The most interesting fact of the fact that the jury were acquitted by a jury, who confessed to throwing the guilty in the eyes of the public opinion.

They have already been punished and if they had been only one among their own kind and several have deprived themselves of a electric and very pleasant means of earning a livelihood.

Officially to now baseball has been considered a clean sport.

No laws have been passed, making it a penalty to play it dishonestly.

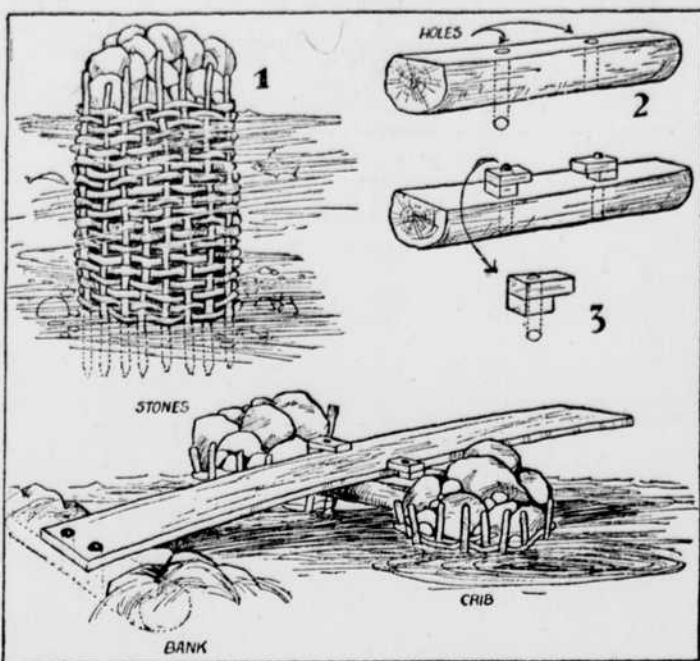

But they should be.

The only way baseball and other sports, such as wrestling and boxing can be kept on a high moral plane is to have laws regulating them.

The history of the Black Sox is now a closed chapter in the book of baseball.

Let their example suffice to keep the game pure.

SPRINGBOARDS EASY TO MAKE, SAYS BEARD

BY DAN BEARD
National Boy Scout Commissioner

No swimming hole is complete without a spring-board. Every fellow knows that and every fellow should feel that it is part of his duty as a member of the "gang" that uses the swimming hole to contribute something toward the building of a spring-board whether he contributes time and good muscle toward the actual building of it or whether he contributes tools or spending money toward buying the accessories.

Get a good two or two and a half inch plank (pine or hard wood), a foot or a foot and a half wide and ten or twelve feet long. That is the most important part of the contrivance and it should be full of life and springiness.

Next get some short and discarded ends of a "two-by-four." Pieces large enough for our purpose can be acquired from any good-natured carpenter's shop for nothing. I dare say. Then somewhere in the woods

In the vicinity of the swimming hole find some "down" trees of goodly thickness that will yield a fairly sizeable log, say a foot in diameter and from six to ten feet long.

By the time you get these the gang will all be assembled at the swimming hole. Set them to work. Put several fellows overboard building cribs (Fig. 1). Others can wield axe, chisel or saw and cut the log into two sections and flatten one side of each section, after which they can drill holes for bolts (Fig. 2). It is a serious thing to put a bolt through the center of your fine big springboard, for it weakens it. For that reason you need cleats.

These are built of the small pieces of "two-by-four" as in Fig. 3 and set apart just enough so that the board fits into them comfortably.

By this time the cribs should be completed. Then you are ready to put the log with the cleats into place, anchoring it well with stones. Meanwhile other boys bolted the shore end of the board to the second section of log and scooped out a hole in the bank into which the log is fitted and also anchored with heavy stones.

When all this is done you have a regular backwoods springboard.

SEWAREN WATER SPORTS SUCCESSFUL EVENT

Fancy diving by Revior and Walker featured the aquatic carnival held yesterday afternoon at Sewaren Beach. Both men furnished the spectators with their execution of difficult twists and turns from the fifty and thirty foot heights and both did excellent work from the newly built diving board.

In addition to the diving contest dachas, canoe races, sailing and paddling competitions were put on during the afternoon.

Taking 72½ points, Revior easily ran away with the diving contest, with F. Walker and J. Nelson taking second and third honors.

In the exhibition diving Revior, who comes from Rahway, won the swan dive and the one and one-half turn flip, while H. Walker captured the honors in the full Gaynor and the tack layout.

A. C. Clark, Jr., of Perth Amboy, won the 100 yard dash, his time being 1:03.40. E. R. Ulman was second and N. Olson finished in third place in the event.

The half mile canoe paddling race was won by A. Lutz and N. Caraciola of Rahway, while W. Vincent of Sewaren, was the first man across the finish in the sailing race. W. Toms, of Sewaren, and F. Walker of Rahway finished second and third in the event.

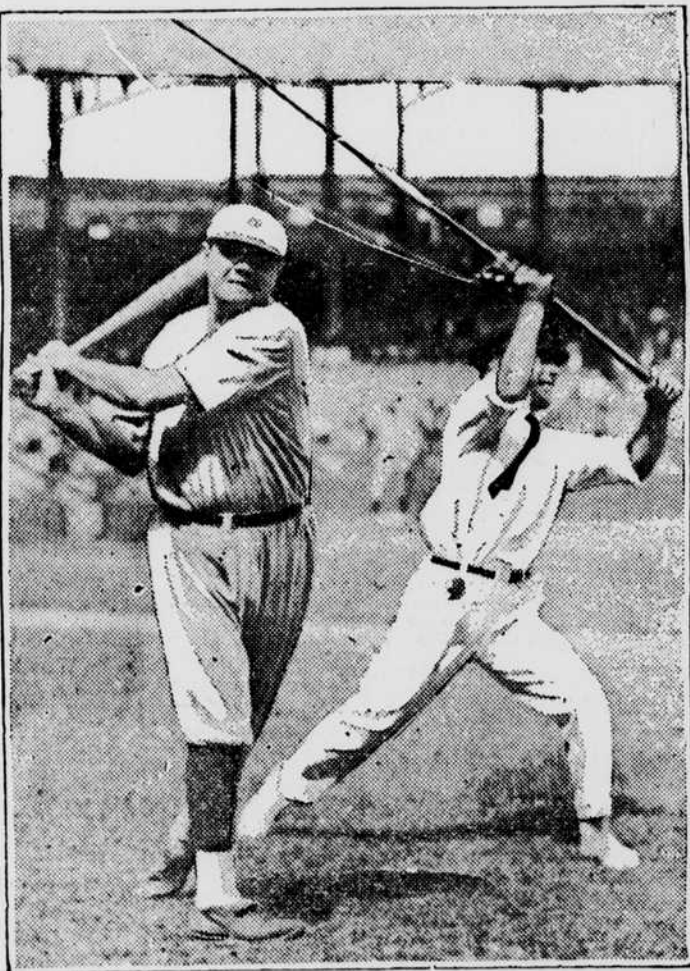

Smith and Scott of Perth Amboy were the winners of the canoe tilting contest.

THE CRAZY QUILT

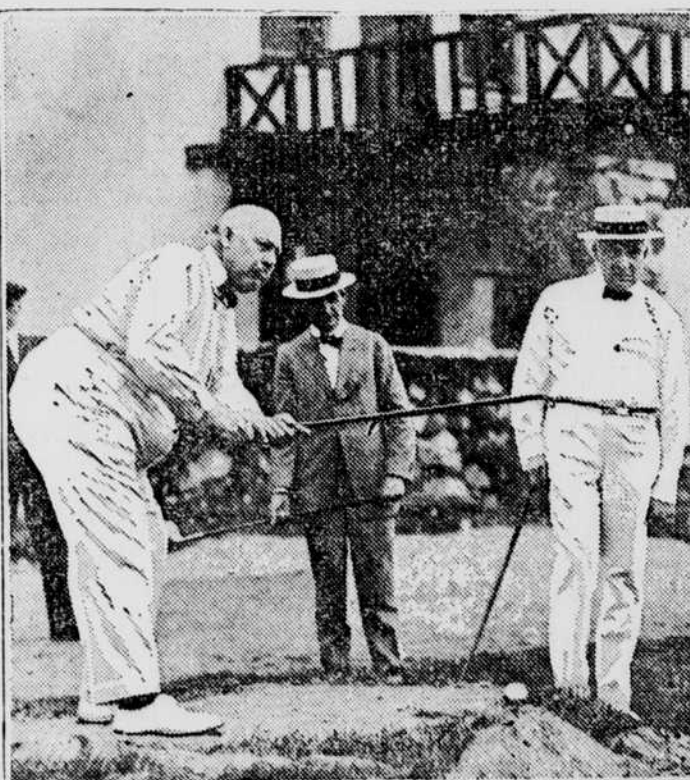

Ruth Again Wins

Harold G. Lentz, world's champion surf caster, tried to beat Babe Ruth's swat record of 470 feet in a contest at the Polo Grounds. Lentz, using a four-ounce lead, cast 440 feet. The photo shows both in action.

"Cabinet Golf"

And now we have "cabinet golf," introduced by Secretary of War Weeks and the President himself. It's a strange, strange game. The rules are that each member acts as his own caddy and only putts are permitted. But strangest of all—they use tennis balls! Look for yourself! Ever see a golf ball that size? The picture was taken at Weeks' mountain estate near Lancaster, N. H., where the President spent a vacation.
