SENATE AND HOUSE.

SAMUEL H. BOND ELECTED JUDGE OF SCOTT COUNTY.

JOINT OYSTER COMMISSION.

Virginians to Meet Marylanders for the Purpose of Conferring Upon the Subject of Protection of the Bivalves-Matter of Abandonment of

Tracks Brought Up by Mr. Revercombe-Accounts of Auditors' Offices

The Senate and House were in session about an hour yesterday and transacted considerable business. Mr. Samuel H. Bond was elected judge of the Scott County Court to succeed the late Judge Kane The Senate agreed to a joint resolution for the appointment of a joint commission to meet a like commis sion from the Maryland Legislature for the purpose of conferring upon the sub-ject of the protection of the oyster beds of the two States. The House will have to act on the resolution.

Session of the Senate. Tweny-six members of the Senate were in their seats when the Lieutenant-Governor rapped the body to order at noon yesterday, and a few came in later. There yesterday, and a few came in later. There was great regret expressed at the absence of Mr. Keezell, the member from Rockingham, and the cause thereof—the paralysis of his wife. His friends were cheered by the news that the lady was recovering and that she would perhaps recovering and that she would perhaps

Rev. Mr. Gravatt, of the Episcopal Church, made the opening prayer, and then the Senate at once proceeded with the usual routine of the morning hour.

Soon after the Senate convened Mr.
Willard presented a communication from the Maryland Legislature announcing the appointment of a joint commission from that State to meet a similar commission from Virginia to confer concerning the Broad streets steps necessary to be taken for the better protection of the oyster beds of the two States. It was suggested that the two commissions meet at Old Point or in Washington for the transaction of the business. On motion of Mr. Sale the Senate agreed to appoint a commission of three from the Senate and five from the House to act for Virginia.

THE KEEPING OF ACCOUNTS.

Mr. Barksdale offered a joint resolution for the appointment of a joint committee of three from the Senate and four from the House to investigate the tion for the appointment of a joint committee of three from the Senate and four from the House to investigate the manner of keeping accounts in the office of the First and Second Auditors, and to report, such improvements as might appear to be wise. Mr. Barksdale said the resolution was not meant to be in any way a reflection upon the officials mentioned, but he thought it was possible that there were leakages which might be prevented by a different system. The be prevented by a different system. The Governor in his message recommended that such action be taken. Mr. Lupton called the attention of the Senate to the fact that there was in existence now a committee of the two houses to look into this subject, and Mr. Barksdale consented to have the resolution go

The Senate at 12:30 went into the execution of the joint order, the election of a judge of the County Court of Scott county, Mr. Bruce nominated Mr. Samuel H. Bond, and the nominee received the votes of all the members present, including two or three Republicans.

Mr. Anderson introduced and had blaced on the calendar a bill confirming the authority conferred by the Richmond City Council on the Jefferson Davis Monument Association to erect an arch over Broad street at Twelfth. ABANDONMENT OF TRACKS.

Mr. Revercomb endeavored to have gates is concerned.

The following bills were introduced and amended the bill which amended section 1089 of the Code of Virginia, referring to the manner in which rallways may abandon their tracks, but he was not successful. There is now pending a bill which seeks to allow the Chesapeake and Ohio to abandon its tracks from Balcony Falls to Buena Vista, and use the tracks of the Norfolk and Western from Glasgow, on the opposite side of the the tracks of the Norfolk and Western from Glasgow, on the opposite side of the river, to Buena Vista. Mr. Revercombe feared that the effect of the amendments proposed to the present law would be to allow the change to be made without the passage of the bill for the purpose. Mr. Wickham assured the Senate that the bill could not by any means confer such power, but Mr. Revercombe insisted upon his amendment, and it was rejected. upon his amendment, and it was rejected by a decisive vote. House of Delegates. The House met at noon yesterday, Speaker Ryan presiding. Prayer was offered by the Rev. P. B. Price, of the Presbyterian Church. Eighty of the one for the position and was unanimously elected.

A communication was received from the Constitutional Convention relating to the tender of the Hall of the House of Delegates for meeting purposes, which was declined with thanks.

The ever-recurring Norfolk-Portsmouth
Quarantine Commission fight was taken up as unfinished business, and there were more speeches between Messrs. Whitehead and Bland, the former opposing the engrossment of the bill, while the latter advocated the measure. Mr. Sebrell got into the fight and made a motion that the bill be recommitted, but the House decided that it had had enough of the debate, and declined to recommit, and then ordered the bill to its engrossment and third reading, thus practically ending the fight so far as the House of Delegates is concerned.

DEAFNESS. TALK ABOUT

They Point Out the Cause of Progressive Hardness of Hearing and Show Conclusively How it May be Curad.

Says a well-known ear specialist: 'Deafness in 90 per cent. of the cases is the direct result of closure of the eustachian tube (a little passageway leading. from the middle ear to the back part from the middle ear to the back part of the throat) from a catarrhal inflammation of its mucous membrane. Then follows a rarefaction of air in the middle ear, with consequent intrusion of the drum, and an impaction of the ossicular arch, with a gradual anchylosis of the ossicular articulations, and a progressive stenosis of the eustachian tubes."

An editorial in the Medical Brief, a journal published by and for physicians, and having the largest circulation of any strictly professional medical publication in the world, says (10-1301, P. 1517):
"Deafness is becoming increasingly common, and the frequent failure of local treatment makes it necessary that we look for systemic conditions which may play a part in the continuance of the trouble.

At least three for the eff the cases of play a part in the continuance of the trouble.

At least three for the eases of dearness are due to patarrhal disease involving the enstachment time.

Simply cleansing diseased mucous surfaces, inflating the middle ear, injecting medicaments, etc., will make no permanent impression, so long as constitutional conditions remain unchanged.

Persistent medication, with careful attention to hygiene, may yield an amelioration of the trouble, and as deafness is a very great affliction, hampering the individual in a business way and shutting out much enjoyment, even a slight improvement is well worth working for."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets constitute the best, most reliable, and economical internal or constitutional remedy for catarrh anywhere about the body. Acting as they do through the blood, they search out and attack the disease wherever it may lurk. That this medicine cures catarry and such as even and you will become their advocate and friend.

tarrhal deafness is attested by many worthy and reliable people worthy and reliable people.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt, of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I have suffered much from catarh of the head, throat, and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers, and powders for months at a time, with only slight relief, and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure. Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarh Tablets, and promptly bought a 59-cent box from my druggist, and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask, and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved until I can hear as well as ever."

Mr. James W. Brown says: "I suffered from catarrhal deafness for years, and spent hundreds of dollars with specialists without relief. Stuart's Catarrh Tablets completely cured my catarrh, and to-day I can hear as well as I ever could."
