Why Suffer With Your Eyes

BY USING—
Dr. Alfred Seelye's

WINTERGREEN OINTMENT you get immediate relief and cure in a short time.
It is a scientific preparation for Inflammatory Skin Diseases, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Weak, Inflamed and Granulated Eyes, Itching and Bleeding Piles, and all Eruptions, and is meeting with wonderful success wherever given a chance.

MANITOWOC, OREGON, Jan. 2, 1902.
Dr. A. B. Seelye & Co., I received a box of Wintergreen Ointment at Iowa, Texas, to use for piles. It is the best medicine I have ever used and I have tried everything I could get hold of.

Intended to be operated on for Hemorrhoids at Vernon, Texas, but saw your ad, and sent for your ointment, received it two days before the time set for the operation, and it has helped me so much I concluded to give up the operation and use the Wintergreen Ointment a chance. It has cured me.

My bowels move regular now, but before using your Ointment had to take pills or injections all the time. Send me another box by return mail.
Yours,
R. E. Dever.

Ask your Druggist for Dr. Seelye's Winter-green Ointment and insist that he get it for you or send 50 cents to the Laboratory and receive a box by return mail. But try the drug first.

The Dewey celebration began in New York with a naval parade, an official welcome to the admiral by Mayor Van Wyck and a brilliant display of fireworks. Gov. Roosevelt welcomed Admiral Dewey in behalf of New York state. He told a Chicago committee that he must go to Vermont before visiting Chicago.

The naval parade was the greatest marine demonstration in the history of America. The admiral was given a continuous ovation by millions of people. Dewey reviewed the land parade at Madison Square, New York, and was deeply impressed by the beauty of the arch, the honor of the parade and the cheering tributes of the vast host of people. Rear-Admiral Schley received a rousing welcome all along the line of the parade, being second only to Dewey as a recipient of applause. A gold loving-cup, the gift of the city, was presented to the admiral at the city hall. Admiral Dewey's relatives watched the parade from a balcony of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.
The exodus of visiting soldiers began immediately after the parade disbanded.
