At my Bose's new carding establishment on big Sunfish Creek, 5 miles East of Woodsfield, 5 miles South of Beallsville, and one mile below Richner's Mill. Jack, who is your bose? He is the very lad that carried on the carding business at Armstrone's Mills on Carois your boss? He is the very lad that carried on the carding business at Armetrong's Mills on Captina, he has left there and has established himself on Sunfish, where he intends to carry on the above business, in the best style. Is he a good carder? Yes, sir, you might know that, for he beat all the earders on Captina Creek and Sunfish too, and can do it again—s-o e-a-s-y. Has he got good cards suitable for fine woo!? Yes, sir, he has the best quality of Eastern cards, suitable for all grades of wool. He says if his customers will put their wool in good order he will warrant good rolls or no pay. What did you say his price will be? Five cents it paid when the rolls are taken away. Must he have all cash? O no, he will take every thing; only some things he don't want. away. Must he have all cash? O no, he will take every thing; only some things he don't want. He will take wheat, corn, bees-wax, tallow, dried spples, peaches, wool, &c. He is ready to receive wool for carding, and will be ready to commence carding about the 25th inst. Customers from a distance can have their rolls home with them, by waiting awhile. Da. W. WRIGHT-Dear Sir;week or two ago I sent you a MOUNTAINEET, containing a letter from one of our Volunteers in the City of Mexico, in which he pays WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, under the circumstances, the highest meed of praise I have ever known a medicine to receive. The Volunteer, William W. Goodlett, Esq., is a gentleman of fine standing—an accomplished and well educated man, and was recently HIGH SHERIFF of this District. By one of your advertisements in a Charleston paper, I happened to notice the location of your office, and thought you might extract an article of some value in regard to your medicine, therefore I sent the paper.

The following is an extract-from the letter re

Thus it appears that the brave and patriotic Volunteers who have gone to Mexico, to defend the rights and honor of their country, already be gin to realize the extraordinary value of this in comparable medicine. Long life to them! HORRIBLE MISTAKES!!

The Democratic Flag. CASS, BUTLER, AND DEMOCRACY.

Flag of the free, thy glorious stars Shine forth o'er land and sea. And millions hall with loud huzzas The banner of the free---CAM, BUTLER, AND DEWOCKACY; Wave, wave the banner high, "Tis like the sun in brilliancy, That 'lumes the morning sky.

The soldier from the bloody field----The sailor on the sea-With stern resolve will nobly shield This flag of victory; For glorious Cass has proudly saved THE PREEDOM OF THE SEAS! And BUTLER, with his veterans, braved The "battle" and the breeze."

Unfold the flag---'tis freedom's cause; With voice of loudest cheer, For EQUAL RIGHTS and EQUAL LAWS Are all emblazoned there. DEMOCRACY, thy potent name, Proud emblem of the free, Shall kindle everywhere the flame The fire of liberty.

Fing of the free! beneath thy sway, Where'er thy folds shall blaze, Thrones, crowns and sceptres melt away; Kings tremble as they gaze! And renovated millions rise, Like Bethet's host to see The star that guides their longing eyes---

Europe! thy down-trod myriads wake, Bleeding at every pore; Ireland! thy children's fetters break, France, red with human gore. Awake! in God's own image made, Arise, your rights receive; The brazen serpent is displayed----Awake, look up and live!

The star of liberty!

Flag of the free, thy pathway holds Its course o'er every foe; Atlantic breezes swell thy tolds, Pacific zephyrs blow. And soon, as God is provident, We'll bound thee by the sea; CASS, BUTLER, AND THE CONTINENT, Our motto then shall be.

The NORTH and SOUTH in union joined, The EAST and west shall vie, In harmony and peace combined 'Neath Freedom's watchful eye. O'er ever land thy folds shall fly, And every eye shall see, Cass, BUTLER, AND DEMOCRACY, The banner of the free.

Arrival from the Pacific.

Prosperity and Wealth of California

Captain Samuel V. Shreve, late of the barque Annetta, of Boston, sold in the Pacific, passed through New York on Wednesday, en route from the western shore of America to Boston. Captain S. came overland, across the Isthmus of Panama, and was a bearer of dispatches from our naval force at Mazatlan to the government, which have been forwarded to Washington. - He passed Mr. Livingston and family in crossing the Isthmus, on the 28th of June. They were all well. The advices from California, by Captain S., are to the 30th of March, as given in At one of the agricultural meetings the following interesting letter to the
