A Card.

We take this means of returning thanks to one and all for the many favors shown us and our daughter during her long illness and death.
We will ever hold them in grateful remembrance.

MR. AND MRS. GEO. LAWS.

A Card.

I take this means of thanking friends who so kindly came forward during the affliction and death of my bride and A. W. Jordan. Be assured my heart is filled with sincere gratitude and appreciation for the many acts of kindness rendered.

MARY E. JORDAN,

CURED OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmore, N.
Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 50 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the dropsy had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." Sold by W. A.
Hayes, Druggist.

--Mr. Eugene A. Hughes, Tax Collector, has removed his office from the grand jury room in the court house to the old Norwood law office east side of the court house.
Mr. H. Scott Cates will assist him in closing up his business as tax collector, and Mr. Hughes informs us that it is his purpose to do this as speedily as possible. So if your property should appear in the advertised list it will be your fault, as you have been warned time and again.

--1 pound assorted screws for 10c, at Brown's.

It some people living in other sections would spend less time in solving "southern problems" and more time in solving their own the result would be encouraging, to say the least.--Winston Sentinel.

NOTICE.

Mr. Charles M. Hayes has been appointed agent for collecting debts of the firm of James Webb, Jr. & Bro., and is located next door to Dr. C. D. Jones' drugstore. All those indebted to the said firm are requested to call on Mr. Hayes at an early date and make some satisfactory settlement of their accounts.
