The creditors of F. M. Logan will meet in Madison Feb. 12 for the purpose of filing accounts and appointing a trustee.

Cahill has just received a shipment of wall paper made in England. It is 22 inches wide and each roll is about double the size of the average American roll.

Mrs. C. F. Dunbar entertained lady friends at progressive whist on Thursday afternoon. The prizes were won by Mrs. B. T. Singel and Mrs. L. K. Wright.

The home of Judge Reid, on Warren street, is out of quarantine. A case of scarlet fever in the family several weeks ago made it necessary for the red card to be hung up. A.A.

The Prior has received a first number of the "Marathon Times" published in Marathon City. Its editor and publisher is Chas. H. Leicht, former B. Tobey and G. D. Jones.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Literary club was held in the Wausau club house yesterday afternoon. At the business meeting it was voted to join the American Civic association.

The program which followed, was as follows:

Vocal solo by Miss Pardee.

"Lovell's Boyhood and College Days" by Mrs. C. B. Bird.

"Lowell—Poet and Abolitionist" by Miss Marion Macdonald.

The Skogvard combination gives a concert tomorrow evening in the M. E. church. It is said to be a very strong musical organization and has won unstinted praise wherever it has appeared.

At a meeting of Utter Post held last evening a committee was appointed to meet with other bodies tonight and confer with them regarding a Lincoln day celebration. This committee will report to the Post tomorrow evening.

Arrangements are being made by the committee to call on the banker powers at Rothschilds to have all the overflowed lands cleared up, so that when the large lake is formed there will be no insinuating dead trees standing above the water.

Justice J. A. Jones has on display in his office an old sword—relief of the civil war. This sword was picked up on the battlefield after the last battle of Marathon. It was owned for many years by Mr. Jozefen, who is of the saber design and was owned by some confederate officer.

Charles Morganroth, who owns the Bellis farm in the town of Texas, has just installed a milking machine at his place and he says it works like a charm. He has found this necessary in order to better facilitate work on his large dairy. Mr. Morganroth has invited Mr. Croswait and his class to go out and examine the workings of the machine.

Miss Helen Stewart entertained a few friends at whist on Friday afternoon.

Wm. Schreiber has an ad in this paper which every money saver should read. It offers many bargains.
