

THRIFTY MENUS

CANNED GOODS COME TO RESCUE AS MEAT, EGGS AND POULTRY CONTINUE TO SOAR

To paraphrase the typewriter's famous message: "Now is the time for all canned things to come to the aid of the housewife." Eggs and meats and poultry are still but occasional luxuries for the average purse. Fruits variety each week. It is time to draw on the food stores in the cellar and on storeroom shelves. All the good things from last summer's garden now furnish forth the feast. String beans, young beets, peas, asparagus and other summer delicacies relieve the daily services of potatoes, carrots, onions and parsnips. Canned fruits, with simple sponge cakes and cookies supplement pies and puddings. Use the canned things now. They were stored against this season's need.

SUNDAY. Breakfast: Wheat cereal with sliced bananas and milk; toast, cocoa. Dinner: Broiled shoulder of lamb, with green peas; apple and cranberry jelly, baked sweet potatoes, fruit salad, cheese, coffee.

MONDAY. Breakfast: Buckwheat cakes, maple syrup, coffee. Lunch: Bean soup, corn sticks, canned berries, cookies. Dinner: Cheese polenta, tomato sauce, string beans (canned), green pepper and cabbage salad, fresh gingerbread, tea.

TUESDAY. Breakfast: Stewed apricots, oatmeal and cream and sugar, toast.

HOUSEWIFE HINTS

Housewives are eternally on the lookout for something new in the matter of party refreshments, especially sandwiches. A new sandwich filling is hailed as a discovery and a triumph sufficient to give a fillip of novelty to the most conventional tea or bridge luncheon. Here are a few of the latest discoveries of domestic science in the field of the sandwich.

To make good sandwiches, use fine-grained bread bread one or two days old, cream the butter until soft and "spreadable" and have the filling of good spreading consistency. Do not use too much filling or allow it to be so moist as to soak the bread. If lettuce is used, be sure to clean and crisp it thoroughly by washing in ice water and wringing for a half hour in cheese cloth wrung out of ice water. Lay the bag of lettuce next the ice.

Mexican Sandwiches—Chop fine: fresh tomato, 1 green pepper and small Bermuda onion. Season all with salt, vinegar and pepper and spread on bread or crackers.

Orient Sandwiches—Chop blanched almonds very fine and mix with a little thick cream. Add candied or preserved cherries, chopped very fine and a little chopped candied ginger. Mix the fruit and nuts with mayonnaise or cream and spread on fine white bread, or nut bread.

Sweet Thing Sandwich—Chop: one cupful each of nuts and raisins and dates. Mix together and add two tablespoonsful of strained honey or maple syrup and two tablespoonsful of orange or lemon juice as preferred. Good with white or brown bread.

"Perfectly Fine" Sandwich—Spread square bakers' rusks with peanut butter and cover the butter spreading with a layer of melted sweet chocolate.

Delicate Sandwich—Mix a little quince or apple jelly with sweet cream and a few shredded mint leaves.

Yum-Yum Sandwich—Melt bitter chocolate and sweeten with shaved maple sugar, thin, with rich cream and add chopped nut meats. Spread on white or nut bread.

Wednesday. Breakfast: Baked apples, cornmeal scrapple, sirup, coffee. Lunch: Escaloped potatoes, apple, celery and nut salad, tea. Dinner: Vegetable soup, country sausage cakes, boiled hominy, sliced oranges, coffee.

Thursday. Breakfast: Stewed prunes, boiled rice and milk, toast and coffee. Lunch: Macaroni and cheese, apple sauce, cookies. Dinner: Fanned fish, creamed potatoes, spinach, with hard boiled egg; tapioca pudding.

Friday. Breakfast: Halved grapefruit, creamed codfish on toast, coffee. Lunch: Baked beans, brown bread, canned fruit. Dinner: Cream of tomato soup, vegetable, nut roast with cranberry sauce, cauliflower (canned) salad, Indian pudding with maple sauce.

Saturday. Breakfast: Apple sauce, corn muffins, creamed chipped beef, coffee. Lunch: Salmon salad, wafers, sup-cakes with fruit, tea. Dinner: Liver en casserole with vegetables, baked potato, cabbage and green pepper salad, cheese crackers, fruit gelatin, coffee.

Famous Women

The Duchess of Richmond. The Duchess of Richmond was the daughter of the earl of Binden and lived during the reign of James I. Her two grandfathers, the duke of Norfolk and the duke of Buckingham, had both lost their lives for aspiring to the throne. She fell in love with a vintner, Francel by name, and married him. She was left a widow soon afterward and became engaged to Sir George Rodney. She disapproved the elation, however, for the earl of Holland, and Sir George committed suicide. After the death of the earl she married the duke of Richmond, and after his death aspired, but unsuccessfully, to the hand of James I.

PEACE AND THE WEATHER

Unofficial Prophets Declare Cession of Hostilities Means Milder Winter. Is the mild weather due to peace in Europe?

The mildness of the fall and early winter of 1918 in America and Europe is remarkable.

Good weather up to the November 11 armistice contributed largely to ally victory.

Previous war years were notable for bad weather in all seasons. Summers were hot, rainy. Falls, rainy, cold, muddy. Springs, late, chilly.

Armies splashed in seas of mud. Fall always meant practical cessation of military operations. Not until the autumn of 1918 did this situation change.

During the war the common theory was that artillery caused bad weather.

Scientists scoffed.

Now the theory that good weather is due to the end of fighting is widespread.

Goosebumps prophets expect a mild open winter, easy on the coal bin and snow-shovel.

"The weather is on the side of the allies," said Foster War in July, 1918, in New York Independent, predicting German defeat.

Some think weather is on the side of the lean purse now.

The scientists aren't saying a word yet.

JAPAN HAS FEMINISTS

Richest Woman in Japan is One of the Leaders

TOKIO, Dec. 27.—There is a feminist party in Japan.

Japanese women resent the characterization that they are "cute and sweet." They want to be known as useful and progressive. And they are working and studying to win that recognition.

One of the leaders in this movement to throw off the shackles of the orient is Madam Hirooka of Osaka.

Madam Hirooka is said to be the richest woman in Japan, and furthermore, after her husband's death she managed the great estate which fell to her. Banking interests, coal mines and an insurance company of which she was one of the organizers are among her business interests. She is a public speaker of force.
