

SEATTLE LARGE CHARGES FRONT, FINES REMITTED

Judge Humphries Astonishes Socialists Before Him by Lenient Attitude

Seattle, Wash., October 3.—Superior Judge John E. Humphries, who began the day in brilliant mood with his docket full of contempt of court cases against socialists, adjourned court late today after dispensing pardons and remissions to all comers. His change of attitude came after a consultation with a representative of eight other superior judges.

Until the middle of the afternoon Judge Humphries continued to hear the cases of the 55 signers of the "defiance" making frequent addresses to the crowd. In the morning the penalties imposed were severe, in the afternoon mild. The court frequently warned the defendants not to be "sassy." Those who were "sassy" were fined $10.

After the defendant persons had been disposed of the case of Dr. Titus, on the charge of violation of an anti-street speaking injunction, was called. The judge delivered a long address and then discharged Dr. Titus to the latter's intense astonishment.

When Millard Price came forward the judge greeted him with a smile, saying: "Another friend of mine." Price answered a few questions and was discharged.

Grows Sarcastic
Kate Suddler, a street speaker, was brought from the county jail, where she had been confined for interrupting the court proceedings yesterday. Questioned by Judge Humphries, she declared she had not assailed him in her speeches but, on the other hand, had realized him as an object lesson of the need of the recall of judges. To her amazement the court said he would reduce her fine of $100 to $10.

"Don't get sassy," said the judge, adding, "the fine is remitted anyhow."

"What became of the woman with the two babies?" the court asked next. He was told that Mrs. Millard would be released from jail tonight. The judge then inquired about Mrs. Spencer, a woman with four children, and remitted the fine against her. The prosecutor objected, saying: "She was very defiant, your honor."

At the close of court tonight the principals of the socialist contempt cases were free and more than a score of persons were in jail in default of paying fines varying from $50 to $500 for talking back to the court. Three of the latter were sentenced to six months each in prison.

Five Women in Jail
Five women are in jail tonight for non-payment of $100 fines. They are Mrs. L. Fred, a stylishly dressed young woman who resented a remark by the prosecutor about her good clothing and pleasing appearance; Mrs. Katherine Stritar, who likened the court to Pontius Pilate; Mrs. Millard Price, who said she was from Missouri; Mrs. Annie Anderson and Mrs. Mary Jarvis.

The other eight judges would not give out details of their meeting except that it had been agreed that Judge Humphries' branch of the superior court was co-ordinate with their own and they could not take any action to restrain it. It was agreed that Judge Everett Smith's granting of writs of habeas corpus was lawful but not ethical and that no more such writs should be issued.

The opinion of the judges was that relief must come from the supreme court, which already has issued two restraining orders against Judge Humphries and will pass upon appeals from sentences imposed yesterday and today.

After court adjourned Judge Humphries said he had not decided what to do with the hundreds of signers of the "resolutions of defiance" whom he had not yet cited.

LONG YOUNG SURRENDERS AND IS PLACED IN JAIL

Lon Young, who shot and killed Chief of Police E. W. Morgan of Sandusky on last Saturday night, gave himself up to Sheriff McAdory last night at the county jail, and was locked up with a charge of murder entered on the jail docket. At about 11:45 o'clock last night a buggy containing three men drove up to the county jail and stopped before the warden's office. Deputy Gilbert opened the door and asked the business of the men. "We have a man we want to leave with you," was the reply, and on dismounting from the buggy one of them was seen to be a cripple. As they walked into the office Deputy Gilbert recognized Lon Young and his father, Newt Young, who stated Lon had decided to give himself up. The third man did not give his name.

DEAN COMPLAINS TO ATTORNEY GENERAL

Claims Sherman Anti-Trust Law Is Being Violated in Alabama

Contending that a conspiracy was entered into by certain individuals in restraint of trade and that the Sherman act is being violated by the restriction placed on the sale of school books throughout the state of Alabama, Louis R. Dean of Birmingham has filed complaint with the department of justice at Washington and asks that the federal government make an immediate investigation of the alleged trust.

A number of petitions from business men and private citizens throughout the state urging that Attorney General James McReynolds intercede and commence legal proceedings against the alleged monopoly accompanied the complaint, which brought the following reply:

"Louis R. Dean, Esq., Birmingham, Ala.:
"Sir—I have your letter of the 18th inst., transmitting a number of petitions from citizens throughout the state of Alabama, urging an investigation of the alleged school book trust. The matter will receive attention. Respectfully,
"C. CARROLL TODD,
"Assistant to the Attorney General."

The letter of complaint filed by Mr. Dean alleges that a conspiracy, agreement or contract was entered into between certain officials of the state and certain publishers of school books by which the merchants of the state, with one exception, were boycotted. He states that a few merchants throughout the state are allowed to handle the books as agents, but that they were in many instances remote and far apart and that unless the patrons of the schools purchased the school books from these particular merchants the children are ejected from the schools, thereby causing much embarrassment to the parents and to the children.

He cited the fact that Alabama has adopted a uniform set of textbooks, which, he states, is beneficial, and that it is the result of a conspiracy entered into in restraint of trade. He said that by reason of this alleged trust many of the schools of the state will not be attended this fall and appeals to the department of justice for immediate interference.

FLOOD CONDITIONS MUCH IMPROVED

Southwest Rapidly Recovering From Effect of Rising Rivers

Dallas, Tex., October 3.—After a day of sunshine, conditions are materially improved tonight in sections of southern Texas and southwest Louisiana inundated when a number of small streams overflowed their banks as the result of recent heavy rains. With the exception of the San Antonio river in southwest Texas, all of the streams are falling and as the water recedes normal conditions are fast being restored.

The rise in the San Antonio river is slight and the only additional damage reported was from the town of Floresville, where several streets were inundated.

ROOSEVELT BIDS FRIENDS GOOD-BY AT FAREWELL FEAST

Colonel Declares Progressives Have Only Begun to Fight—Is Given a Great Ovation

New York, October 3.—Theodore Roosevelt bade his friends farewell tonight, the eve of his departure on a journey to unexplored regions of South America, at a dinner given in his honor by the progressive national service and the progressive service of the state of New York. Addressing some 2000 men and women who gathered in his honor at the New York roof garden, the colonel apparently sought to put a quietus on published reports that he intends to return to the republican party.

"I warn our opponents that the fight has only just begun," he said, "his voice breaking in his earnestness. 'I will never abandon the principles to which we progressives have pledged ourselves.'"

The wildest enthusiasm greeted his assertion. Waving bandanna handkerchiefs and making the sign of the cross, they feet and cheered for a half minute. Only once during the evening did Mr. Roosevelt receive a greater ovation. Toward the close of the address of Gifford Pinchot, the townmaster, there were cries of "we want Teddy." Raymond Robins of Chicago, head of the progressive national service, leaned across the guest table.

"Yes, we want him—we want him as President," he shouted. Then the crowd let loose, rising from their seat to applaud. Mrs. Roosevelt was a witness of the tribute.

Progressive leaders, men and women, including former United States Senator Beveridge, Senators Bristow and Miles Pinchot, Gifford Pinchot, Miss Frances A. Keller, Mrs. Charles S. Bird and John Furroy Mitchell, were seated at the guest table.
