MARKETS

New York, Nov. 13.—Stocks were strong at the opening of today's session, indicating that liquidation had run its course, for a time at least. It was generally recognized, however, that the market's future was wholly dependent upon money rates.

General Motors, the central feature of the recent depression, made an initial gain of fifteen points and Texas Company and Mexican Petroleum, other conspicuous features of the recent decline, rose six and nine points respectively.

In other divisions of the stock list, rallies of one to four points were made. Trading was on a moderate scale, with signs of substantial support, especially in the high grade shares.

During the mid-session new low prices for the current movement were made by industrials and specialties. General Motors fell back to yesterday's closing prices and Crucible and Republic Steels declined. Freight stocks with other steels and equipments.

American Tobacco was the weakest of the high price specialties, losing nine points after its five-point rally of the morning and showing a loss of sixty points thus far this week.

In view of the higher rates for call money, traders were mystified by the statement that money was in fairly supply and light demand.

America Are Particularly High

Washington, Nov. 13.—That the whole world is struggling with the increased cost of living, is indicated in reports to the State Department.

The increases in Europe are particularly high although in Latin America over the situation and are trying to find means of combating the difficulties presented by the high prices of commodities deemed essential.

In Portugal the government, in attempting to lower the cost of living, has placed through the Minister of Finance, a part of its gold reserves in the banks of Lisbon.

In England, the cost of living above prewar level is figured at 117 per cent. for September and 120 per cent. for October, as to actual necessities of life and based upon average living conditions of wage earners. A more distinct rise has occurred in the cost of commodities so far as the other elements of population in England are concerned.

PLAN TO DEVELOP

BRAZIL'S WEALTH

State Official Would Take

Steps to Increase Iron and Steel Industry

Rio De Janeiro, Nov. 13.—A plan for developing Brazil's argillaceous, pastoral and mineral resources has been proposed to the Chamber of Deputies by Dr. Cincinnati Braga, deputy from the state of Sao Paulo.

Pointing out Brazil's needs for iron and steel industry, he said, that the state of Minas Gerais alone contains more than 2,500,000 tons of mineral which contains from 60 to 70 per cent. pure ore.

The deputy proposes that Brazil at once take steps to develop its own iron and steel industry, thereby affecting an economy of at least 30 per cent. and in addition greatly augmenting the resources of the country. To establish this industry, it is estimated, it will be necessary for the federal government to expend the equivalent of $4,750,000 in a period of seven years, at the rate of $6,250,000 annually.

The plants, it is proposed, are to be operated by electricity generated by water-power, and the initial appropriation suggested in the present Brazilian budget is intended for use in surveys and initial installation of hydro-electric plants.
