WM. NASH, Editor

GALLIPOLIS,

THURSDAY, DEC. 9, 1880.

The public debt was reduced $3,609, 361 during November.

The total amount of the National debt Dec. 1, was $1,934,881,486.

The election of Garfield for President, and Arthur for Vice President, is now complete.

The State Board of Equalization met at Columbus Tuesday.

Gen. Ben. Harrison appears to have the inside track for Senator in Indiana.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer admits that the Republicans will have control of the next House of Congress, over all opposition.

Alfred Grant sends the JOURNAL office a specimen of his corn crop. It was raised on the farm of the late Wm. Walker.

This is about the way the matter stands on the senatorial question: The Republicans generally for John Sherman; the Democrats for the "other man."

The Reunion of the Seventh Ohio Cavalry, at Ripley, Wednesday, was attended. Those that were present were handsomely entertained by the citizens.

It is generally believed that Hon. Stanley Matthews will find a seat on the bench of the Supreme Court before many months pass.

Two new treaties have been negotiated with China. The first relates mainly to the question of Chinese immigration, and the other is a commercial treaty. In the first the Chinese government practically leaves the subject of regulating emigration to the decision and control of the United States.

A Chinese giant named Chang has arrived in New York. He is said to be the tallest man in the world. He is eight feet six inches in height, and is well proportioned. He is thirty-three years old.

The Gallipolis papers speak of the "Pomeroy Branch" of the railroad. When the fact finally dawned upon them that their town is merely a way station, they will get up on their hind legs and howl.—Pomeroy Telegraph.

"All aboard for Columbus via Gallipolis."

The election of a Congressman in the Nineteenth District, to fill Gen. Garfield's unexpired term, occurred Nov. 30. Judge E. B. Taylor, Republican, was elected by a large majority.

Electoral Colleges.

These bodies met at the capitals of their respective States, Wednesday, with one exception, and cast their votes for President and Vice President, according to the popular vote in November. By some oversight a wrong day for the meeting of the Electors was selected, and they met on the day fixed by law, the vote of the State is probably lost to Hancock and English. This is the result of the vote:

Garfield..... 214

Hancock..... 144

Majority for Garfield..... 70

This count omits Georgia.

The Ohio Electors, after completing the work of the College, proceeded in a body to Mentor to pay their respects to Gen. Garfield. They were accompanied by most of the State officials. Gen. Governor made a congratulatory address, to which the President-elect responded in a very happy manner. The visit was a very agreeable one.

The Chicago Tribune prints a table of the complete popular vote for President as canvassed in all the States, with the following result:

Garfield..... 4,436,415

Hancock..... 4,306,014

Weaver..... 9,644

Scattering..... 1,793

Total..... 9,192,595

The votes in the two sections of the country were as follows:

GALLIPOLIS, HANCOCK.

North..... 3,382,586 2,849,887

South..... 1,056,849 1,586,427

The Republican vote lost in the South by force and intimidation is estimated at from 220,000 to 240,000.

As the Ohio Electors passed through Cleveland, on their way to visit Gen. Garfield, a reporter of the Herald caught the following glimpse of the member from the Eleventh District:

Mr. N. B. Sisson voted yesterday for the Eleventh District and his home located in Pine Grove. Mr. Sisson has been in the past what he will remain in the future—a believer in Republican principles and a gentleman well known for his social qualities.

Mrs. Valeria G. Stone, of Boston, was left a large estate by her deceased husband. She proves to have been a worthy and noble trustee. Here are the gifts which she has made:

Bowdoin College, $70,000; Hollowell Classical School, $10,000; Freyburg Academy, Maine, $10,000; Dartmouth College, $35,000; Andover Theological Seminary, $50,000; Phillips Academy (conditional) $100,000; Amherst College (conditional) $50,000; Wellesley College, $100,000; Women's Foreign Mission, for a college in Turkey, $25,000; Young Men's Christian Association, Boston, $25,000; Hamilton College, New York, $25,000; Chicago Theological Seminary, $20,000; American Missionary Association for institutions at Nashville, Atlanta, Talladega, Tongalo and New Orleans, $150,000; Oberlin College, Ohio, $20,000; Drury College, Missouri, $20,000; Iowa College, $25,000; Carleton College, Minnesota, $10,000. She has also given $500,000 to relatives and friends, and $100,000 to churches and needy students and for the redemption of mortgaged houses.

Tammany has issued a call inviting all persons in possession of evidence of fraud in the New York election, to report immediately to that organization. Whoever heard of such arrogance? Tammany, a notorious fraud itself, self-appointed to investigate fraud in others! The thing is absurd and ridiculous.

Scraps of Thought.

We have just finished reading last week's issue of the dear old JOURNAL. We rather like the politics of this sheet, and even think it well edited, considering—just know, dear reader, that if you don't tell me, the man at the head of this country organ, is a chronic old back, and we never expect much of this class of persons. We don't pity we can't and this poor old gray head a helpmeet.

We note with a sigh of complacency that the old man Erwin has at last been sent where he went if so easy to kill folks. Would that all who value life so lightly could be kept behind stone walls.

We are inclined to think that some of our larks are not severe enough, even if carried out. Now it strikes us that 8 years in the penitentiary for such a crime as George Ritz was proved guilty of, is a crying shame. If it's right to hang people at all, it would have been right to hang him.

But we pass to a pleasanter column—the marriage notices, and start back at once. Not surprised that so many have joined hands in wedlock, but that our dear old ministerial friend S. S. Denney, has so suddenly turned poet. What wonderful things do sometimes happen. And then he takes the credit of making them happy. Now, of course we don't know, but we have always supposed that it was mutual love, reciprocal affection, which constituted the happiness of folks at this interesting time. We have known cases where the ceremony was said and well said, and yet the parties were very far from being happy. But even good people do differ in their views. And then he made them happy "Through the earth was white with snow." Now we don't see any thing very remarkable in this. We know that some people are susceptible to atmospheric influences, but such a grand old fashioned snow as we were favored with last week, the dismal old earth all covered with a beautiful white garment and the barren leafless branches of the trees robed in gorgeous apparel, was enough to make the heart, even of an unmarried man, leap for joy. But stop, old pen, stop, its not polite, nor according to the discipline, to criticize the clergy. May we write again.

Reunion.

Four years ago there was a reunion of the Powell family at Mrs. Kerr's, in Knox Co., Ill. It was there arranged that the next reunion should take place four years from that time at the residence of A. J. Powell in Springfield, Mo. In this country, than any other, giving day they came together once more, and it was our good fortune to be present. As we looked over the crowd we noticed a few changes; a few new silver threads were finding their way among the gold. One of the family had died since the last reunion, Mr. Perry Powell, who was formerly a resident of your city. Children had grown, while others were there who were not at the former one. There were present Nicholas Powell and wife, of Willoughby, W. Va. Co. Ohio; Augustus Wadsworth and wife, of Fremont Co., Iowa; Jacob Kerr and wife, of Marshall Co., Iowa; James Johnson and wife, of Henry Co., Illinois; Richard Powell, a resident of your city. Children had grown, while others were there who were not at the former one. There were present Nicholas Powell and wife, of Willoughby, W. Va. Co.
