THE "LILY WHITE" MOVE.

What President Wants. WASHINGTON, D. C., September 18 .-(Special.)-North Carolina and Alabama having excluded the negro from further participation in Republican councils, and voting only, and South Carolina and other Southern States preparing to do the same thing, Virginia Republicans are watching what is going to be the outcome of the half-way promises that the negro in that State, too, is to be removed to a distance. Not much has been done in ne wants a white man's Republican party in the South, but the old-timers like Messrs. Agnew and Bowden are not disposed to rush quickly into new moves and particularly when not thoroughly posted as to the wishes and desires of the great head of their party. In other ways, such as putting up candidates for Congress, the organization is complying with Executive wishes, but in that case no doubt existed as to the President's real SECOND DISTRICT SITUATION. On the other hand, persistent informa tion reaches the Dispatch correspond-ent here that the Wise element is quietly considering the advisability of non-nating a man of their own liking. It is claimed that advices have been received from the Republican Congressional Com mittee that the committee could not well do otherwise than recognize a Wise nominee after its action of two years ago, cessful, and the Bowden element in the district ought to know just how they stand with Chairman Babcock and his the Wise people will make a gum-shos canvass among their people, and arrive at a decision later on to hold a conven-tion. Contrary to this information is the Bowden view that after all there is com-paratively little of the old Wise opposition in the district, and that the Republicans there were never more har monious. The claim is made that Alva Martin so thoroughly controls the old Wise faction that he will be able to hold the bulk of it in co-operation with Mr. Bowden, thereby preventing anything except the most farcical opposition.

The fight on General Allan for reappointment as United States Attorney for the Eastern District, is being utilized freely by the anti-Bowden people who still remain hostile. They are doing all they can to array the friends of General Allan against Bowden and his workers, and have undoubtedly created some bit-ter feeling. The Government Sends a Similar Protest to the German Foreign Office at Berlin.

BERLIN, September 18.-The German foreign office has received a note from the British government inviting some action on the part of the signatories of the treaty of Berlin of 1878, regarding Roumania's treatment of the Jews.? The British note is shorter than that of the United States on the same subject, but it pursues the same end. It is assumed here that Great Britain knew of th United States' step beforehand, and acted in support thereof. NEW YORK, September 18 .- The nude body of a young woman was found today in the Morris canal between Newark and Jersey City, and was to-night identified by Joseph Pulitzer, of No. 160 west Forty-sixth street, Manhattan, as that of his wife, Annie, who had been missing since Tuesday. The discovery of the body was made by the driver of an express wagon passing along the plank road on the bank of the canal on the Meadows. An attempt had been made to sink it with a 20-pound iron weight at tached to a long hitching strap, the other end of which was tied around the wo man's waist. A long stab wound was found in the abdomen, and a later examination by County Physician Converse revealed the fact that the woman's stall was fractured. Dr. Converse thought that probably two days had elapsed since the killing, but that the body had been in the water only a few hours. The body was removed to Jersey City, and Chief-of-Police Murphy put all his available detectives on the case. L'andlady's Story. Pulitzer and his wife lived at the address given in a boarding-house kept by a Mrs. Fleming. Mrs. Fleming said to-day that the couple had been with her for about a month, and that the husband was a journeyman tailor. On Tuesday evening, Mrs. Fleming said, Pulitzer complained of feeling ill, and his wife went out about midnight, saying that she would get him some fruit. Fleming said that she did not see Pulitzer again until this morning, when he told her that his wife was missing, and that he had been telephoning to her relatives in the hope of finding some trace of her. This afternoon he went to police headquarters and gave a description of the missing woman, but did not ask to have a general alarm sent out. He returned home for dinner, when he was shown an evening paper containing an account of the finding of the body, and on reading the description, which tallied with that of his wife, hurried to Jersey City, where he at once identified the
