

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
FORT SUMTER TAKEN!!

Great Sacrifice of Dry Goods!!
No Tax on THESE GOODS!!

Great Bargains at the CASH STORE!

JAMES W. O'BORN would respectfully inform the citizens of Rapides and adjoining Parishes, that he has purchased the large and well selected stock of DRY GOODS belonging to M. A. ZENKER & CO., at an immense sacrifice, and that he is prepared to sell the same at their original cost in New Orleans, for CASH.

The stock consists of:

Fine Colored Dress Materials,
Beds, Bedding, Linen, Towels, 9cts. for $1.
Also a fine selection of French and English Prints,
Bonnets, Ladies' and Children's White and colored Muskets, French Books, Ornament,
Gardening Tools, Pumps in India, Double Sewing Machines, etc.

Having a large stock of Sewing Machines, & Tools for Tailoring, Shirts, Underwear, Cravats,

1000 Boxes, Laces, and Cords,
1000 Boxes and Children's Pins,
Stockings, etc.

Books, Children

and a large stock of the pieces of odd goods, I am confident of being able to satisfy all your wants.

Quantity, Quality, & Price.

In addition to the above, I have a large stock of

Groceries, Candy, Hosiery,

and Laces.

In consequence of the above, I will be available to supply any and every customer with what he may want.

Small Prints and other articles.

James W. O'BORN,
Gardener, Tailor, Merchant, etc.

1000 Broad Street, New Orleans.

Telephone No. 122.

STOTT'S SUGAR MILL,
COCA-COLA.

The above is a well known sugar mill located on the Bayou Teche, about 10 miles from New Orleans, and is owned by Mr. STOTT, who is a well known sugar manufacturer.

He has a large stock of sugar.

He also manufactures

COCA-COLA.

He has a large stock of

COCA-COLA.

He also manufactures

COCA-COLA.