THE VINTON RECORD.

McARTHUR, OHIO,

THURSDAY, AUG. 7, 1873.

THERE will be a meeting of the Republicans of Vinton county at the Court House on Saturday, August 16th, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Senatorial and Judicial Conventions.

SENATORIAL.

Some of our brethren in the upper counties have been intimating that the Senatorial candidate for the present campaign had been already virtually selected by the party managers thereabouts. We have before intimated that Lawrence County was entitled to be heard before the Convention, the time for holding which is near at hand.

We desire to present as a candidate before that convention the name of Mr. E. S. Wilson, editor of the Ironton Register. Mr. Wilson is a gentleman whose habits and acquirements well fit him for the Senatorship. His standing as a Republican and gentleman is not excelled by any in this district. As an earnest and sincere worker for the Republican party, both as an editor and an individual, he deserves to be well remembered.

We believe he would make an active and wide awake member of the Senate if elected, and Lawrence County is entitled to the candidate for the next term.

The Republicans of Lawrence are always prompt to discharge their duty to the party, and are to be relied on in doing their duty by any candidate for their votes. They are disposed to insist that they shall name the next Senatorial candidate, and we trust that their claim will be received by the other counties of the district with the attention it deserves. Mr. Wilson will give as much strength to the ticket as any man who could be put on it.

It is only proper to say that this article is written without the remotest knowledge or solicitation on the part of Mr. Wilson, or any one authorized to speak for him, and is prompted only by the feeling that the candidacy is deserved, and would be very acceptable to Lawrence County in particular, and when considered, equally so to the other counties in the district.—Ironton Journal.

We are unable to surmise what the Journal means by its opening sentence. We did have some intimations that a little fixing had been done last year, and it was intimated that some of the friends of Lawrence had a hand in the fixing; but of this we do not pretend to be advised fully, and have heard nothing for this campaign.

We can endorse what the Journal says as to the character of Mr. Wilson. However, we learn that the name of E. S. Branch, of the Meigs County Press, will also be presented to the convention, and Capt. H. C. Jones, of this county has been solicited to be a candidate. Capt. Jones would have the advantage of a more extensive acquaintance over the District, and having been tried and found a sharp campaigner and an active, honest representative of the people. The other gentlemen, however, are men of integrity and intelligence, and should the convention select either Branch, Jones or Wilson, we shall feel that we will be creditably represented in the Senate of Ohio.

CHAPMAN of the Meigs County Telegraph, has been nominated for Representative. We have had frequent friendly editorial bouts with Chapman in which we have abused him, as he deserved. We have got him now just where we want him. He dare not say anything in reply, so we will take it all back, and acknowledge that we have no doubt he will be elected, and that he will make an honest and capable Representative, doing honor to himself, the editorial fraternity and the good people of Meigs county.

A BRAKEMAN had his leg broken by falling from the Zaleski Accommodation, at Zaleski, on Monday of last week. Dr. Scearce, of Chillicothe, was telegraphed for, and he, with Dr. Hastings, of Zaleski, set the limb, and he was doing very well when we last heard from him.

Orville Gunning, hurrying to his assistance at the time of the accident, slipped and wrenched his foot so as to partly disable him during the past week.

The Political Situation.

THE Democratic party of Vinton County is in a badly demoralized condition. An observing citizen likens their present situation and condition to that of an old sitting hen that has had her nest broken up, and is fussing around undecided to rebuild or turn into a nest already built. They are commencing to see, feel and denounce the blundering of their leaders, and tacitly acknowledge the incompetence of the party to ever accomplish any good, and its want of attachment to any principles except the loaves and fishes. The departure after Greeley last Fall, the late departure of their Allen county brethren, their refusal to select delegates to the Democratic State Convention and bold declaration that their party had outlived its usefulness; the support of the declaration by prominent leaders such as Pugh, Ewing, Collins and others is having its effect. They have lost faith in their party, in its ability to gain a victory, or its disposition to accomplish any good if they were placed in power.

This situation applies to the State in general as well as to Vinton county, and the victory is fairly won before the campaign is commenced; but in our county we have the mismanagement and selfishness of local politicians, the high taxes and unnecessary expenses, and a kind of a loose way of running everything into the hands of a select few for their personal aggrandizement, to which the rank and file have now got their eyes open, to help us along, if we are only wise in our local nominations. The Democracy never entered a campaign in a worse fix, the Republicans were never more united, and never had as fair a prospect of a sweeping victory.

THE Henry House, Chillicothe, whose reputation and inmates are well known here, was the centre of a big sensation one evening a week or two since. The screaming as of some person in deep anguish was heard, and soon a crowd of probably a hundred women of the neighborhood was collected around the door. No men were present as the situation was discussed, and each was anxious that the other should go in and see what was the matter. The cries continued, and many were confident they could hear the words, "Oh, my dear! Oh, it's dead!' and a thousand conjectures were raised as to what species of devilry was going on inside. Finally Policeman Berg appeared, demanded admittance, and told the proprietor that the people were disturbed by the noise and wanted to know what was going on in the house. He stepped to the door, where he saw the crowd and addressed them thus: "If you want to know what's the matter, it's the boy got the earache!" A further investigation by the policeman revealed the truth of the statement and convinced him that the cries heard outside, "Oh, my dear! Oh, it's dead!" were really, "Oh, my ear! Oh, my head!" On the announcement above the crowd disappeared as if by magic, and if a good housewife in that vicinity is now likely to be attracted to the front door by an unusual noise, an intimation that it's only a boy with the earache is sure to take her back promptly to her household duties.

JOHN CLEWELL, a lunatic who has been confined in jail since December, 1870, was sent home yesterday, it having been discovered that he had money and property sufficient to provide for his wants. His board during the time he has been confined has cost the people of the county upwards of $600.

A FIRE at Portland, Oregon, on the 2d destroyed $1,500,000 worth of property.

All Aboard for the Great Mass Meeting at Athens.

The Great State Mass Meeting at Athens on the 23d, to be addressed by Hon. O. P. Morton and Gov. Noyes, promises to be the largest ever held in this section of the State. The railroad will issue tickets at half fare, good on all trains on the 22d, 23d and 24th, and will run special trains from Chillicothe, Portsmouth and Parkersburg, stopping at all intermediate stations. The special west of Athens will leave Chillicothe at 9:45 A. M., connect at Hamden with the train from the Portsmouth Branch; returning will leave Athens at 5:45 P. M. Arrangements are being made for a large delegation from McArthur, with flags and banners, to be accompanied by the McArthur Brass Band, and they invite the citizens of Hamden, Zaleski, and the county generally to make arrangements for delegations to meet them on the train at the most convenient stations. A great many of our people have heard our one legged soldier Governor, know of what metal he is made, and will not fail to hear him. Hon. O. P. Morton's fame as a statesman and orator is world wide, and an opportunity is presented to hear him at his best, as he has almost entirely recovered his health. So feeble for years that he could only sit and address his audiences, he has attracted crowds of people hundreds of miles, and electrified them by his eloquence, and convinced by the force of his arguments. What then may we expect from him since he is on his feet and in health.

WE saw a very fine specimen of iron ore at the Vinton County National Bank, taken from a two foot vein on Benson Dunkle's farm, in Swan township. Mr. Dunkle is hauling this ore nine miles, to Vinton Furnace, where he sells it for $4.75 per ton.

Nine cubic feet of iron ore will weigh a ton, and an acre of this thickness will contain 9,680 tons, which at $4.75 per ton is worth $45,980. The ore is worth in the bank to-day one dollar per ton, or $9,680 per acre. If the G. McA & C. R. R. passed by it, so it could have a ready market, it would be worth twice that sum. These figures are reliable and we commend them to those persons who own ore lands, and yet make no effort to complete the road and bring the ore into market.

THE New Democratic Party held a convention at Columbus, on the 30th ult. and nominated the following ticket:

For Governor.—I. C. Collins of Hamilton county.

Lieutenant Governor.—A Saunders Piatt, of Hardin.

Judge of Supreme Court—Long term—P. B. Ewing of Fairfield. Short term—D. W. C. Loudon, of Brown.

Attorney General.—Seraphim Meyer, of Stark.

Comptroller of the Treasury.—C. P. L. Butler, of Franklin.

Board of Public Works.—James McBeth of Athens.

Treasurer.—Jonathan Harphna, of Montgomery.

WORK is still progressing on the railroad in Gallia county, 110 men and 52 teams being the force engaged at present. We have been permitted to see a letter from Prest. Langley to Mr. Karns from which we learn that work will commence here as soon as arrangements can be perfected.

THE Enquirer says Senator Morton, who opens the campaign at Athens on the 23d, voted for the salary grab. The official record says that he did not. So much for the Enquirer's reliability.

THE concert by the party of amateurs from Chillicothe, for the benefit of the M. E. Church has been fixed for the evening of the 21st.

MRS. BUCK, wife of C. M. Buck, Mail Agent on the railroad, died of flux last week, at her home in Portsmouth.—Jackson Standard.

Senator Morton.

The habitue last winter of the galleries of Congress and the corridors of the hotels would hardly identify, with the pale, leaden-skinned, prematurely decrepit man who then tottered through the aisles of the Senate Chamber, with feeble gait, and supported by crutches, the vigorous, rosy cheeked and healthy Senator from Indiana, who walked into the Ebbitt House yesterday morning, aided only by a slight walking stick. Seated at a table last evening, over which a brilliant jet of gas threw a strong light, bringing into view every lineament of his face, Mr. Morton struck the many visitors who called on him with utter astonishment at his changed appearance. His hair, which was always of a jet black color, has gained a glossy hue, and his eyes a sparkle and intensity that speak volumes for the recuperative powers of the hot springs of Arkansas, where he resided as a patient for several weeks. The paralysis of his lower limbs, once so painfully apparent, has been conquered to such an extent that while there is a perceptible halt in his gait, the locality of the trouble is confined almost wholly to the right foot. This rejuvenation of his physical system seems to have affected his general spirits in a corresponding degree, and he converses with an ease and dash that would be strangers to anything but a healthy physique. —Washington Chronicle, 31st.
