BANQUET OF CARROLL COUNTY SOCIETY IN BALTIMORE GREAT SUCCESS.

The banquet of the Carroll County Society of Baltimore City, which took place Thursday evening, January 19th, at Hotel Emerson, was an inspiring occasion, and one long to be remembered by those who had the good fortune to be present.

More than one hundred and thirty Carroll countians, men and women, assembled around the festal board and after the invocation by Rev. A. S. Weber, D. D., of Baltimore, partook of a delicious menu, during the service of which John Bohl's orchestra rendered many delightful numbers.

Mr. Willis E. Myers, President of the Society, acted as toastmaster, and gracefully presented the various speakers.

Giving to official duties in the Senate, Senator J. Thomas Heflin of Alabama, was compelled at the last minute to cancel his engagement to speak. However, in spite of this disappointment a most delightful program was provided, which was interesting from beginning to end. Mr. Charles E. Miller, Vice-President of the Fidelity & Deposit Company, a former Westminster boy, made the principal address of the evening, his subject being "Men of Carroll Whom I Have Known." He spoke of many of the old pioneers of Carroll County in the legal and business world, and his address was replete with information and interest, and all regretted that the limited time of his disposal did not permit him to give in full all of the facts which he had collected.

Other Carroll countians who spoke were Mrs. Frances M. Goodwin, who has been prominently before the public as the only woman candidate for the position of postmaster of Baltimore city, and her address convinced all that should she get the position she would ably conduct the duties incident thereto.

Mr. W. Scott Leister, another Carroll county boy who has spent thirty-two years of his life in the Baltimore post office, and who also has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the Postmastership of Baltimore City, followed Mrs. Goodwin.

Mr. George R. Babylon, Carroll county's famous fisherman, injected some ginger into the program in his usual forceful way.

Mr. Peyton Gorsuch, of Westminster made a brief address in his usual happy manner.

Mr. Hobart Smock, who enjoys a wide reputation not only as a singer but as a raconteur, gave a delightful half-hour of stories and recitations. Too much praise cannot be given to the delightful contribution to the program, the singing of the Liberty Male Quartet of Westminster, composed of J. Smith Billingslea, Edwin S. Gehr, Walter L. Zepp and James Pearre Wantz, with Miss Anna Shriver of Westminster, as accompanist. These boys inspired the crowd with stirring songs, in a most acceptable manner.

Not the least interesting feature of this happy occasion was the social intercourse before and after the banquet, when the many Carroll countians renewed old acquaintances and revived old friendships.

All those who have been interested in this occasion feel that it has been an excellent advertisement for Carroll county, and that it has added prestige to the splendid spirit of loyalty which seems to be contagious among Carroll county folk.

A feature of the occasion which was especially gratifying was the fact that quite a large delegation of ladies and gentlemen came from Westminster to enjoy the occasion with their Baltimore friends.

AN EVENING OF PLEASURE.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Springman gave a delightful party at their beautiful home on Saturday night, January 21. The evening was spent in singing and dancing. Refreshments were served, after which all thanked Mr. and Mrs. Springman, saying that they had spent a most pleasant evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Springman and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Van Fossen, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gist, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Burk, Mr. and Mrs. S. Boyd McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. C. Maxson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Muse, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mosner, Mrs. Margie Edgington, Mrs. Frank Bartholow, Mrs. Carl Hubbard, Misses Goldie Miller, Julia Burk, Estie Bosley, Edna Miller, Catherine Mann, Yvonne Peeling, Ruth Peeling, Ethel Peeling, Corinne Fowler, Alice Frazier, Carroll Mann, C. C. Ireland, Wm. Bartholow, Messrs. James Bowers, Harry Peeling, Harry Gist, A. Schaeffer, Carroll Mann, C. C. Ireland, Wm. Gist, Jr., Carroll Abbott, Thomas Chew, Dorsey Gist, J. E. Burk, all of Pinksburg and Asbestos; Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Leppo, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Feeser, Misses Dorothy Leppo, Elizabeth Hoffmiller, of Baltimore; R. J. Leppo, Ruth Chew, of Patapsco; C. H. Bell, H. Emigh, Thomas Case, of Westminster.

LIQUOR THIEVES ACTIVE

THREE TRUCK LOADS OF BOOZE TAKEN FROM WAREHOUSE NEAR WESTMINSTER

From Hanover Record, Jan. 26. Three truck loads of liquor were stolen from the road between Hanover and Westminster, about 9 o'clock last night. The method employed, by the thieves in securing the booze could not be learned last night, as only meagre details could be garnered. The raiders were not caught at an early hour this morning and state police of both Maryland and Pennsylvania are scouring all roads which they are likely to pass.

In a telephone conversation with the wife of the manager of the McGinnis distillery, located along the Western Maryland railroad near Westminster, Md., at 1.30 o'clock this morning, she said no booze was stolen from that place. The McGinnis distillery is the only place within a radius of ten miles of Westminster where bonded liquor is stored.

A SURPRISE PARTY. On Friday, January 20, a delightful time was given to Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Shipley in honor of their son, Arthur. The evening was spent in playing various games and music, after which refreshments were served in abundance. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames L. B. Shipley, Geo. A. Shipley, John Goodwin, Henry Knauff, Luther Asberry, Chester Davis, Henry Fryer, John S. Bushy, Donald Shipley and Mrs. Margaret Shipley; Misses Ina Shipley, Mary Cannon, of Virginia; Beatrice Shipley, Mary Miller, Mamie Conaway, Ethel Pickett, May Smith, Nellie Haines, Gladys Haines, Esther Wilson, Belle Easton, Edith Haines, Marguerite Barnes, Myrtle Lindsay, Vernie Haines, Lillian Grimes, Louise Myerly, Julia Bair, Evelyn Bair, Mary Barber, Mary Knauff, Ivy Knauff, Alma Knauff, Edith Will; Messrs. ## MEDFORD GRANGE ELECTS OFFICERS

Friday evening, January 20th, Medford Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Duvall, near Stone Chapel. The principal feature of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: Master, James Schweigert; overseer, John Stevenson; lecturer, Mrs. Clarence W. Duvall; steward, Howard Bower; assistant steward, Wilbur Gladhill; chaplain, Miss Etta Stoner; treasurer, T. C. Slingluff; secretary, Clarence W. Duvall; G. K. Ira Englar; cures, Mrs. James Schweigert, Emma, Mrs. Maurice Bankard; flora, Mrs. John Stevenson, and lady assistant, Miss Blanche Fritz.

Following the election a pleasant social hour, interspersed with music by an orchestra, vocal music and various entertainments was spent. Last, but not least, was the bountiful supply of delicious refreshments which a generous hostess, assisted by Miss Reche, had provided.

A Friday evening, 8rd, 1 p. m., the newly elected officers will be installed in the Grange hall, at Medford, and every member is expected to be present.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MR. OGG. Mr. Harry Ogg's birthday coming due on January 21, many friends tendered him a party on the occasion. The guests arrived at 8 p. m. and entertained themselves with fitting games for the occasion. Refreshments were served. At a late hour all departed for their homes after wishing Mr. Ogg many more pleasant birthdays. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames John W. Weaver, Henry Hosfeld, David Shaffer, Jacob Neudecker, Daniel Sharrer, John Stephen, Steward Leister, Clarence Wagner, Charles Green, George Freyman, Bill Sharrer, Mrs. John Shaffer, Mrs. Kate Lockard, Misses Christie Wike, Bertha Sharrer, Esther Hunter, Russell Leister, Gilbert Weaver, Alice Peeling, Grace Ogg, Blanche Ogg, Eva Wike, Edna Wike, May Brothers, Myrtle Ogg, Evelyn Harris, Delah Ogg, Etta Blizard, Bessie Wittle, Irene Young, Evelyn Brown, Bessie Sharrer, Messrs. ## HOMEMAKERS' MET AT ELDERSBURG.

BURG.

A large crowd of interested women met at Eldersburg Hall, Wednesday, the January meeting of the Woman's Homemaker's Club. There were about 35 present. New officers were elected for the coming year. Mrs. Phipps, president; Mrs. Berton Wilson, vice-president; Mrs. E. W. Ruby, secretary.

The demonstration for the afternoon was the canning of meats in the steam pressure cooker and the use of the sealer in canning with the newest type of jar. A great deal of meat is now being canned in the county and the women find it easy to do and a great saving of expense. Meat can now be bought in the country at ten and eleven cents per pound if it is bought by the half. It is only an afternoon work to can all of this and will be much appreciated in giving a varied diet for the rest of the year.

A demonstration was also given at Pleasant Valley Homemaker's Club on Thursday.
