The Favorite Fine-Cut

THE 'Chewers' Choice, is now taking the lead of all other Brands. Bright in color, pleasant in taste, tough and lasting in chew, this tobacco possesses every quality to suit chewers, and sells by the 10 pound bucket fully 10c cheaper per pound, than any other brand of the same grade and perhaps less quality. 100 buckets of this celebrated brand have been sold in Chillicothe alone within the last two months, and trade still increasing. "Try it" SCHÆFER & KRAMER Chillicothe, Ohio, are the Manufacturers' agents and sell at lowest Factory Prices.

LOCAL MATTERS.

IT is terrible hot.

THE roads are in excellent condition.

ISAAC CORY, an old and wealthy citizen of Chillicothe, died Saturday, of apoplexy.

THE Temperance Mite Society at Mr. Cornwell's was largely attended last Tuesday evening. Proceeds $9.10.

THERE are at present at work on the G. McA. & C. R. R. 65 men and 20 teams. It is expected to increase this force to 100 shortly.

WITHIN the memory of the oldest citizen there has no been as hot weather in June as there has been up to the present date.

THE case of Patrick O'Keefe against the State taken to the Supreme Court on error was decided last Saturday in favor of the State.

JUDGE HARPER, at Ironton, assessed $716 fines for violations of the liquor law. Three parties were sent to jail, each for 20 days.

SHERIFF KALER has a new dark brown horse—a colt, without training—which trotted a mile in three minutes, to a sulky, on the Zaleski track, last Saturday.

THE Law and Order League of Portsmouth is enforcing the liquor and Sunday laws in that city. The Republican says not a dram shop was open last Sunday.

WE might prolong our column of Mackleyisms to an indefinite length this week, as most of our neighboring exchanges are paying their addresses that way; but we forebear.

LAST Tuesday was stock sale day, but nothing was sold. A number of mules were offered on six months' credit, but no one "had the nerve" It's come to a pretty pass, when a man can't even sell on credit.

BLACKBURN, who escaped from the Athens Insane Asylum, was recaptured at Chillicothe. He walked up to a policeman of that city, telling who he was and that he was going home, and would return to Athens as soon as he got some milk.

MR. HERR, of the M. E Church and agent of the American Bible Society, will hold services at the Christian Church next Sabbath at 10½ o'clock, and in the evening at the Episcopal Hall, it being the anniversary meeting of the American Bible Society and the time to elect officers. R CRAIG, Sec'y.

A PENITENTIARY convict named Asbury Brown on the eve of the completion of his time became insane. He claimed a residence in Vinton county, our Probate Judge was ordered to provide for him, but declined to do so because he was unknown here, and the claim of citizenship believed to be false.

MACKLEY thinks it is all right that the iron manufactures of this district should have an organization, and meet and consult as to the best manner of advancing the iron business.—But in his eyes it is an unpardonable sin for the farmers to do likewise. Where is a difference in the rights, privileges and duties of the respective classes?

THE Patrons of Husbandry of this county have organized a County Council, and elected Henry Robertson, of Madison township, Master. We are without a report and can not give the names of the other officers. It was organized Saturday of last week, and will meet again next Saturday, at the School House, McArthur, 10 o'clock, A. M.

From Hamden---School Entertainment.

On last Friday evening, a fine school entertainment was given by Prof. Steel and his pupils, at Hamden, at the M. E Church. The exercises were commendable in every respect, and opened by Miss Jessie Ohmer with a very nice address.

A tableau, "Terrible temptation," by Nellie Cozzens and S. Kelch, Esq., was then performed. "Choosing" was given by Augusta Miller, Flora Dye, Lizzie Hoffhine, Lulu Burtenshaw, Girtie Brown, Rena Nicholas, Mertie Brown, and Myrtle Abernathy.

"Which is the Best," came next, and Maggie Dye, Annie Heskitt, Jessie Watkins, Nellie Ohmer, Otie Abernathy and after this, Birkie's first Flirtation and its consequences."

"The Rainbow" was seen next, after which the song of songs was sung. "Eight o'clock," by Clara Watkins and Jessie Ohmer, spoken well and was appreciated by the audience. "When I was Young," was also good. "The Country Aunt's Visit" was announced and performed by ladies and gentlemen of the school, each one seeming to have his own character in the play. "The Everlasting Talker," caused some merriment, all the young ladies doing their part very nicely. "City Courtship;" by Miss Cramer and Mr. Burtenshaw made a very pleasing picture and the contrast came in "Country Courtship" by Miss Heskit and Mr. Hoffhines.

"Fashionable Dissipation" by two young ladies, after which "Dandelions" Charade, in three scenes was called by Professor Steel, each lady and gentleman making his part a success then we had "Boys' Talk" by Masters Will, Fisher, Frank Miller, Frank Kramer and George Fisher.

"Sense versus Sentiment" by ladies and gentlemen was excellently performed.

"Morning, Noon and Night," by Libbie Heskitt, Allie Cramer and Emma Burtenshaw was as fine a piece as was given, the ladies having very nice costumes for their characters "The Three Angel Visitants" was sung soon after.

"Ben Butler's Stump Speech" was given by Mr. Craig, causing the audience to do some laughing. "The Family not to Pattern After" was next, taking quite a number to play the piece. It was indeed good.

Jessie Ohmer sang "I Wish That I Had Been Born a Boy," and she sang it just like she meant it, too.

"Sitting on the Stile," (style) tableau, came next, and after "Boarding School Accomplishments" by Miss Carracci, Miss Buckley and Messrs Craig and Hoffhines. The ladies' easy and graceful ways made it all that could be desired.

"Before and Behind the Scenes," "Boarding Round," and "Getting a Photograph" were performed with credit to all showing that "the best was left for the last of the least.".

The exhibition was indeed interesting and very commendable in every respect. Hamden can be proud of Prof. Steel's entertainment. H.

WE have examined some of the black band ore found on S. H. Trimmer's place last week. Some of it was smelted in a blacksmith's forge and found to yield over half its weight of nearly pure iron. It has been found on all the adjoining farms since. A vein of kidney ore is found both above and below it. There has been no digging done as yet, and it is therefore not known how deep the vein is. The black band is regarded as the most valuable of all iron ores, yielding a superior quality of iron and containing a large proportion of carbon is easily smelted. No doubt, this ore exists in various parts of this county.

PETER HAYDEN, of Columbus, loses $400.000 by the recent deluge in Massachusetts.

THE ladies of McArthur, it should be remembered will hold a festival at the Court House on Wednesday evening, June 17, for the benefit of Horton's Cornet Band. This band is a source of pride to McArthur. The band has been organized but a short time, yet their music is most excellent In fact, the band has but few superiors and not many equals in this section of the country. The members seem determined to excel, having gone to a large expense in buying the most approved instruments, and had a new and elegant band wagon built. The band practices every night three or four hours. It is under the leadership of Henry W. Horton, a young man who exhibits rare talents as a musical prodigy, and with continued perseverance, this band will be the peer of the best bands in the State. You will get more than the worth of your money by going to the Court House and hearing it, next Wednesday.

THE special election for Marshal last Monday resulted as follows:

Robert Sage	45
Julius F. Way	23
L. H. Wilcox	9
Leander Sprague	1
Total vote	78

The election has no political significance, except Julius F. Way is a colored man, and was supported principally by Democrats, generally of that class who a short time since were howling about negro equality and protesting they would never vote again if the colored people were given the elective franchise. We don't know how the old straight backed country Democrats will fancy this action of the "leaders," but we are glad to record this progressive step.

THE following officers of the McArthur Ladies' Temperance League were elected at the last regular meeting:

President, Mrs. John S. Hawk; Vice Presidents, Mrs. H. B Payne, Mrs. A. W. Brown and Mrs S.W. Sherwood; Secretary, Mrs. L. O. Perdue; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs M. Wooley; Treasurer, Mrs. D. V. Rannells; Chorister, Hattie Holland; Assistant Choristers, Mrs. H B. Payne, Anna Payne, Mary Cornwell and Martha Cornwell; Executive Committee, Mrs. E. L. Baird, Mrs. John Cornwell, Mrs. Dr. Holland, Mrs. John King, Mrs. Joseph Huhn; Leaders, Mrs M. R. Barnes, Mrs. H. P. Ambrose and Mrs. G. W. Sisson.

THERE is no doubt in the minds of any person living in the vicinity but the burning of the Barnes' Mills bridge was the work of an incendiary.—The Commissioners, with a false economy, have refused or neglected to offer a reward for the apprehension of the miscreant, This virtually says to incendiaries that they may burn and destroy the county's property without fear of punishment.

PUBLIC debt reduction for May $4 456 831.
