

The Sunday Times-Dispatch

Richmond, Va.

Has arranged for three extraordinary features, to begin with Sunday, May the 6th, which the publisher believes will prove of absorbing interest and most satisfactory to the people of Virginia. It is the intention to make a metropolitan Sunday newspaper, and lead all other papers in America published in a city of less than 200,000 people.

Robert Barr,
Author of "Tekla," "The Victors," &c.

John Oliver Hobbes
(Mrs. Craigie),
Author of "The Gods, Some Mortals and Lord Wickingham."

Next Sunday Will Begin

The First of the

Twelve New Novels In Tabloid Form

that this paper will print (one each month). This is possibly the first time in the history of journalism that such world-known authors' works could be offered before they had been printed and sold in book form (at the retail price of $1.50 each. Thus the regular readers of The Times-Dispatch for the next twelve months will get $18.00 worth, copyright brand new fiction from the best of English authors—Robert Barr, Mrs. Burton Harrison, E. F. Benson, Mary E. Wilkins, Eden Phillpotts, John Oliver Hobbes, Max Pemberton, Amelia E. Barr, Cutcliffe Hyne, Gertrude Atherton, Ian MacLaren and Anna Katherine Green.

Mrs. Burton Harrison,
Author of "The Anglomaniacs," "The Carlyles," &c.

Max Pemberton,
Author of "The Hundred Days," &c.

"A Rock in the Baltic,"

By ROBERT BARR,

begins next Sunday. It will be completed in four installments. Don't miss the first installment in tabloid form.

E. F. Benson,
Author of "Dodo," "The Image in the Sand."

Beginning May 6th, Next Sunday,

The Times-Dispatch Will Give the First of the Famous

Charles Dana Gibson Drawings

published by Life and Collier's Weekly. Mr. Gibson was paid $1,000 for each of these drawings. The drawings given in this series are printed in black ink, with a background of cream color on art paper. They will be especially attractive to Virginians, because the Gibson Girl is a Virginia type—a Virginia girl—beautiful. It is astonishing that these works of the highest art can be given free with a Sunday paper.

Amelia E. Barr,
Author of "The Bow of Orange-Ribbon."

Another Feature Most Attractive.

Every man loves good, clean athletics. The Times-Dispatch, beginning with next Sunday, will emphasize its endorsement of clean sports and a square game. It will devote printed on pink paper to a review of the sporting events of the world, and give the very latest athletic news.

It will give the score and standing of each of the big league ball teams, the Virginia League, the Industrial League, the City League and all amateur games of the city and State.

In addition to these splendid features the Sunday Times-Dispatch will print the news from all Virginia. It is a news letter from every community in Virginia to every other community. Its cable service reaches all the world and press service covers all America. If you wish Virginia's greatest newspaper you must get the

Mary E. Wilkins-Freeman,
Author of "The Debtor."

C. J. Cutcliffe Hyne,
Author of "Adventures of Captain Kettle."

The Times-Dispatch Next Sunday

Eden Phillpotts,
Author of "The Secret Woman."

Anna Katherine Green,
Author of "The Leavenworth Case," &c.

Ian MacLaren,
Author of "Beside the Bonnie Briar Bush."

Gertrude Atherton,
Author of "Senator North," "The Conqueror," &c.
