will never be neglected, as it will soon have an endowment or reserve fund of $50,000.00, which will be permanent, the interest only to be expended to beautify ELMWOOD in future generations. We do not merely sell the ground, for every lot we sell includes the care for same. Many families who bought lots under the old-time plan pay $1.00 monthly, $12 annually, or $120.00 for care in ten years' time, some even more; add this to the purchase price, then see the Real Cost. ELMWOOD sells single row graves as low as $5.00, and if you love your family, why not have the BEST? Lots sold on monthly payments without interest. Alabama Editors Late in Reaching Gadsden

VANDIVER MAKES ADDRESS

Boost Is Given the Montgomery State Fair, Which Proposes to Set Aside One Day as "Editors' Day."

Gadsden, July 25 .- (Special.)-The thirtyfifth annual meeting of the Alabama 3 o'clock this afternoon at Hotel Bellview with President Greer of the Marion Standard in the chair. The opening session was greatly delayed on account of the slow arrival of a number of delegates including several members of the executive committee. In the absence of Mayor Smith Alto V. Lee, Jr., delivered the address of welcome making many happy hits. At the conclusion he was loudly applauded. The Rev. J. R. Mc-Mullen who was on the programme for the address of welcome on behalf of the local newspapers, was also unavoidably absent and his address was read by Dr. J. W. Newman. Max Hamburger of Mothe address of welcome was not present but a telegram of regret was read from Bryan Enthusiastically Invited.

W. F. Vandiver of Montgomery ad-dressed the association in behalf of the gomery and asked the co-operation of the association. He announced that the fair association wished to have one day t aside as "Editors' Day," the day to determined upon later, Maj. W. W. Screws of the Montgomery Advertiser offered a resolution that William J. Bryan be invited to address the editors on this day and the resolution was adopted with an outburst of great ap-plause. A committee of three consisting of Messrs. Neil, Screws and Hildreth was appointed to escort Gov. William D. Jelks and Chief Justice Weakley to the hall. The two distinguished visitors were heartily applauded upon their entrance. The roll of members was called and a number of new members were recomnended by the executive committee and elected. Several names were dropped from the roll of membership.

The next business in order was the collection of the annual dues. A commitby the chair. The report of Jacob Pep-perman on the National Editorial assolation was read and adopted.

Mr. Parker of the Bessemer Workman responded to the addresses of welcome on behalf of the visitors and paid the city and its people many compliments for their courtesy and hospitality. His remarks were in a happy vein and were heartily applauded at the conclusion of

Annual Oration By Brooks,

The annual oration of H. Y. Brooks o he Luverne Critic abounded in wit and he most interesting features of the afternoon session.

"What is News and How to Get It," by Bruce Kennedy of the Montgomery Advertiser was full of excellent suggestions the editors of the weekly press. He for the weekly and that the weekly editors should study its methods and profit by them. His remarks were given the closest attention and he was highly complimented and liberally applauded.
The business session then adjourned until 8 o'clock in the morning. The at-tendance is not so large as on former occasion, but the meeting is proving a most casion, but the meeting is proving a most happy one to all.

A number of distinguished state candidates are present and have added much to the pleasure of the meeting.

A grand ball and banquet is being tendered the editors at the Hotel Bellevue tonight. Governor Jelks led the grand march. The affair is one of the most brilliant ever witnessed in this part of the state.

The hotel and grounds are beautifully illuminated and can be seen for several Russia: Bourse More Confident.

St. Petersburg, July 25 .- The indecision of the proletarait organizations in regard to the proposed general strike and the superficial success of the government's superficial success of the government's coup de-etat proved a more confident feeling on the bourse today. All Issues rose with government securities improving 1 to 3 points, imperial 4s closing at 69½ and 5s at 83. The improvement was alded by the government, whose bankers were active in pushing up prices. ive in pushing up prices.

Ordered to Give Up Arms.

Paris, July 25 .- The correspondent at Odessa of the Matin reports that the governor has ordered the population to give up their arms. The correspondent adds that panic reigns in the city owing to the threats of the Cossacks to recommence massacres and that train loads of people are leaving. Twenty-five battalions are patrolling the streets. There have been 600 arrests.

Forest Fires In Michigan.

Marquette, Mich., July 25.—Serious forest fires are raging northwest of here. The town of Birch fifteen miles distant, the scene of the extensive operations of the Northern Lumber company, is in grave danger, and Mayor Culver of Marquette has just tele-phoned for help. A special train will be rushed to Birch with the Marquette fire department and volunteers.

Explosion In Saddlery Plant.

Newark, N. J., July 25 .- An explosion, presumably of a naphtha tank, wrecked the saddlery and leather plant of M. Caffrey & Sons here today. Matthew Caffrey, the head of the firm, and his three sons were badly burned. James, the youngest, died later in the hospital.

ON THE RACE TRACK.

At Brighton Beach.

New York, July 25 .- The surprise of the racing at Brighton Beach today was the victory in the first race of the 100 to 1 shot, Nigger Mike, a 2-year-old colt by Shapfel-Gertrude, owned by J. J. Kenny. This colt has started a number of times this year and has on nearly all occasions been quoted at 100 to 1. Today he was at one time 150 to 1. Crimmins had the nount. Sandy Creeker and Nigger Mike ran head and head to the stretch where he latter drew away. He had finally to be ridden out to win by a head from Lad of Langdon. When Orly II, the favorite, fell at the head of the stretch in the third ace Jockey Troxler, his rider, received injuries which may prove fatal. He was removed to the Emergency hospital at Coney Island.

At Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., July 25.-Splendid racing, which resulted in the defeat of two strongly backed favorites, marked the econd day at Windsor. The big upset was in the 2:06 pace, in which Eudora, the winner, sold for $7 in the pools of $162, Hal Chaffin bringing $100.

In the opening heat Hal Chaffin showed wonderful speed and took the lead at the half, but a bad break ended his chance and Allerson beat Boliver a noise in a great finish. Next time Hal Chaffin again broke and Eudora, assuming the lead at the three-quarters, won from there with-out much of a struggle. After being a comfortable first at the half in the third and deciding heat Hal Chaffin broke and Eudora won a whipping finish from Boli ver by a head.

the favorite in the 2:17 pace, managed to stagger home in front in four heats, but was at his limit. Bonanza was the betting choice of the 2:24 pacers, but made a sorry showing and was finally drawn, Ivan B. winning.
