EDWARD WEST WEDS AT CAMDEN

Former Harrisburger Marries
Miss Juliet Reeves Bowen
at Camden, N. J.

Miss Pearl W. Bowen of Camden, N. J., and her announcements of her engagement to Mr. Edward M. West, a disappointed suitor of Miss Bowen, were the subject of much comment in the city yesterday for the news that the marriage of Miss Dorothy Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Bowen, to the young man she has been courting for some time, was to take place in the town of Camden today.

The wedding is to take place at the home of the groom's parents, with the Rev. J. T. McVey, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, presiding.

The couple will then return to this city, where they will reside.

A LUCKY PURCHASE OF LAVALLIERES

We have just had the good fortune to secure a special lot of Lavallieres from a New York manufacturer who was recently here.

To turn his goods into money he made us an offer for spot cash that enables us to retail these magnificent goods for less than it cost him to make them.

Beautiful Solid Gold Lavallieres

Over one hundred different artistic designs. Mounted with Diamonds, Pearls and Precious Stones—offering unlimited scope in making selections.

$3 to $50 Each

You are as free to overlook this extraordinary opportunity. It will pay you handsomely to buy now for Christmas or for any other occasion. It is doubly full if we shall be able to make such an offer again in this line of goods at the same figure, that we were able to get this lot.

See them in the windows.

OR better still, come in and let us show them to you.
