The Harrisburg Spanish Club held its regular monthly meeting last night at the Lorraine tea room.

An object-naming contest was conducted by Mrs. Speas. The men present from the many Spanish-speaking countries were asked to name them in English and the Americans in Spanish, causing much merriment to both groups.

Following this the guests took their places at the eight tables presided over (in Spanish) by the hostesses serving the following courses: Mrs. Karl Schaeffle, carne: Miss Emma P. Youngman, variedad; Miss Cordelia Brenneman, la sopa: Miss Marie Elder, frutas; Miss Margaret Titzell, dulces y nueces; Miss Margaret Titzell, dulces y nueces; Miss Margaret Titzell, dulces y nueces; Miss Katherine Drawbaugh, ensalada. The guests, numbering about forty, progressed from one table to another on signal. Harry R. Leonard, toastmaster, did his part in a masterly way, introducing the following speakers: Dr. Karl Schaeffle, El Espanol; Miss Mabel Nissley, Chile; Miss Irene McCaully, Panama, where she recently spent a year; Prof. Pomar, Peru, his native country; Miss Myttle Reppert, El Banquete; Miss Ruth Arnold, Las Filipinas; Paul Bowman and Earl Unger were also introduced to the club.

The meeting was one of the most instructive ever held and the guests departed more in love with Spanish, "the language of the gods," than ever.
