and the city thus relieved of the expense. The physician maintained that there were no adequate means to handle lunatics here, whether they be violently insane persons who remained in such a condition indefinitely, or man suffering from delirium tremens, who might only be ailing for a brief period.

Mr. Seaman's attack upon the city physician occurred in the doorway of police headquarters a few minutes after the doctor had examined Frank Schunt, fifty-five years old, of Maurer, and decided him insane and a subject for the state hospital. The man is believed to be ailing from excessive drink and it is just such patients that the alderman object to having sent away. They want them attended to in some isolation hospital or the like, for they are not admitted to general hospitals. Doctors declare there is no other way than to send them to Trenton. Dr. Meiner said today it was impossible to keep them in an isolation hospital for many nurses could not be hired for almost any amount of money to watch them. Both he and the police declare insane persons cannot be kept long at police headquarters. JOY RIDERS OF WOODBRIDGE IN A MIX-UP HERE

Joy riding with a hired rig proved costly today for Steve Simko, twenty-four years old, and John Mincer, eighteen years old, of Woodbridge, following an escapade which resulted in extensive damages to the rig and an automobile belonging to Sigmond Elkins, of 279 Smith street, the men were arrested by Patrolmen Hartmann and Martin. Each was fined $25 for cruelty to animals and $25 for disorderly conduct when arraigned before Recorder Kehoe. Those who suffered damages threatened to bring a civil suit against the accused men.

Claim Men Were Intoxicated.
The joy riders became drunk, according to testimony of comp'ing officers, and ran the horse and wagon into Mr. Elkins' Ford automobile in front of his store at Oak and Smith streets. Had the machine not been standing where it was they would have crashed into the plate glass front of Mr. Elkins' store, he avers. The automobile was damaged to the extent of broken lamps, a broken mud guard, damaged carburetor and dented side, which will cost probably $50. One front wheel and shafts of the wagon, belonging to Theodore L. Drumplemann, a liverman of Woodbridge, were broken and the harness was damaged. The horse, owned by Edward Trainor, of Woodbridge, was driven almost to death
