This Bank Extends

A cordial invitation to all without a banking connection to talk with its officers today.

For promptness, courtesy, location, safety and accommodation to depositors no bank can offer better serv-

We'll welcome your ac-

The First National Bank Capital and Surplus $3,000,000 per cent interest on savings, Compounded Quarterly

LIVELY POLITICS IS IN PROSPECT FOR JEFFERSON COUNTY

W. M. Drennen's Candidacy for State Senate Causes Considerable Comment

FACTIONAL-FIGHT SEEMS IMMINENT

Line Will Be Drawn Between Prohibitionists and Antis-Candidates for Sheriff Are All Strong and Making Aggressive Races

By HUGH W. ROBERTS There is destined to be lively politics in Jefferson county.

There are 10 races-eight in which there are opposing candidates. Each promises to be entertaining within it-When the entire number is bunched, it is evident that there will be excitement enough to appease the most inordinate appetite. Discussion throughout yesterday concerned the candidacy of W. M. Drennen for the state senate. It is considered probable that Mr. Drennen has ambition to be elected president pro tem of the senate. He would be then within reasonable striking distance of the goving the candidacy of R. P. Hobson. Thomas J. Judge, when seen yesterday, stated that he was surprised when he read in The Age-Herald that Mr. Drennen had announced.

"However," he added, "I am glad that he is in the race. It will make my election doubly sure."

Mr. Judge is a local optionist.

Factional Fight Imminent

In the race for the lower house of the legislature, in which there are 32 patriotic candidates, the prohibition line will be drawn. It is generally understood that the word has been sent down by the prohibitionist leaders that prohibitionists must vote for certain individuals. It is understood, furthermore, that anti-prohibition leaders have sent the word down that anti-prohibitionists ust vote for certain individuals. There is no question but that two slates-tangible or intangible-will be made. This means that 18 candidates will be left "high and dry." These 18, if they continue in the race, will raise the cry of "gag rule," and "ring poli-tics," and thus additional spice will be dashed into the political pudding. Inasmuch as neither the prohibiti nor the anti-prohibitionists have displayed for a candidate for governor, both fac-tions have entered into a determined struggle to acquire control of the legisla-ture. The main fight will be in regard personnel of the Senate. And thus it will happen, probably, that instead constructive statesmen, there will athered in Montgomery for another four ing vengeance against each other bama, as a result, may reap a luxurious barvest of peculiarly worthless tares. Four Strong Candidates

In the race for sheriff, there are four candidates. Of the four, neither is a "lame duck." Each has a chance, because he has already developed considerable strength. Thomas J. Batson of Bessemer will come up from that section of county with a strong vote, and he will be warmly supported in Birmingham. George Bodeker is also unusually strong. There are a great many people in Bir-mingham and Jefferson county who beieve that Bodeker was "railroaded" out of the city hall, not on evidence, but be-cause certain prohibition politicians "went Lathem, and a great many people are ex-ceedingly fond of him. Gus Lee is a left in the track so that comparison can be made at the next year's inspecng candidate. He is making an active, aggressive campaign. His personal tion.

Three Other Struggles

Owen Gillespy has strong opposition in is race for another term as auditor. He thur has a fine nucleus in his North Bir-

CITY IN GALA ATTIRE

Bands Will Begin to Play in Business District at 9 O'Clock

MISS FASHION NO. 1 WILL BE ON STREETS

Will Have $10 for First Who Discovers Her-Unique Decorations Give Effect of Spring-New Fashions Will Be Shown

This morning will begin a week's howing of the newest and prettiest entire city is on dress parade in anticipation of an influx of visitors such s is only seen here during the yearly tate Fair The window trimmers of never before in this city has there been een so many different types of beautifully dressed windows, all claiming the attention of passers and each seeming to be prettier than the one preced-

The Business Men's league, under whose auspices Fashion Week is being held, has been very busy and no expense has been spared to make the streets as pretty as possible. The effect produced is thought to be worth all the money that has been put into Sam Friedman, window trimmer of J. Blach & Sons, designed the street decorations and they are perhaps the most unique that have ever been tried out in the south.

All the white way pests of the downtown section have been garlanded with festoons of smilax and wires run from post to post, upon which is suspended a basket filled with Spanish moss and other evergreen. At each street intersection is placed two plaster figures facing each other.

Miss Fashion, too, will be on streets, in the shops and where the public can view her from many angles. There are six of these young ladies. The first will start on a tour of the shopping district and the first person addressing her, "You are Miss Fashion, will receive from her an envelope en titling the holder to a check for $16 from the Business Men's league. To each subsequent detector she will give an envelope conveying the information, "You are mistaken."

Miss Fashion today is the possesson of beautiful blue eyes; she is slender and just tall enough to be graceful reasonable striking distance of the governor's chair—four years hence. In the foregoing many found reason for his candidacy. Otherwise, his reason for running—save that he is anxious to serve the people—is obscure. Mr. Drennen is a prohibition ist. He voted for the late proposed prohibition amendment to the constitution. But he is no stronger in the prohibition faith than B. A. Thompson, one of his opponents. And Mr. Thompson also voted for the amendment, And Mr. Thompson has another edge on the Anti-Saloon league vote in virture of the fact that he is supporting the candidacy of R. P. Hobson.

The most gracious possible ther most gracious possible to method to method to method the constitution of the downtown allowed the save and she is ready to method to method the republicans of Walker county in the republicans of Walker county in the democratic primary does the republicans a great injustice.

The Birmingham Hebrew Court of Arbitration, the third of its kind in America, was organized in this clip yesterday. The other two branches are the republicans of Walker county in the constitution. But he is no stronger in the prohibition faith than B. A. Thompson also voted for the amendment to that will be of benefit to Birmingham. The Miss Fashion of today is not a pirate she said so herself. What she wants is the votes of the people in making Fashio Week in Birmingham the brew Court of Arbitration, the third of its kind in newspapers that a large majority of newspapers that a large majority of newspapers that a large majority of proposed of Walker county in the republicans of Walker county in the democratic primary does the republicans a great injustice.

The Miss Fashion of today is not a primary she said so herself. What she wants is the votes of the people in making Fashio Week in Birmingham thebrew Court of Arbitration, the third of its kind in the left of his friends. The gover day. The other two branches are on the tower and avoid the subsequent of the first of the few order of the fact that he is supporting t her complexion is somewhat florid; her

There will be a new Miss Fashion Fashion No. 2 Tuesday and so will it continue until all are discovered. On rext Saturday afternoon the Business Bands vill begin playing in the business section this morning about 9 o'clock. It is believed by that time that the streets will be filled with visitors and long before 12 o'clock it is thought there will be a crush in the shopping district like that of Christ-

Many of the shops have engaged living models, importing them from east-ern cities and there will be an ex-position of fashion such as will delight not only the feminine element of Bir-mingham but to the men as well.

mingham but to the men as well.

"I nave seldom witnessed such wonderful co-operation," said R. A. Brown, president of the Business Men's league, yesterday, "as that being shown in this Fashion Week. It indicated to my mind that the mercantile interest of Birmingham are together for the good of the whole city. The enthusiasm that has been manifested through all the preliminaries, I am sure, will continue preliminaries, I am sure, will continue to the end of the week and will mean big things for the city."

INSPECTION TO BE MADE BY SOUTHERN

Every Rail to Be Inspected Regularly by Track Supervisors to Prevent Rail Failures

Every rail on the Southern railway extending over 7000 miles is to be inspected regularly in order to correct any possible breaks or defects, according to an announcement made yesterday from the executive offices. The plan which has been evolved is explained in this announcement: "The system of inspection which has been adopted is believed the most rigid and effective possible. The work is head is a candidate for Congress. The work is head is a candidate for Congress. The work is head is a candidate for Congress. The methew of L. B. Musgrove and of "The system of inspection which has under the direction of the district engineers and division roadmasters and after" his official head. Mr. Bodeker is is done by the track supervisors and making an aggressive campaign. Will section foremen who closely scrutinize T. Lathem, who has served the people each and every rail while on their behind the cashier's window of two hands and knees and with eyes close many friends, has been gaining strength every day. He is the exception to the rule that the man without enemies is the man without friends. No one disinces found the rail is immediately removed. enough to the rail to detect the slight stead.

In the near future the race will be less clouded than at the present time. Now, no one can with any degree of accuracy. feature of railway operation to which the officials of leading American rail-ways have been giving the closest study during the past few years."

A VICTIM OF THE DOG TAX

FOR THE FIRST DAY City Commissioner James Weatherly Helps An Old Negro Mammy Out of a Trying Difficulty

By CHARLES H. MANDY

It has been frequently said that the of the "mammy" type came to the city dog is man's most faithful friend, and that hall. She was plainly perturbed and laonce his attachment is formed for his master or mistress it never changes. Too we witness a change in the atoften do we witness a change in the at-titude of supposed friends toward a man who has fallen from the heights and lights the old mammy was referred to him. She of prosperity to the depths and darkness approached the private office of the gen-of adversity. These human friends deof adversity. These human friends desert him at the very time he needs them r he remarked: nost. Can this be said of a man's dog? No matter what the changed conditions may be, the dog remains faithful and shows the same affection for his master n rags, so to speak, as he did while clothed in costly raiment. It matters not o him whether his master be prince or pauper, his attachment remains the same. It should not be forgotten, however hat many times the attachment is reurned, and many a man who would not fight for himself has been known to light for his dog, even to the extent of shedding human blood, as the records of the courts will show. That many of the citizens of Birmingham are fond of their dogs was evidenced by the rush to secure licenses and the accompanying tags which followed the recent edict of the city fathers to the effect that all dogs must be tagged by a certain date. The penalty for a failure to contribute $1 to the city treas ury is that all untagged canines will be taken up by the dog catcher-beg pardon, we mean dog superintendent, as that individual is officially known-and con-

As a result of the edict and the further fact that the penalty would undoubtedly be carried out, many people of all creeds and colors assembled at the city hall and in return for the simoleon deposited with Mr. Boggan received the little tin disc that secured immunity for "Queenie" or "Spot" or "Rover," for the time being. A large per cent were negroes, many of them insufficiently clad, yet they willingly gave up their last kopeck in order to retain possession of the "yaller dawg" that every negro is supposed to own.

boring under much excitement. To 'n of the attaches of the city hall she stated that she wanted to see some one about the givings, when to make things easier for

Mistah Weatherboard, ' she

"Not exactly," replied 'Sunny Jim,' with smile; "my name is Weatherly. Just irop the board and add a little 'ly' and ou have it.

"Ah ain't gwine ter add a little lie, ner a big one nuther," replied the old aunty, with some show of indignation; "I'se gwine ter tell de truf, fer de truf don' hart ddy. Hain't you' de board. "Hardly, though some people seem to think I am from the demands that are made upon me from time to time. I have the honor to be a member of the ard of commissioners, if that's what "Does yo' know anythin' 'bout dis yere

I know that if it is not paid your dog will be taken up and destroyed."
"Dat's de pint; dats what Ah wants ter know. Yo' see, hits disaway: Ah done paid er dollar for ma dawg and is got one of dem taggs, which is on ma dawg at dis minit. But lo an' behol' dat dawg done had eight pupples dis very mawin' for de Lawd, Mistah Weather-er-not. Is known, there was a probability that

Mr. Weatherly laughed long and loud verted into that useful commodity used at this recital, much to the uneasiness of the old negro, who related: "Ah sho' isn't got no eight dollahs-ter pay fur dem dawgs," to which she added: "Arter all, Ah is done fur dat dawg, hit done went."

Blake made efforts to learn the intention of Mr. Underwood, And he learned that Mr. Underwood practically announced even before there was hope that Henry D. Clayton would retire.

an is done fur dat dawg, hit done went an' had eight purps."

"There is a way out of your difficulties," said the commissioner, "and one that won't cost you anything. Drown the pupples." "Doesn't Ah have ter keep em, bein' as how ma dawg is licensed." "Certainly not."

The old mammy's ebony face visibly brightened, and in that brightening the fate of the pupples was sealed.

LONG CLAIMS THAT AN ORGANIZATION IS REPUBLICANS WILL FORMED BY HEBREWS NOT VOTE IN WALKER TO AVOID LITIGATION

Was Done Injustice—Arguments Set Forth in Age-Herald Upheld by Facts to the crown of her beautiful brown cast a majority of its votes for R. ganization in the city was present. P. Hobson as against the leader of the democrats, Oscar W. Underwood

Mr. Long seems to think that the Men's league will give a luncheon to the Miss Fashions at a place yet to be a candidate for Congress, an injustice. While this is laughable, it might be stated in reply that no intentional injustice was done. In the article in

As regards the tenor of the article as a whole that tenor was correct. But for the local fights in Walker county-which fights have overshadowed the senatorial contest-Hobson would have no more chance to poll ; majority of the votes of Walker county than the late and lamented amendment had a chance to win there. There is a truce all down the line. But for the truce, Underwood's friends in Wal ker, all of them, would be as active in his behalf as his friends are elsewhere. There is no need to call names. The facts are too well known for com-

Mr. Long's argument in regard to cipal difference between the justice of this board of arbitration and the regker county Underwood would win by a handsome majority. If no man who a handsome majority. If no man who has ever bolted the democratic ticket in the majority of the hand is a great line of the handson, Underwood would win overwhelmingly in Walker. As a matter of truce between L. B. Musgrove and my-head is a candidate for Congress. Incomphew of L. B. Musgrove and of Thomas L. Long, men who differ sharply on the senatorial campaign, is a candidate for sheriff. There seems to be all down the line a truce.

"This statement grossly misstates the situation. In the first place the bars ommittee. As a member of the state ommittee I voted to raise the bars, and am in full accord with the enforcement of the qualifications fixed by the state committee. "There is little disposition among the true republicans of Walker county to vote in the democratic primary. The leaders and the rank and file of the leaders and the rank and file of the straight republicans in this county could not be induced to participate in a democratic primary. The newspaper talk that a large majority of the republicans of this county are going to vote does them, in my judgment, an injustice and is also an improper reflection on the democrats of this county his race for another term as auditor. He has so many opponents, however, that under the plurality plan, which will obtain, he stands an excellent chance. Will R. Rockett is known throughout the countend that he will win. W. D. Gunn, James C. Williams, W. L. Trice and D. L. Blake are other candidates in this race.

A pretty fight is being waged for the office of solicitor. Harrington P. Heflin is confident of winning. His opponents are also confident. Z. T. Rudulph has developed considerable strength. F. D. McAram a strong supporter of

Thinks W. B. Bankhead Birmigham Hebrew Court of Arbitration Proposes to Settle Differences Without Resourt to the Courts

It was announced yesterday after the meeting that the organization is headon the streets each day of this week. It has been considered to the democrats, Oscar w. Under wood of the streets each day of this week. The argument was to the effect that has been considered to the tree to the considered to the constant of the constant composed of five judges, three of whom will be regular judges and two super-numerary, to take the place of any one judge any lawyer as the arbitration will be based not so much upon legal technicalities as upon the matter of merit and justice without the beclouding effects of strict legal interpreta-tions. The announcement was made that the work of the board would, for the purpose of arbitration with the old Hebrew and Mosaic laws as the guiding tenants of arriving at decisions.

One of the rules of the court will be subscribe to the holdings of the court and that both shall be in honor bound to abide by any decision that is made by that court. This measure of admin the courts of this county of much liti gation. In the handling of differences it is stated that no criminal cases of any kind will be taken up.

The application of the old laws which are not recognized in the administration of local justice will be the prin-whelmingly in Walker. As a matter of fact, if reports are true—and Mr. Long can verify these reports—the democrats have had a difficult time in the very recent past in electing a probate judge in Walker county.

The Long Statement
Inasmuch, however, as Mr. Long wants his statement published, it goes:

"I notice in The Age-Herald of Tuesday, March 10, the following statement:

"I notice in The Age-Herald of Tuesday, March 10, the following statement:

"I notice in The Age-Herald of Tuesday, March 10, the following statement:

"I notice in The Age-Herald of Tuesday, March 10, the following statement in the could not win with democrats that he ought not to win. I have not taken as much interest in Buck Long's race as I have in Mr. Underwood's and all the Vinderwood's and the vinderwood and Hobson race. While I am for Buck Long for whites and negroes in the District of Columbia. As a consequence he began to get anonymous letters threatening his friends advised him to go prepared to protect himself. A few nights laterwood's and the vinderwood's and the vinderwood's and the vinderwood's and the vinderwood and Hobson race. While I am for Buck Long for whites and negroes in the District of Columbia. As a consequence he began to get anonymous letters threatening his friends advised him to go prepared to protect himself. A few nights laterwood and Hobson race. While I am for Buck Long for whites and negroes in the District of Columbia. As a consequence he beg all my friends here understand that from his pistol accidentally wounded a fact. My anxiety for Underwood's success would not permit me to enter into developed lockjaw from this wound, and any truce that would lose him a single

"The Age-Herald in the past has been very kind to me, and I know that no intention to do me any injury inspired the article about which I complain, but the facts remain that the statement are unjust and I want the factore the public. T. L. L. "Jasper Ala., March 14, 1914."

Rheumatism

is dangerous if neglected. Lessen the risk of heart affec-tions, ease the frightful pain, and limber up the swollen muscles and stiff, lame joints, with penetrat-ing, never-failing — fine for tumbage and sciatica.

LINIMENT

Mr. Chas. J. Budlong, Anthony, R. I., writes: "For years I suffered from rheumatism. My hips would swell to enormous proportions and knee joints pain me awfully. I used six or eight bottles of your celebrated Liniment and was cured."

BLAKE GIVES FACTS OF MR. UNDERWOOD

Refutes Charge He Was Brought Out to Defeat Captain Hobson

SOME HEFLIN-HOBSON DIFFERENCES AIRED

Underwood Had Practically Announced Before There Was Hope That Clayton Would Retire-Hobson's Telegram to Heflin lin, in a letter to the Roanoke Leader, a newsppaer, replies to an editorial in that newspaper in which the oft-repeated contention was made that Oscar W. Underwood was brought out by certain Ala-

An isn't got no eight dollahs ter pay fer Congressman Heilin would run for the Senate. Interested in his kinsman, Dr. Blake made efforts to learn the intention

D. Clayton would retire ferences which have existed between Mr. Mr. Hobson was the only Alabamian in tect a lady from offensive negroes on street car, he accidentally shot and oesperately wounded a bystander. He also minds that when Mr. Heffin in a speech e in Tuskegee took Roosevelt to task aving dined with a negro-thus givuth an object lesson of his ideas social equality-Mr. Hobson sent a elegram to Mr. Heffin suggesting that resign his seat in Congress.

Facts in the Case Dr. Blake's letter, addressed to the oanoke Leader, follows:

"There are some facts in this connec on personally known to the writer which our congressman, Hon, J. Thomas Hef-F. Johnston, I met him there. Mr. Heflin was being urged by numerous perdistance telephone, to announce for the United States Senate. He was consider-ter of ceremony. ing these appeals, and the next day 1 met him at the home of his brother, where a conference in the Hillman hotel. To this conference Mr. Heffin was not invited. The belief prevailed that Mr. Clayton would be appointed. But there were others to be considered, among them ar, Underwood. None of us knew what he would do. Mr. Heffin returned to his duties in Washington, still undecided, and on reaching there he wrote me further that to announce at that time might impair his own efficiency at a critical stage of this important measure. Mr. Clayton had been appointed only a few days before. When asked by Judge Nathan if this appointment would affect his own candidacy, Mr. Underwood replied that the governor had not consulted him on this matter, nor had he consulted any member of the state administration before the first state administration before the fine transfer and loaves, that an incication of fishes and loaves, that an entire transfer are the first state administration before the first state and loaves, that an entire transfer are the first state and loaves. The first state and loaves that an entire transfer are the sacrament of faith and hope and love.

"It is in very deed, the sacrament of faith. Aye, it is the very test of faith. Was it not so from the very beginning? On the very day when the Savior promised this distribution of fishes and loaves, that an entire transfer are transfer as the first state of faith and hope and love.

"It is in very deed, the sacrament of faith. Aye, it is the very test of faith. Was it not very day when the Savior promised this very day when the Savior promised this consulted any loaves that an entire transfer are transfer and the very beginning? On the very day when the Savior promised this very day when the Savior promised this very test of faith. Aye, it is the very test of fa more than a month later.

"I would remind you that my interest in this matter was primarily in behalf of my kinsman, Mr. Heflin. Judge Nathan,"
"Today, looking out over the world, for a long time he lay in a hospital in Washington in a desperate condition. Even his physicians could scarcely hope for his recovery. Imagine Mr. Heflin's anxiety as the newspapers would nounce morning after morning that Mc Creary could last only a little longer. In the midst of this terrible ordeal, nearly every southern congressman, and every one of the Alabama congressmen except ne came to Mr. Heflin and expressed his sympathy. The one exception was Con-gressman Hobson, from Mr. Heflin's own

When Roosevelt saw fit to dine with Ecoker Washington, your congressman, Mr. Heflin, made a speech in Tuskegee, in which he censured Roosevelt severely for prostituting his high official position n order to serve on the south an ob-ect lesson, setting forth his own partic-dar type of social equality. This so dis-

For Weakness and Loss of Appetite The Old Standard general strengthen-ing tonic, GROVE'S TASTELESS chill TONIC, drives out Maiaria and builds up the system. A true tonic and sure Appatizer. For adults and children. 60c.

NOTICE your jeweler closing his store for the night.
Burglars KNOW he is protected. They gamble high on the chance that you are not. Are

> Jewel Safes Less Than a Cent a Day

AMERICAN TRUST & SAVINGS BANK

ST. PAUL SERVICES VERY IMPRESSIVE

Forty-Hour Devotion Began Rev. Bell Preaches on "The at Close of High Mass

SERMON IN EVENING LITTLE THINGS COUNT

Father Coyle Preaches on "The Sacrament of Faith and Hope and Love"-Attendance Is Large

A 40-hours' devotion began at St. Paul's church yesterday at the close of high mass. The Rev. Father Car-He read the roll was the celebrant. notices for the week and the epistile Bell's theme was taken from the third and gospel in English as usual but chapter of Paul's letter to the Corinth owing to the length of the services lans and his text, "For all things are there was no sermon orne in procession through the aisles. It lows: was perhaps the longest procession ever seen in St. Paul's. In addition to altar boys and first communion chil wish you to know, hence this letter, senior branches of the Holy Name soclety were represented. There were in, attended the burial of Senator Joseph many banners in the procession and something lacking about you that it the scene was impressive. The serv- seemed could not be filled. ices concluded with the litany of

The host, in a golden monstrance was placed above the tabernacle on the Mr. Heflin discussed the matter with some high altar for the adoration of the church during the afternoon for ador-

Last night's services were largely attended, Father Coyle preached a serand Love." He said:

Father Coyle's Sermon "Our glorious church, the grand old intentions before answering Mr. Heffin's but, Ah, it contains one gift, surpass-last letter. I had only a few days to wait. Judge Joseph H. Nathan of Sheffield, who is a friend to Mr. Underwood, was in Washington on business, and while there Washington on business, and while there saw Mr. Underwood and urged him to make the race for the United States Senate. Mr. Underwood's reply was substantially this: That he would become a candidate; that he had not intended to run against Senator Johnston, but no reason now existed why he should not enter the race. He also said that he would not announce until later; that the tariff bill, which so vitally affected the revenues of the federal government, was then under discussion; that his party had entrusted to him its management in the House, and that to announce at that time might impair his own efficiency at a critical stage member of the state administration be-fore deciding to become a candidate him-self, and that he relied on his record for bread. His flesh to eat, His blood to promotion at the hands of his people.

"This statement was made to Judge Nathan on September 3, a little more than a week after Senator Johnston's burial. The tariff bill became a law on October 13, more than a month later.

"It was the day onward, through all the centuries since then, it became the touchstone of faith. Then many failed. This, 'said they, 'is a hard hay ing and who can believe it.' So they wasked with Him no more; they cut the state of the who is my neighbor, knew this, and on his return from Washington told me that Mr. Underwood would later announce as a candidate. In the meantime Hr. Heflin had decided not to run.

Though the same. The faithful, with "We have an inheritance that will be of service here and will finally bring us through the golden gate; we have a title that can never be disputed. There are no technicalities about it. He had decided not to run.

"Before closing this letter, I beg to call to your attention a few other things.

Helpson to Helling.

"Betore that have not on their altars the sacramental presence, the source of life, of light, of joy. Unhappy they, and thrice happy we, who know that the promise, the glor-ious astounding promise recorded in the sixth chapter of the gospel of St. John. found fulfillment, when on Holy Thurs-day eve, seated with the 12, as Cal-vary's clouds were gathering fast, He took bread and wine and changed them into His body and blood. This is My body. This is My blood, and, more, gave His apostles and their successors the power to do so forever. 'Do this for a commemoration of Me.'

" 'Ah, words of the olden Thursday, Still holding creative sway. Ye have brought us the Friday's victim And priest. In His own sweet way Neath veils His glorified body Himself He offers this day.'

Sacrament of Hope "The eucharist is also the sacrament of

ope. In it we find our strength, our con-olation when all the world is dark and drear; when, as happens to all betimes, life's burdens press heavily, when our spiritual energies are benumbed, when, weary and disheartened, the path onward and upward seems rugged and hard. Then, if we remember the words of the Savier 'I will not leave you have hars.' Savior, 'I will not leave yo uorphans.' 'Lo, I am with you all days, even to the end of time.' will we not be encouraged and strengthened? God with us pleased Mr. Hobson that he went out of his way to telegraph Mr. Heflin that he ought to resign from Congress. Where were Mr. Hobson's sympathies in this case?

"We should not forget that the one issue paramount to all others with every southern democrat is race preservation. The dining room opens into the parlor, and the parlor is on the way to the bridal chamber. Respectfully,

"WYATT H. BLAKE."

"Sheffield, March 19."

"Weakness and Loss of Appetite For Weakness and Loss of Appetites."

"The dining room opens into the parlor, and the parlor is on the way to the bridal chamber. Respectfully,

"WYATT H. BLAKE."

"So metime ago a ship was caught in a furious storm at sea. The waves rolled mountain high, the vessel rocked and recled. The passengers, pale and terrified, huddled together, expecting destruction each moment. One boy was calm and calceled and unafraid, and they asked him in wonder if he felt no fear. 'No,' he said calmly, 'my father is at the rudder.' So it is with us. Our Father is with us on our earthly voyage, and though waves rolled mountain high, the vessel rocked and recled. The passengers, pale and terrified, huddled together, expecting destruction each moment. One boy was calm and recled. The passengers, pale and terrified, huddled together, expecting destruction each moment. One boy was calm and recled. The passengers, pale and terrified. The passengers is a furious storm at sea. The waves rolled mountain high, the vessel rocked and recled. The passengers, pale and terrified. In the passengers, pale and terrified. The passengers is a furious storm at sea. The waves rolled mountain high, the vessel rocked and recled. The passengers, pale and terrified. The passengers is a furious storm at sea. The waves rolled mountain high, the vessel rocked and recled. The passengers, pale and terrified. The passengers is a furious storm at sea. The waves rolled mountain high, the vessel rocked and recled. The passengers, pale and terrified. The passengers is a furious storm at sea. The waves rolled mountain tain hope and stay.

The holy eucharist is the sacrament of love. Ah, here words fail. God, only

(Continued on Page Might)

EACH HAS SPECIAL DUTY TO PERFORM

Christian's Inheritance"

Faithfulness, He Says, Weighs Most With God-No Technicalities About Inheritance of the Christian. Title Is Clear

The Rev. Robert L. Bell, pastor of the Handley Memorial Presbyterian church, last night delivered a sermon on "The Christian's Inheritance." yours," from the twenty-first verse of After the mass the Sacred Host was that chapter. His sermon in part fol-

"Is not the text just a little stimulating? Deep down in your heart has there not been times when you wanted dren and large girls, the junior and something and you had a haunting delusion that everything would be complete if you could get it? There was

"If I were permitted to sonal appeals, by telegram and by long the saints, intoned by Father Carroll, things according to my own conception it is highly probable that I would change my material condition in life. No doubt you have thought along the You have doubtless same lines. thought that if you could sing, how of his friends. The governor was holding faithful. Scores of Catholics visited the glorious it would be; how sweet life would be if you could only hold enthralled in the power of the melody of your voice multitudes. You doubtless thought how good it would mon on "The Sacrament of Faith, Hope be if you could deliver addresses in such a manner that you could sway the passions of men; could hold an audience thrilled as you talked; could Catholic church, of which you and I hold the world spellbound with your "Realizing that Mr. Underwood would are members, contains many wondrous to a formidable candidate should be entered the race. I was anxious to know us her founder, the Eternal Son of God, words you uttered. I have thought the same thing. "I suspect that if you could look back over the range of years you would liken your life unto a graveyard,

"You have relationship with God! "You have relationship with God!
You are a child of God, and that re-lationship can never be broken. We are the sons of God and the heirs of the lord. I am a child of God, a re-lationship that means just as much as does my relationship to my own son and I will be protected and cared for by the Lord as a child.

"We have a righteousness that nothing can tarnish. What a glorious asset is this that we can become holy with a righteousness nothing can disturb!
"We have a peace that can never be "We have a peace that can hever be disturbed. Peace, the perfect quietness of a soul the perfect accord of a faculty, the poise, the completeness, the glory of peace with God. There is nothing between me and Him.

"We have an inheritance that will be on that believeth in the Son of God shall res-never die, nor shall any man ever pluck him out of our hands. It is a guarhim out of our hands. It is a guar-anteed title; it is absolutely unques-tioned. God is the giver and Jesus Christ the great lawyer in the affair. "Now, leave this church tonight with the calm conviction that you are worth something. You are God's child. Walk into the world with the conviction that you are the son of a king and com-port yourself with kingly grace."

TWO CANDIDATES OUTLINE PLATFORM

Huntsville, March 15 .- (Special.) Capt. John W. Grayson and Ed. D. Johnson, candidates for the state legis lature, have opened their campaign with a series of speeches in which they declare themselves for local option in the regulation of the liquor question and also for the repeal of the county read law and abolition of the office of Supporters of Capt. R. P. Hobson in this county are making engagement for his fourth tour of this locality the present campaign. He is billed to speak in Huntsville again on March 28.

John McKinney of Maysville has cap-tured in a steel trap one of the largest eagles ever seen in this section. The big bird measures six feet from tip to tip. He was caught in a steel trap that was set for small animals and was not njured at all, being held by only a

The rear part of the residence of Mrs. Rosalle Chapman on East Holmes street was damaged by fire last night. The fire started in the kitchen.

The regular weekly luncheon of the Birmingham Furniture Dealers' association will be held Friday at the German cafe of the empire hotel. Mrs. oel F. Leake is secretary of the a