

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Tuesday, May 2, 1871.

Read all of our advertisements.

For fine Dress Goods go to P. DIERL'S.

The Democratic Central Committee meets to day, Tuesday. Proceedings next week.

We learn that the citizens of Leveville have applied to have that place incorporated.

Mr. C. LAURENCE, of this place, accidentally chopped off the end of his left thumb one day last week.

The Morgan County Fair will be held on the 27th, 28th and 29th days of September.

The latest, largest and cheapest stock of Notions and Fancy Goods at P. DIERL'S.

The prospects are flattering for a full brood of candidates for the various offices to be filled, in this county, this Fall.

The Town Council will shortly inaugurate a vigorous campaign on the subject of repairing and laying new sidewalks.

Mr. ISAAC BERNARD authorizes us to announce that he will not be a candidate for re-election to the office of County Commissioner.

Common Pleas Court convenes today, Tuesday. We will publish the proceedings after the adjournment. The Term will continue about two weeks.

Guests Here!!

At P. DIERL'S you will find the best and latest styles of Ladies and Gent's Hats ever before brought to this market.

Attention is invited to a communication, published in this issue, from J. P. SWANSON, Esq. It is a pointed vindication against unjust charges.

Cuffs and collars of brown and dark linen are the thing for summer traveling wear. They are trimmed with narrow ruffles of the same, edged with a line of English lace.

We are daily adding new subscribers to our list, but there are yet hundreds of Democrats in this county who do not take the Star. Call at our office during Court and subscribe.

The fruit crop in this section is nix. The late frosts and freezing weather grounded at least two thirds of what would have proved a large crop of all kinds of fruit.

A Terrible Temptation.

One of those beautiful carpets at P. DIERL'S striking the fancy of a lady, and because she could not purchase, she committed suicide.

A pretty carriage-shade for a bride is one of uncarved ivory, opening and shutting like a circular fan around a carved and jeweled handle of ivory. Such a one can be bought for $25 or $30.

The following remedies are said to be valuable and infallible: For corns, easy shoes; for life, exercise; for rheumatism, new flannel and patience; for gout, meat and water; for the toothache, a dentist; for debt, industry; and for love, matrimony.

All the bonnets of the season are modifications of the gipsy or cottage shapes. Their brims are either turned up or indented, filled with ruffles or bands, or left plain to be filled by frizzles of hair, as the taste or fancy of the wearer may dictate.

R. M. CLARK, Auditor of Belmont County, has commenced suit against the editor of the St. Clairsville Chronicle for libel. He has retained Messrs. CHAMBERS, DANKFORD, KELLY and COWEN, as his attorneys.

Fashion gossip has it that in passing a lady on the street, the hat should be raised, during the present season, with the left hand, the little finger and thumb to be placed under the rim. The bow for May is a little to the left side, and not quite as low as formerly.

Mr. GEORGE B. OKEY, son of Judge Okey, formerly of this place, was among the graduates at the Law School of the Cincinnati College at the late commencement. We believe he has not yet reached his majority.

A number of witnesses, on both sides, were examined at the Court House, last week, in the case of WILKINS vs. The Farmers Union Store Company, of Leveville, before J. W. WILLIAMS, referee. The case will be tried during the present term of Court.

Every Democrat in Monroe County should vote intelligently for candidates for the nomination to county offices. To do this, subscribe for the Star, read over the announcements, which will be published, discuss the qualifications of the different candidates, decide upon your men and vote for them. This course will save Democrats valuable time, which would otherwise be lost by candidates electioneering them.

The Meeting of the Committee.

The Democrats of Monroe County expect the Democratic County Central Committee, in session to-day, the 21 inst., to decide in favor of a Popular Vote Convention. They expect the Committee from the different townships to represent the views of the Democracy of their townships, whether they favor those views or not. One man representation, the Democracy of Monroe County are opposed to.

Letter From J. P. Spriggs, Esq.

WOODFIELD, OHIO, April 29, 1871.

Messrs. Editors: I have been informed by several responsible persons that a man holding an honorable official position in this county, has of late been saying, both publicly and privately, "what the reason the law in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors was not enforced was on account of the failure of the officers of the Court to do their duty, and that he intended to have an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney appointed to attend to that, at the next term of Court."

Since my election to the office of Prosecuting Attorney, there has been Seventeen Grand Jurors, composed of two hundred and fifty-five men, selected from the townships, and supposed to be men of high moral worth. These men to gether with myself are by this statement, indirectly (at least) charged with moral perjury by a disregard of our sworn duties. That I have not interfered with or controlled the Grand Jury, I appeal to each one of them. And I have prosecuted every indictment successfully and collected the full amount of fine and costs I appeal to the records of the Court.

If the man uttering these falsehoods has the intelligence of a mule, he knows the statement is false; and he is a base malicious slanderer and a wilful and deliberate falsifier. Yet, gentlemen, the man who uttered this vile and malicious slander is always ready to meet you with a bland hypocritical smile and you know I have always been your friend.

I would not have written this communication, but for the reason that the official position occupied by the man publishing the same, might induce some to believe that it was true.

J. P. SPRIGGS.

How Old are You?

There is a good deal of amusement in the following magic table of figures—Hand it to a young lady and request her to tell you in which column or columns her age is contained, add together the figures at the top of the columns in which her age is to be found, and you have the great secret. Thus, suppose her age to be seventeen, you will find that number in the first and fifth columns, and first figures of these two columns added make seventeen:

1	2	4	8	16	32
3	3	5	9	17	33
5	6	6	10	18	34
7	7	7	11	19	35
9	10	12	12	20	36
11	11	13	13	21	37
13	12	14	14	22	38
15	13	15	15	23	39
17	14	16	16	24	40
19	15	17	17	25	41
21	16	18	18	26	42
23	17	19	19	27	43
25	18	20	20	28	44
27	19	21	21	29	45
29	20	22	22	30	46
31	21	23	23	31	47
33	22	24	24	32	48
35	23	25	25	33	49
37	24	26	26	34	50
39	25	27	27	35	51
41	26	28	28	36	52
43	27	29	29	37	53
45	28	30	30	38	54
47	29	31	31	39	55
49	30	32	32	40	56
51	31	33	33	41	57
53	32	34	34	42	58
55	33	35	35	43	59
57	34	36	36	44	60
59	35	37	37	45	61
61	36	38	38	46	62
63	37	39	39	47	63

Watches and Jewelry.

If you desire to purchase a watch, jewelry, or have clocks, watches and jewelry repaired, call at F. RER'S, Jeweler, at LANGE'S old place, West side of Public Square. Mr. RER is a good workman, and will guarantee satisfaction to all who may give him their patronage. His card appears in this issue.

Gargle for Sore Throat.

Strong sage tea, 1 pint; strained honey, common salt and strong vinegar, 1 tablespoonful of each; Cayenne pepper, pulverized, 1 rounding teaspoon; steep the Cayenne with sage; strain, mix and bottle for use. Gargle from four to a dozen times daily, according to the severity of the case.

Parasols of the latest style are of shades of ponce, linen, silk serge, buff, drab or rose, or poplin, lined with silks a shade darker. An edge of a darker color, and sometimes a fringe, also of a shade darker, finishes them. Practical ladies affect the English walking stick parasol or umbrella.

The Coachman's collar, dicker and scarf, all attached to each other, and made so ingeniously as to be instantly donned after the horses are harnessed and the carriage at the door, is the latest invention of the distinguished Capen.

The Lester Wallace Smoking Jacket is also one of Capen's designs.

Without fail call at your earliest convenience and examine P. DIERL'S new stock throughout.

Belmont County Items.

[From the Barnesville Enterprise, April 27.]

THE WHEAT.—The wheat in this section of country looks splendid. The breadth sown last fall is fully equal to the year previous. Without future mishaps, we think we shall have a full average harvest.

The Presbyterians of Bellair are going to commence the erection of a fine church in a few days—the proposals now being in print. It is expected to be the finest church in Eastern Ohio. The building is to be 110x60.

CHICKEN CHOLERA.

—This disease is active among the chickens of this neighborhood. After being attacked the fowl becomes dull and inactive, weak in the eyes, and generally dies within forty-eight hours. There are many remedies. "Poulters' Friend," chloride of potash, and oak bark tea, mixed in the feed are as good as any. Using all these, the fowls that are not badly saved, while the disease will be prevented from spreading.

DEATH OF LIEUTENANT MACKALL.

—It is with great regret that we announce the death of this promising young officer, which occurred at Santa Fe, New Mexico, on the night of the 20th of April. His father Benjamin Mackall, Esq., received a telegram on Thursday afternoon, announcing the sad event. No particulars were given, but it is surmised that the cause was hemorrhage of the lungs, to which, since an accident at West Point, he was occasionally liable. On receipt of the news the family telegraphed directions to send the body home, but this was impossible, owing to the difficulties of the route and other causes.

Lieut. Mackall was born at Barnesville, in 1844, and graduated with honor at West Point in 1869, having been included in the "first five," or substantially at the head of his class. At the time of his death he was Chief Engineer of the Department of New Mexico, and would in all probability have obtained a high position in the army if his life had been spared. He was a dutiful son, an affectionate brother, and an enduring friend. He was the pride and hope of his family, which in their bereavement receive the sympathies of our community.

FASHION ITEMS.

Half high shoes will be more in vogue for summer wear than high laced or buttoned boots.

Unraveled ivory fans and ivory glove stretchers are considered suitable gifts for a bride to receive.

The Jockey Club bow, fastened with a bow string to the collar button, is the last style announced in gentlemen's cravats.

The latest style of collars for gentlemen is narrow and turned over, worn low in the neck. The stouter the person the lower can the collar be worn.

Fashionable, both ladies and gentlemen, now affect the Tennyson reversible cuff. Its distinguishing feature is a notched-off edge below the sleeve button.

The Republican Ku-Klux.

Probably the first case to come before the United States courts in the South, under the provisions of the Ku Klux law, will be that of three Republican office holders in South Carolina. Some two or three weeks ago the safe of the treasurer of Abbeville county was broken into, and robbed of $15,000 in money, none of which has yet been recovered. The chief constable of the State has succeeded in tracing the crime to three brothers named Gullis, originally Northern men, but for some time residents of Abbeville. One of the Gullis is a member of the Legislature, another is probate judge of the county, and the third is mayor of the town of Abbeville. All three have been arrested and are now in close confinement in Columbia. The chief constable has the most indubitable proof of their guilt.

It would be a singular thing if the Ku Klux force bill, which is claimed by its framers, was intended to suppress disorder throughout the South, should, after all, do something toward accomplishing its purpose, in an indirect way, by removing the cause of these disturbances in the persons of the dishonest officials and scoundrel adventurers.

Negroes are hard headed in Brazil.

A South American correspondent of the Boston Advertiser writes: "The negro 'votes' everything on his head. From a small paper parcel to a grand piano, and on this 'spend,' a lady spending the hot months in Tijuca ordered her piano sent out from the city, distance about twelve miles, supposing it would be sent by team. But on the day appointed eight negroes made their appearance at White's Hotel, in Tijuca, with the said piano riding aloft, on their wretched heads, having brought it the entire distance, including the mountain road of three miles heavy 'up-grade,' without once stopping for rest on the way. Before setting it down these jolly negroes paraded it about the yard, with a sing song march, to show that they were not in the least done up by their performance."

An Arkansas Governor.

A Chautauque county correspondent reveals some particulars of the early life of Ozo A. Hadley, the new Radical Governor of Arkansas, vice Clayton: "Having committed a crime which rendered him liable to arrest, Hadley escaped in 1855, from the sheriff of Clinton county, and thus evading justice fled with his family to Rochester, Minn. Here he disgraced a girl, and was a second time compelled to beat a hasty retreat. From Minnesota he went to Arkansas, and up to the present he has figured somewhat conspicuously in that State. We now see him elected Governor by some 'negrodom' trick in Arkansas politics."

Some of the Radical papers make the claim that President Grant, in his present swing around the circle, has gone to St. Louis merely to show his business. The more incantations New York Tribune blurs out the truth, however, in placing the telegraphic narrative of the President's movements under the head of "Political." The Tribune in this matter deals fairly. Grant may have private affairs that need his attention in St. Louis, but at the same time he is making a political business of his jaunt. In proof of which witness Monroe's speech at Indianapolis on the occasion of the President's arrival there, wherein he defended the Administration, and abused the Democratic party.

The New York Sun thinks that the Democratic address, slightly modified, would be a platform for 1872 upon which Mr. Tremblut could stand as the Democratic nominee. A great many liberal Republicans will become Democrats if they are given half a chance.

Paper Wheels.

On the Chicago and North western Railroad the Pullman Car Company have wheels with steel tires and cast-iron hubs, into which a bar of iron is inserted, the filling under the tires for the purpose of deadening the sound and diminishing the force of concussion. These paper wheels, as they are called, have been running regularly since July last, and are still in good order.

TELEGRAPHIC.

THE TRIAL OF LAURA D. FAIR.

she is Found Guilty of Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—The jury in the case of Laura D. Fair for the murder of A. P. Crittenden returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. The prisoner appeared somewhat paler than usual when taken from the Court-room, otherwise she was unmoved. It may not be improper to say now that this verdict, until within the last week, was not generally believed possible, nearly every body expecting the trial to prove a perfect farce, and ending in the acquittal of the prisoner, or the disagreement of the jury. Nine tenths of the community regard the verdict as a just and proper vindication of the law, and a rebuke to the doctrines put forth by the defense in the case.

KU-KLUX IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Unparalleled Atrocities—The "White Camels" Outdone by the "Black Diamonds."

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 24.—The Commercial special says: "On Saturday night at 11 o'clock, three men entered the house of an old man named Murten, near Bedford, Pa., and while one held him down by sitting on his head, the others three cords of fire on his legs, compelling him to tell where his money was concealed. They obtained $75, and tying the old man, set fire to the house. He released himself and extinguished the fire. No arrests have been made."

Locomotives Fighting for a Railroad Track.

CHICAGO, April 25.—The war at Peoria, Ill., between the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific and Peoria and Rock Island railroad companies was very excited last evening. Both parties disputed the other's right to run trains on a certain track, and the Peoria and Rock Island determined, about four o'clock, to force a passage with a train coupled to five engines. The Chicago, Rock Island, and Pacific opposed the passage with three engines hitched together, and both parties battled against each other for more than an hour, the Mayor refusing to interfere, when finally the Peoria and Rock Island cleared the track and shot its train ahead.

Dwelling-house and Two Children Burned.

CLEVELAND, April 25.—A Cleveland Herald special from Cuyahoga, Ohio, says: "This morning the dwelling-house of B. C. Foster, at the depot, was burned. Foster and his wife barely escaped. Jennie, aged four years, was burned to a cinder; and Lloyd, aged twelve years, leaped from an upper window, and was so badly burned that he died in a few hours."

A Reverend Radical Officer Indicted.

CINCINNATI, April 25.—The Rev. M. P. Gaddis has been again indicted by the United States grand jury for neglect of duty while assessor of the internal revenue of the Second District, for receiving presents and bribes, and for offering to bribe to his assistant to induce him to allow Gaddis to commit frauds in office.

The Sudden End of Two Texas Suppermen—A Dyling Man Kills His Assistant.

[From the Jefferson, Texas, Radical, April 8.]

One of the most remarkable personal encounters ever recorded in the annals of this city occurred on Tuesday last, resulting in the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally through the body and then ran. The dead man (as it were) pursued, without heeding the cry of death upon his vitals, or realizing the instant death of the notorious William E. Rose and of the equally notorious Jesse Robinson—Rose shot Robinson fatally