M. J. Woodard returned Monday evening from a visit of several weeks with relatives and friends in the east.
He enjoyed his visit and came home feeling first rate, much to the gratification of his many friends.

His many friends in the city will be glad to learn that George Henze, justice of the peace, who has been very ill, is now able to sit up and it is hoped, will be sufficiently recovered in a few days to attend to business.

We have a scholarship in the Milwaukee Business College for sale, which will be sold cheap for cash.
Some young man who wishes to take a business course, should make application at the Leader office Watertown, Wis.

If you are going to do anything for Watertown, do it now. Do not defer saying the good word and giving the helping hand until some other time, for that time may never come. The good things you are intending to do, do now, before it is everlastingly too late.

Fred Lange has added to the appearance of his home on Second street, by giving the exterior a coat of paint, which has greatly improved it and, as it is warm yellow in color Fred and his good wife will be comfortable during the approaching winter.

We have a 30 H. P. 5-passenger, fully equipped with top, glass front, magneto, 5-lamps, acetelene gas, 1910 model automobile, new, for sale. We will make the price so low for a quick cash sale that it will almost make you gasp for breath. For particulars

Hon. Paul Hastings of Juneau, democratic candidate for state senator for Dodge county, and Max Wegemann of Lake Mills, democratic candidate for sheriff, John Welch of Kosh-konong, democratic candidate for county clerk, and C. E. Sovner of Fort Atkinson, candidate for state senator in this district, were in the city Monday and remained to attend the democratic rally in the evening.

The improvements on the Wiggenshorn business building at the corner of Main and First streets, has added much to the looks and value, and the coat of paint on the exterior, makes it look new and pleasing to the sight.
The storeroom is occupied by Wiggenshorn & Son as a jewelry store, and they carry one of the very best stocks in the city, having in stock the very best in their line and their price are reasonable.

The Copeland-Roach Motor Co. has taken the agency for the sale of the Huppmobile, one of the most perfect auto's manufactured. It is equipped with all of the very latest improvements and is in the reach of all who want a serviceable runabout. They also have on exhibition at their garage on First street a 1911 Mitchell 5-passenger car, which is a beauty and one of the best on the market. Those intending to purchase an auto should talk with Mr. T. B. Roach, who will give them facts and figures relative to automobiles.

in Lawrence college, Appleton, and will remain during the school year in that institution and possibly remain until she graduates.

Fremont Lounsbury and son Carl of Pipersville, were visitors in the city Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Lounsbury had just returned from a twelve day trip in the northern part of the state.

G. Borchardt, the mercant, wanting a little relaxation and change, went into the country Tuesday and attended an old fashioned "corn husking bee." If he found a red ear, he failed to report the fact.

Saturday, the Northwestern football team defeated the St. Johns team by a score of 18 to 6, and the Northwestern team felt pretty good over their victory and the students of that institution wore their hats over their right ears.

About January 1, the west side will have a nickel show theatre in the store room in the Smith building now occupied by A. E. Bauman as a candy and ice cream parlor. Joseph Heon Gus Neuman will occupy his new building on Second street as a barber shop and residence in about a week from today. It is one of the best finished and most convenient buildings in the city and Gus is justified in being proud to be the owner of such a building.

The Evangelical Lutheran Home for the Feeble Minded in this city was remembered by Mrs. August Vogel of Milwaukee, who recently passed away. By the terms of her will, the institution is to receive $5,000, which was a bequest well bestowed and which was needed.

Hon. Francis E. McGovern, the republican nominee for governor, was a visitor in the city Wednesday afternoon and quite a number of our citizens called on him at the New Commercial Hotel. He went from here to Fort Atkinson, where he spoke in the evening, making the trip in an auto accompanied by Dr. A. H.
Hartwig.

A. G. Schmedemann of Madison, democratic nominee for congress in this district, was in the city Monday and listened to A. J. Schmitz in the evening at Turner hall. Mr. Schmed-emann is a very popular man and no doubt, if elected, would make a good representative, but it looks as if John M. would give him the Nelson strangle and down him at the polls; but you cannot almost always tell what will happen in politics these days.
