The Desert News is clothed in mourning for the death of Eider Willard Richards, one of the Mormon saints, who leaves some twenty desolate wives to mourn his loss. At his funeral, Elder G. A. Smith made a prayer, in which occurred the follow ing petition in behalf of the bereaved:

Bless the widows of the servant Willard, who are called to part with a dear and beloved companion. Inspire them with the power of the Holy Ghost, and wisdom to bear with patience and resignation the trials they are called to contend for, and to live in such a manner as to prepare them to enjoy his society in the possession of thereps, principles joy his society in the possession of thrones, princi-paintes, and powers in the celestial world. THE STATE OF THE WAR

There is a look of effective action on a grand scale, in the latest reported movement of the Anglo-French armies in Turkey, which, out for one thing, would portend a decisive conflict on the Dan-ube, in a very short time. That one thing is the statement that negotiotions, through Austria and Prussia, are still going on. The position of these powers has from the first been that of mediators, with a friendly bias towards Russia, and the ut-most to which they have ever pledged themselves is, that the territorial integrity of Turkey shall be maintained, and the influence of Russia over that country be limited by the terms of former treaties It is rumored that Russia will consent to negotiate on this basis, and as England and France, after incurring enormous expense for their arrangements, and after their ally, Turkey, has been well nigh ruined by the ravages and cost of war, cannot admit this basis without accepting all the consequences of defeat, it is taken for granted that they will rect it, and that thus a capital pretext will be afrded the German powers to join Russia. Somehing of this kind seems to be anticipated. The New York Journal of Commerce says :

"A letter from London states that the Government of Great Britain, though reluctant to begin the war, and not seriously decided upon carrying on with the necessary energy so long as the Czur cordingly no chances of success, has determined to employ all the elements at its disposition, at the moment when Austria shall have disappointed the expectations based on her friendly assurances. The war, until now has been only a cessation of peace. The whole solicitude of the Western Allies has been, until within a short time, to secure the Austrian alhance, in order to escape thoroughly, as they hope, the real war. Nothing, however, has been left undone to act instantaneously, and with the utmost vigor, upon the failure of exertions in that direc-

It is further stated that it is in contemplation to turn Kossuth loose upon Hungary the instant Aus-iria shall cease to act with the Western Powers: and the Poles are in course of active preparation in both Turkey and France. Italy will be another point of attack against Austria; and Belgium will be made to understand, at las', what is the meanng of the new and formidable camp of St. Omers.

Thus, the first consequence of the defection of Austria, would probably be a desolating war over nearly all Europe, and the ultimate consequence, the aggrandizement of France and Russia; leaving England to pay the cost of a war which she has brought on by shuffling statesmanship, and the proindecisive action. Well, she can take her satisfaction by thrashing the Burmese, and protecting the King of the Mosquitoes .- Charleston Mercury. [From the Savannah Republican.]

LATER FROM HAVANA-ARRIVAL OF THE ISABEL.

The U. S. Mail Steamship Isabel, Capt. Rollins arrived at Tybee Saturday afternoon, bringing Havana and Key West dutes to the 22d inst., and a large number of passengers. Among the passeners was the Hon. Allen F. Owen, of Georgia, the inte U. S. Consul at Havana.

The black vomit, or yellow fever, had made its appearance in Havana, and a large number of enths was occurring daily.

The fever has also appeared at Key West, as we learn from a passenger. Among those who had been attacked by it was Capt. J. M. Scarritt, of the U. S. Engineers, who it was feared would not recover. A Capan physician who had had much experlence with the disease, and who was a passenver by the Isabel, paid Capt. Scarritt a short visit, ad prescribed for him. He thought a recovery barely possible, but not probable. The defences of Cuba are reported to be in a very flicient condition. All the fortifications have been repaired and put upon a war footing. The naval orce had been largely increased, and an addition of five or six war steamers was expected soon from spain. The military forces of the island are estinated at 20,600 men, who, with the exception of a few black companies are good soldiers. In case of an invasion, it is thought that this force could be largely increased, and in a very short time, by calling out the militia.

Adaural Duchesne, of the French Fleet, was still at Havana with several vessels of war. He had been honored by a Bull Fight, and was very much caressed by the authorities. It was univerally understood in Havana that he was there to test the Island from invasion.

The order issued to the priests sometime since by the Captain General, authorizing the marriage of whites and blacks, had been modified so far as to appress its publication. This concession was made o the Catalans, or old Spaniards, who, it is said, were hostile to the edict, and determined to resist it, even by force, if necessary.

A rumor prevailed, that the authorities had reolved to open the Royal University to Black students. Indeed, it was the general impression, that the Captain General was an abolitionist, and that having been appointed at the instance of Great Britain, he was acting in concert with that government, and carrying out its wishes for the final extinction of slavery on the Island, There was consequently, much uneasiness among landed proprictors and owners of slaves, and in fact among all 1854. lastes of society. It was the opinion of intelligent Americans, that an invasion, to be successful, must be supported by at least 25,000 efficient soldiers. They say no rehance can be placed upon the creoles, who would be afraid to take sides with either party until they saw who would be successful. Should the present anti-slavery policy of the government he continued the old Spaniards might be forced to take part with the insurgents, in which event the overthrow of the government would be certain. The invaders might effect a landing in a remote part of the Island, but it would be folly to attempt it at or near Havana. The wisest plan would be, to get possession of the Island first, and take Havana after-

It was the general belief that the slaves amounting to about 600,000, would be emancipated by the authorities, in case of a successful invasion. In this event, and with 20,000 trained soldiers on land and the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the Spanish and French fleets at sea, it was believed to subscript the second of the s ed that it would require an enormous outlay of blood and treasure to get and retain possession of the Island.

We daily bear of the most astonishing cures being effected by that great and popular medicine, the genuine H. G. FARRELL'S ARABIAN LINIMENT, and we can truly say, from our owe knowledge, that no medicine ever discovered has performed the same wonderful cures, that it bas, both in man and beast, and it is equally good for both, which makes it so truly valuable. It is, therefore, halled by the suffering as the greatest blessing of the age, and no one would ever allow himself to be without this sovereign balm, who had once witnessed its magic power over disease, and its wonderful potency in relieving pair, owever severe, in a few minutes' time. We earnestly desire you to call upon the agent, who will furnish you, free of charge, a small book containing, besides other valuable information, a large list of certificates from many of the most respectable persons, of cures effected by this celebra-ted medicine, which surely are enough to convince the most sceptical of its trancendent virtues. We notice several certificates of rheumatism cured after the nationt had suffered everything but death for five to twenty years. Alo cases of paralysis, or loss of the use of limbs, whe re the fiesh had withered, leaving nothing apparently but dried skin and bone, presenting so horrid a spectacle that their PRIENDS LOOKED UPON THEM APPALLED, while physicians pronounced them BEYOND ANY HUMAN EFFORT to relieve. It is the most effincious remedy known for burns, sprains, wounds, bruises, chilblains, neuralgia, toothache, bites of insects and reptiles, sore throat sore eyes, partial blindness, etc. from its beginning of fistules, pollevil, ringbone and spavin, it will invariably stop their future progress. Every family should keep this valuable medicine on hand, ready for any emergency.

Look out for Counterfeits! Look out for Counterfeits!

The public are cautioned sgainst another counterfeit, which has lately made its appearance, called W. B. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, the most dangerous of all the counterfeits, because his having the name of Farrell, many will buy it in good faith, without the knowledge that a counterfeitexists, and they will perhaps only discover their error when the apurious mixture has wrought its cril effects.

PHOTOGRAPH VIEWS OF EGYPT-PAST AND PRESENT. By Rev. Jos. P. THOMPSO Ectract from the New York Owerver, June 8th, 1854.] [Ectract from the New York Observer, June 8th, 1854.]

"With the freshness of recent observation we have been looking over the pages of this handsome volume from the pen of the Rev. Mr. Thompson, pastor of the Broadway Tabernacle. He calls his views Photographic, and they appear to have been vividly made on his own mind, so that he transfers them with I fe and beauty to the mind of the reader. The general feeling that pervaded his soul, pervades the volume, making it a pleasant book to read, and full of the very information one wishes to have of the land of Egypt. It cannot hall to prove one of the most popular books on that interesting country."

"A delightful, well-written book, portraying Western life to the letter. The book abounds in an easy humor, with touching sentences of tenderness and pathos scattered through it, and from first to last keeps up a humane interest that very many authors strive in vain to achieve. Tem pest' and 'Sunshine,' two sisters, are an exemplification of pest and Sanstine, two sisters, are an exemplification of the good that to some comes by nature, and to others is found only through trials, temptation, and tribulation. Mr. Middleton, the lather of 'Tempest' and 'Sunshine,' is the very soul and spirit of 'Old Kentuck,' abridged into one man. The book is worth reading. There is a healthy tone of morality pervading it that will make it a suitable work to be be placed in the hands of our daughters and sisters.—

New York Day Book. THE DODD FAMILY ABROAD. By Charles Lever. Svo., Paper 75 cts.

One of Lever's finest and funniest specimens of inimitable humor and satire. It relates the adventures of an Irish family, who leave their kindred bog trotters at home, and go in search of "the genteel" on an European tour. They fall into all sorts of scrapes, and constantly suffer from their own absurdities. The characters of the ambitions and most foolish mamma, the long suffering papa, the graceless wretch of a son, and the deluded beauty of a daughter, are sustained with infinite spirit, and afford an endless fund of amusement.
