

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, Jas. A. Garfield OF OHIO.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, CHESTER A. ARTHUR, OF NEW YORK.

Republican Committee Meeting. There will be a meeting of the Republican Central Committee at the Committee Rooms October 23, Saturday, 10 a. m.

W. H. C. NEEDHAM, Chairman.

T. W. HAMPTON, Sec'y.

Democratic roosters are quoted "no sale."

Let us make it unanimous in November.

The melancholy days have come, sure-to-the Democrats.

Guyan and money—all lost.

That "had man," Henry S. Neal, received 1661 majority in his own county!

"329" is all that is left of the Democratic party.

The Democrats didn't know that gun was loaded.

Business prosperity guaranteed.

Republicans smiling and happy; Democrats mournful and depressed.

"The People's Candidate is short over 2,000."

Wade Hampton is disconsolate.

There is a "change" in Indiana. How do you like it, Mr. Democrat?

Fig iron and government bonds are firm.

The smile of a Democrat is touching in its melancholy.

The results in Ohio and Indiana were a severe pull upon Democratic heart strings and purse-strings.

Democratic Presidential expectations are small and growing beautifully less.

Addison polled five illegal Democratic votes.

They are now speculating about Garfield's Cabinet.

The Democrats speak of it as a "calamity."

"What are we going to do about it?" is the conundrum that now worries Democratic minds.

That "two bushels of wheat," in Green township, did not pan out as expected.

It is a Republican wind that blows everybody good.

The Democrats are inquiring, "Are we dead?"

A Republican victory means peace and good will to all men.

"Small end of nothing" is all that is left of the Democratic party.

"No change," is the response of Ohio and Indiana.

He bore it all bravely until Guyan came in, and then he "bowed himself in tears."

Go ahead with your business boom—there is no change.

Democrats woke up Wednesday morning and inquired if that earthquake had left any of the houses standing.

Had Indiana gone Democratic whiskey would have "gone down." But as it went Republican what went up.

A Democratic merchant up town has hung out a shingle with the inscription: "All aboard for Salt River."

The man who predicted the exact result in Ohio and Indiana was not a Democrat.

It is a grand-awful; it is going to continue through November, and don't you forget it.

We found one Democrat who has a little pluck left. He was willing to bet on South Carolina.

"A contented mind is a perpetual feast." The Democrats swear it is all a lie.

Symmes and Giles, candidates for members of the State Board of Equalization, have about 3,000 majority in the District. No contest there.

Our Democrats could have stood the loss of Indiana, but to lose Guyan township was the sorest blow of all. It was the feather that broke the Camel's back.

Henry Ward Beecher says he has no sympathy for the party that goes down on its belly to write 329 on the sidewalk.

If there is to be a change don't get the Democrats to make it. Its free trade notions would ruin American industry.

Those Democrats who bet on Guyan township have been compelled to reduce their diet to boiled beef and grease butter.

There will be no Southern claim bills to veto. The next Congress will be Republican. Hancock's services not needed.

It was the Republican pole which snooked the perditions.

We Smile.

'Squire Martindale! 'Coroner Culling! Tum! Tum!

No even hundred weight. No beaten by a 239 sight.

Bill Lang, Bill Jackson, Bill Minturn, Bill Turner and Bill Ross—the people pigeon-holed these Bills.

W. W. Martindale is to be the next Mayor of Gallipolis, so say all the boys. Inquiry from Portsmouth:—"H—I, are you fellows voting up in Gallia yet?"

Headline from Enquirer:—"Ohio we didn't expect; Indiana we didn't need." Joe Stafford is piously elected.

O no, we never allow ourselves to talk politics after election.

If Minturn would only be what he really is—a Republican—he would be happy and could be elected.

Indiana has seceded—from Democracy.

J. Davis, W. Scott Hancock, S. Jones Tilden, Ben Hill, Bill English, Yellow Fever Blackburn, Mr. Wade Hampton and the balance of them 'ere fellows, where are they now?"

The gentleman from Ohio—Mr. Garfield. Nor. 2d—Stand from under. Gallia County—1400.

The National Democratic organ, the Washington Post, Sept. 28th, said:

"We accept the proposition and its attendant consequences. If Indiana goes Republican two weeks from to-day, we will give the election up. If it goes Democratic the Republicans, of course, will do the same."

Now let us hear from Indiana.

The editor did "hear," and immediately went out to look for a poor negro whom he could whip.

Republicans don't lay aside your armor. Another and a greater battle is to be fought in November. Keep your ranks solid. Be alert. See that there is no break in your lines. The enemy is discomfited and on the run. Give them no chance to recover. Let the November battle be a rout. Then we will rejoice over a country dedicated anew to universal brotherhood and prosperity.

Cease your efforts. The Presidential contest is yet to be decided. The October elections simply demonstrate the ability of the Republican party to elect the next President. But there must be no negligence. Maintain your organizations. Keep your forces in line, and be prepared, when the hour for the decisive battle comes, to win a signal victory. You have the votes to do it—use them.

Sixteen young men cast their first vote in Guyan township at the recent election, and all but one voted the Republican ticket. There is hope for Republican institutions when the young men thus rally to their support.

There is no hate in Republican rule. It simply means equal and exact justice north and south, to poor and rich, white and black, and general prosperity. Come and go with us, and we will do you good.

The Democratic party is dying. Dr. Wade Hampton thinks he can keep it alive until November by changing the treatment. "The principles for which Lee and Jackson fought" was too severe a dose to start with.

Another Discovery.

Prof. Swift, Astronomer of the Warner Observatory, at Rochester, N. Y., discovered another large comet on the evening of Oct. 10th. The fact was noted in the Associated Press dispatches, but some important and interesting details which could not be telegraphed are herewith given.

The new celestial visitor is in the Constellation of Pegasus, right ascension 21 hours, 30 minutes, declination North 17 degrees, 30 minutes. Its rate of motion is quite slow, being in a Northwesterly direction, so that it is approaching the sun. It has a very strong condensation on one side of the center, in addition to a star-like nucleus, which indicates that it is throwing off an extended tail. From the fact of its extraordinary size, we are warranted in presuming that it will be very brilliant, and the additional fact that it is coming almost directly toward the earth, gives good promise that it will be one of the most remarkable comets of the present century. This is the fifth comet which Prof. Swift has discovered, and the increased facilities which Mr. H. H. Warner, the popular and wealthy medicine man, has given him, by erecting a magnificent Observatory for his benefit, promise much for the future.

There is a possibility that further developments may prove this to be the great comet of 1813, which is being constantly expected, in which event astronomers will have an unusual opportunity to test the spectroscopic for the first time upon these eccentric bodies, and ascertain certainly what they are.

Look at the official vote of Gallia County. It makes the heart of every Republican feel glad. Here are the majorities:

Townsend..... 1087

Neal..... 1092

Symmes..... 1082

Giles..... 1102

Bradbury..... 501

Hanson..... 1134

Stafford..... 1197

Howard..... 1004

Gills..... 1118

The Prohibition vote was 15 on State ticket.

Splendid work was done in every precinct, but the great gains were made in Guyan, Walnut, Huntington, Harrison, Springfield, Greenfield and Clay. The Republicans of these townships made a grand fight, and they came out of the conflict with their banners in the front, and resplendent with glory. All honor to the victors.

In the language of another, now for the full and final harvest. Forward! should be the watchword, and let the fields won be held, and others added to them.

They say that the unpopularity of Bill English did the work for the Democrats in Indiana, and now there is a loud call for his removal from the ticket. Take him off by all means. How will he do to fill the vacancy with the name of Jeff Davis?

The Democratic Central Committee has applied its powers to the study of meteorology. It has an idea to emigrate, and it wants to find a place where hurricanes are just common and violent.

News.

Mr. David Hinton, of Cincinnati, has invented an apparatus for the consumption of smoke, which is pronounced a complete success, and is rapidly coming into use. The City Council of that city is talking of a resolution to compel all persons using over five bushels of bituminous coal per day to consume the smoke of the same.

An insane man burned seven barns in one-half day at St. Clair County, Mich., last week. He was jailed.

Two bales of cotton that were packed twenty-three years ago were sold at Columbus, Ga., Thursday.

Joseph Camp, Wm. and Albert Woodard were arrested at Lancaster, last week, charged with murdering Lewis Bowman, and putting his body on a railroad track.

Baltimore celebrated her 150th birthday last week with a tearing down big time.

Capt. John Tyree, of Charleston, W. Va., drowned himself Thursday.

The wheat market at the Produce Exchange, New York, opened a cent on the bushel higher, on the receipt of the election news from Indiana and Ohio. This one cent on the bushel is an immense amount in the pockets of the farmers. All the result of Republican victories. A decided victory in November will send wheat still higher.

The State Democratic Committee has passed the word along the line: "Up, at em again." Take them at their word, Republicans. Buckle on your armor, sound the bugle call to arms, and then, on the 2d day of November, administer to them such an overwhelming defeat that they will plead for an unconditional surrender.

The Republican ground swell has struck Newark, N. J. Oct 12th the city election occurred. The average Republican majority is about 2,500. Last October the Democrats carried the city by 3,300. Roll on, Yankee Doodle.

Indiana was generally regarded as the most doubtful State in the North. And here it comes with a grand Republican victory. If Indiana could not be held, where is the Democracy to make a stand. It isn't in the North.

John Varney, mistaking a certain Doctor for a Republican, slapped him on the back and yelled: "Guyan has redeemed herself." The disciple of Esculapius answered: "Like h—I she has!"

REPUBLICAN GAINS.—21,000 in Indiana; 4,000 in Ohio; 6,000 in West Virginia. Total 31,000. That will do for three States.

A Gallipolis Democrat, after reading Johnson's new "coal to arms," roused himself, wiped his eyes, and inquired—"what was crying about just now?"

The general drift of comment over the sweeping victories in Ohio and Indiana is that Gen. Garfield would enter the White House on the 4th of March next, backed by a Solid North at least.

The shot-gun and the bull whip may give Hancock a "solid South" but they won't save him from a disastrous defeat. They are not weapons that the North is afraid of.

Ohio Democrats are on the hunt for the fellow that was the cause of their misfortunes. John G. is named; also Judge Hoadley. Vance says it was the Democratic Judges in Guyan.

It was the universal opinion of both Republicans and Democrats, before the election, that, as goes Indiana, so goes the Union. It is still the opinion of all sensible persons. Gen. Garfield will occupy the White House after the 4th of March next.

A Democrat of Addison paid a Republican $1 for his vote. The man kept the money and true to his principles voted the Republican ticket. Upon learning this fact Mr. Demo got drunk and swearing he would whip the first Republican he met, got beautifully trounced by a young Republican.

After two days of walling which was positively head rending, the Cincinnati Enquirer consoles its readers in this wise—"The October elections indicate nothing." It reminds one of the last rabbit—"go, you are not worth the butter it would take to cook you."

The Republicans of Gallia did nobly and well of the 12th. There were no laggards in the camp on that day. Every man, old, young and middle-aged, worked honestly and cheerfully for the ticket. We are proud of the Republican party of old Gallia. It is invincible.

Johnage Thompson will never be killed by modesty. He predicted Democratic victories in Ohio and Indiana. Everybody knows the result. Instead of acknowledging his mistake, he is now predicting a Hancock victory in November. His predictions are not worth the paper they are written on. Even Democrats have no confidence in them.

A terrible wind storm visited the western county Friday and Saturday. Telegraph wires were broken down in every direction. On Lake Michigan several vessels were lost, and the loss of life is supposed to have been considerable. At the same time there was a heavy fall of snow in Iowa, Colorado and Wyoming.

The Democrats are considering the question of dropping Hancock and voting for Plaiated, of Maine.

Another prominent Democratic merchant used the language thusly: "Hancock hasn't one ghost of a chance. Better start the old party to pieces and re-organize."

Guyan township comes to the front on sweet potatoes as well as Republican victories. Mr. Guy Fry brought to the city Tuesday a sweet potato which weighed four pounds.

Col. J. Z. Ciolek and W. P. Small have increased each seven pounds in weight since the election.

The new hats on the streets are worn by the fellows who voted as the soldiers shot.

A disconsolate Democrat in Tennessee thus wickedly expresses his views—"The Democratic party has gone to hell."
