

PE-RU-NA

For Cramps in the Stomach of Six Years

"I was troubled with cramps in the stomach for six years. I tried many kinds of medicine, also was treated by three doctors.

"They said that I had nervous dyspepsia. I took the medicine for two years, then I got sick again and gave up all hopes of getting cured.

"I saw a testimonial of a man whose case was similar to mine, being cured by Peruna, so thought I would give it a trial. I procured a bottle at once, and commenced taking it.

"I have taken nineteen bottles, and am entirely cured. I believe Peruna is all that is claimed for it."—Mrs. J. C. Jamison, 61 Marchant St., Watonsville, Cal.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, caused it to become a constitutional disease. Catarrh requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

ECZEMA BURNED AND ITCHED.

Spread Over Hand, Arms, Legs and Face—It Was Something Terrible—Complete Cure by Cuticura.

"About fifteen or eighteen years ago eczema developed on top of my hand. It burned and itched so much that I was compelled to show it to a doctor. He pronounced it ringworm. After trying his different remedies the disease increased and went up my arms and to my legs and finally on my face. The burning was something terrible. I went to another doctor who had the reputation of being the best in town. He told me it was eczema. His medicine checked the advance of the disease but no further. I finally concluded to try the Cuticura Remedies and found relief in the first trial. I continued until I was completely free from the disease and I have not been troubled since. C. Burkhardt, 238 W. Market St., Chambersburg, Pa., Sept. 10, 1908." Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props. of Cuticura Remedies, Boston, Mass.

PRACTICAL ADVICE ABOUT DIVERSIFIED FARMING

A Cheap Smoke House.

Money being a scarce article, I invented a smoke house which gives just as good service as though it cost a hundred dollars. It is made of a large packing box three and one-half feet high, two feet deep and three feet wide. A wide cleat is put in the top, to keep the meat from hanging against the box. In two days I smoked two large hams perfectly.—Mrs. F. B. W., Minnesota, in Woman's Home Companion.

Chicken Ranch Pointers.

Green cut bone as a food for poultry is one of the essential good things in the poultry diet. Where it can be had and used fresh at all times, it is almost indispensable.

The hen breeds more dollars than any other living creature—if judiciously fed on the proper feed.

The demand for improved poultry will be greater the coming year than ever before. Mark the prediction.

To assist in leading the boys upon the farms to love the homestead, if they are so inclined, allow them to build a poultry house, add them in purchasing some thoroughbred stock.

Apple Trees Before Topping and Two Years After.

Useful For Feeding Hogs.

A number of breeders use a crate for handling hogs and find it a very useful article. It should be made of light and strong as possible, two by two inch posts and one by four inch white pine strips being used. The most useful size is fifty-four inches long, thirty inches high and sixteen inches wide, inside measurements. The bottom is made one inch smaller each way than the inside measurement in order to allow the crate to slip down over it. Two pieces of half-inch gas pipe twenty-four inches long can then be slipped through the holes in the lower side pieces, which will hold the bottom up and also serve as handles when lifting it.

After the crate is finished keep it in the yard where the hogs will get used to it, and when you want to pick out a hog place the bottom of the crate where it will be handy; then pick up the crate, with the right hand holding the upper crosspiece, and the left hand holding a side slat near the opposite end, and after you have the "swing of it" approach the hog from the rear and a little to the left side and pitch the crate lengthwise over him, letting go with the left hand, that the front end may strike the earth first.

Hold fast with the right hand and pull the crate backward, and you will find that you can in this manner take the hog anywhere you choose. Do not speak, and keep out of sight of the hog as much as possible. Do not try to hold the crate still or to back him on the bottom of the crate until he quiets down a little. You will be surprised to see how quiet he will become after he has walked backward a few rods. To put him into another crate or through a door, says the Twentieth Century Farmer, raise the front end a little, and he will go in like a shot.

Business Maxims.

He will always be a slave who does not know how to live on little. It takes a wise man to tell whether the world is laughing with him or at him.

A good night feed is parched corn, fed warm.

Bad luck, in most instances, is bad administration.

Much pepper is too stimulating and irritating, but a little is warming and sustaining.

Keep pure-breds, either for eggs or meat, and keep them pure.

The scraps from the table will produce better results if given to the hens than to the pigs or cows. Give plenty of milk also.

Filth and disease are the worst foes of the poultry yard.

Green Cut Bone.

There's nothing better for laying hens or growing chicks than green cut bone. It furnishes everything needed for bone and muscle, develops the body and makes strong, husky fowls. For the laying hens it furnishes a supply of egg forming materials, and helps to keep the hens healthy. If judiciously fed, there is nothing better than ground bone, and since home mills are so cheap and so perfect in their operations, there is no reason why every one should not own one.

The writer has found that when less than one hundred hens were kept it paid a handsome profit to buy a mill. The bones can be had at any butcher shop at practically no cost, and the labor of grinding them on a good cutter is just enough for exercise. Ground bone should be fed about every other day, or a small portion may be given each day. It may be fed as a separate food, or it may be mixed with a mash. Watch care.

fully that it is given the hens regularly, as an oversupply will do great injury.

Whitewash the Henhouse.

Every poultryman should give the henhouse a periodical coat of lime-wash, and the oftener he does it the better. The matter is a very simple one. If the house is small, all you may need is a lime wash brush, and a bucket of water into which a few handfuls of quicklime have been put, well stirred together and allowed to settle. The stuff when put on should be about as thick as cream. A handful of common rough salt will help it to adhere to the walls, a spoonful or two of liquid carbolic acid will help it to do its murderous work on animal life, and a little bit of powder-blue (washing blue) will prevent the white coat turning yellow by and by. If the henhouse is a large one it will pay to use a sprayer for putting on the lime wash. This is a most effective way of whitewashing any building.—Louisiana Rice Journal.

A Good Cheap Pump.

This consists of a "stock" of common piping; size should be one and one-half inches, and must be clamped to the casing. Spout and handle brace can be put on by a blacksmith in a few minutes. Suction rod must be attached to handle as shown in cut. The hook on the end of the handle is an essential feature. The cost is comparatively nothing.—Jno. R. Sater, in the Epitomist.

One Male For Flock.

Never have more than one male bird in the flock at the same time. Better results will be obtained by alternating males every week or so, than to yard them all at the same time.

President Taft's White Steamer

PRESIDENT TAFT AND HIS FAMILY IN THEIR WHITE STEAMER.

When the announcement was made several months ago that Mr. Taft would use an automobile, instead of carriages, during his term as President, much rivalry developed among the leading manufacturers for the honor of selling him a car, and the public watched with interest to see what Mr. Taft's choice would be. The knowing ones predicted that the White Steamer would be selected, and they pointed out that President Roosevelt had used White Steamers for two years at his summer home at Oyster Bay, and had recommended this make to Mr. Taft as the most desirable.

This prediction proved correct, although Mr. Taft did not rely solely on Mr. Roosevelt's recommendation, but with his usual thoroughness, determined to have an investigation made of all the principal makes. Accordingly, he asked several officers of the War Department to look into the matter for him, and they tested many makes of cars, visited a number of factories, so that they might see what materials were used, and, finally, they investigated the records of the different types of cars in public contests and in private service.

When their labors were completed, the officials reported unanimously to Mr. Taft in favor of the White, and accordingly a car of this make was immediately ordered from the manufacturers, The White Company, of Cleveland.

The new car was delivered to Mr. Taft in Washington a few days before his inauguration, and since that time it has been in almost constant use. There has not been a day when the President or some members of his family have not been seen riding around the National Capital in the new car. It is hinted that Mr. Taft likes fast traveling, and that when he rides out into the open country, he does not always insist that the speed of the car be kept within the legal limits.

E. W. Gans, manager of the southern branch of the White Company, 126 Marietta street, Atlanta, Ga., said recently to a correspondent of this paper: "We are receiving many inquiries each day asking for full details regarding the construction of Mr. Taft's car, and in reply we are sending copies of our catalog. Mr. Taft's car is exactly like any other Model 'M' 40 horse-power White Steamer except that his car has the United States coat-of-arms painted on either door. In other words, when we make a car for the President of the United States there is no way in which we can make it any better than the car which you, or anybody else, can purchase from us."

"Some of those writing to me about Mr. Taft's car say that, although they are very desirous of having a car like Mr. Taft's, they are afraid that such a car is somewhat larger and more expensive than they desire. In reply to these letters I point out that our Model 'O' 20 horse-power car is exactly like our 40 horse-power model, except as regards the size of the different parts. The principle of construction is exactly the same and the smaller car possesses all the desirable qualities of our larger model. In other words, I point out that they can secure an exact duplicate of Mr. Taft's car for $4000, or a car of the same qualities, but of smaller dimensions, for only $2000. Judging by the demand for White cars, a good proportion of those desiring to purchase automobiles are quite content to trust President Taft's judgment as to the best and most desirable make."
